STYLE AND FORMAT OF THE WASHINGTON STATE REGISTER

1. ARRANGEMENT OF THE REGISTER

The Register is arranged in the following eight sections:

- (a) PREPROPOSAL-includes the Preproposal Statement of Inquiry that will be used to solicit public comments on a general area of proposed rule making before the agency files a formal notice.
- (b) PROPOSED-includes the full text of formal proposals, continuances, supplemental notices, and withdrawals.
- (c) EXPEDITED RULE MAKING-includes the full text of the rule being proposed using the expedited rule-making process. Expedited rule makings are not consistently filed and may not appear in every issue of the register.
- (d) PERMANENT-includes the full text of permanently adopted rules.
- (e) EMERGENCY-includes the full text of emergency rules and rescissions.
- (f) MISCELLANEOUS-includes notice of public meetings of state agencies, rules coordinator notifications, summaries of attorney general opinions, executive orders and emergency declarations of the governor, rules of the state Supreme Court, and other miscellaneous documents filed with the code reviser's office under RCW 34.08.020 and 42.30.075.
- (g) TABLE-includes a cumulative table of the WAC sections that are affected in the current year.
- (h) INDEX-includes a cumulative index of Register Issues 01 through 24.

Documents are arranged within each section of the Register according to the order in which they are filed in the code reviser's office during the pertinent filing period. Each filing is listed under the agency name and then describes the subject matter, type of filing and the WSR number. The three part number in the heading distinctively identifies each document, and the last part of the number indicates the filing sequence with a section's material.

2. PRINTING STYLE—INDICATION OF NEW OR DELETED MATERIAL

RCW 34.05.395 requires the use of certain marks to indicate amendments to existing agency rules. This style quickly and graphically portrays the current changes to existing rules as follows:

- (a) In amendatory sections—
 - (i) underlined material is new material;
 - (ii) deleted material is ((lined out between double parentheses));
- (b) Complete new sections are prefaced by the heading NEW SECTION;
- (c) The repeal of an entire section is shown by listing its WAC section number and caption under the heading REPEALER.

3. MISCELLANEOUS MATERIAL NOT FILED UNDER THE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT

Material contained in the Register other than rule-making actions taken under the APA (chapter 34.05 RCW) does not necessarily conform to the style and format conventions described above. The headings of these other types of material have been edited for uniformity of style; otherwise the items are shown as nearly as possible in the form submitted to the code reviser's office.

4. EFFECTIVE DATE OF RULES

- Permanently adopted agency rules normally take effect thirty-one days after the rules and the agency order adopting them are filed with the code reviser's office. This effective date may be delayed or advanced and such an effective date will be noted in the promulgation statement preceding the text of the rule.
- (b) Emergency rules take effect upon filing with the code reviser's office unless a later date is provided by the agency. They remain effective for a maximum of one hundred twenty days from the date of filing.
- (c) Rules of the state Supreme Court generally contain an effective date clause in the order adopting the rules.

5. EDITORIAL CORRECTIONS

Material inserted by the code reviser's office for purposes of clarification or correction or to show the source or history of a document is enclosed in [brackets].

All documents are due at the code reviser's office by 12:00 noon on or before the applicable closing date for inclusion in a particular issue of the Register; see WAC 1-21-040.

A filing of any length will be accepted on the closing dates of this column if it has been prepared and completed by the order typing service (OTS) of the code reviser's office; see WAC 1-21-040. Agency-typed material is subject to a ten page limit for these dates; longer agency-typed material is subject to the earlier non-OTS dates.

At least twenty days before the rule-making hearing, the agency shall cause notice of the hearing to be published in the Register; see RCW 34.05.320(1). These dates represent the twentieth day after the distribution date of the applicable Register.

A minimum of forty-five days is required between the distribution date of the Register giving notice of the expedited adoption and the agency adoption date. No hearing is required, but the public may file written objections. See RCW 1.12.040 and 34.05.353.

REGULATORY FAIRNESS ACT

The Regulatory Fairness Act, chapter 19.85 RCW, was enacted in 1982 to minimize the impact of state regulations on small business. Amended in 1994, the act requires a small business economic impact analysis of proposed rules that impose more than a minor cost on twenty percent of the businesses in all industries, or ten percent of the businesses in any one industry. The Regulatory Fairness Act defines industry as businesses within a four digit SIC classification, and for the purpose of this act, small business is defined by RCW 19.85.020 as "any business entity, including a sole proprietorship, corporation, partnership, or other legal entity, that is owned and operated independently from all other businesses, that has the purpose of making a profit, and that has fifty or fewer employees."

Small Business Economic Impact Statements (SBEIS)

A small business economic impact statement (SBEIS) must be prepared by state agencies when a proposed rule meets the above criteria. Chapter 19.85 RCW requires the Washington State Business Assistance Center (BAC) to develop guidelines for agencies to use in determining whether the impact of a rule is more than minor and to provide technical assistance to agencies in developing a SBEIS. All permanent rules adopted under the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW, must be reviewed to determine if the requirements of the Regulatory Fairness Act apply; if an SBEIS is required it must be completed before permanent rules are filed with the Office of the Code Reviser.

Mitigation

In addition to completing the economic impact analysis for proposed rules, state agencies must take reasonable, legal, and feasible steps to reduce or mitigate the impact of rules on small businesses when there is a disproportionate impact on small versus large business. State agencies are encouraged to reduce the economic impact of rules on small businesses when possible and when such steps are in keeping with the stated intent of the statute(s) being implemented by proposed rules. Since 1994, small business economic impact statements must contain a list of the mitigation steps taken, or reasonable justification for not taking steps to reduce the impact of rules on small businesses.

When is an SBEIS Required?

When:

The proposed rule has more than a minor (as defined by the BAC) economic impact on businesses in more than twenty percent of all industries or more than ten percent of any one industry.

When is an SBEIS Not Required?

When:

The rule is proposed only to comply or conform with a federal law or regulation, and the state has no discretion in how the rule is implemented;

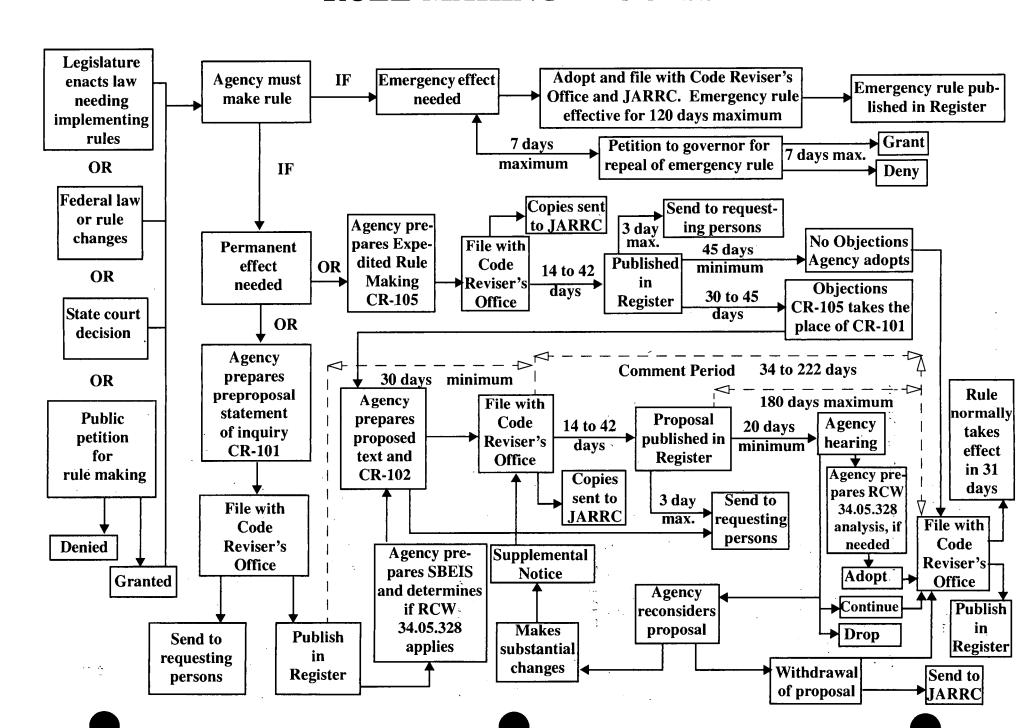

There is less than minor economic impact on business;

The rule REDUCES costs to business (although an SBEIS may be a useful tool for demonstrating this reduced impact);

The rule is adopted as an emergency rule, although an SBEIS may be required when an emergency rule is proposed for adoption as a permanent rule; or

The rule is pure restatement of state statute.

WSR 01-23-096 PREPROPOSAL STATEMENT OF INQUIRY STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

[Filed November 21, 2001, 11:49 a.m.]

Subject of Possible Rule Making: Chapter 246-215 WAC, Food service, with the goal of developing regulations that are more consistent statewide, using the FDA Food Code as a guide.

Statutes Authorizing the Agency to Adopt Rules on this Subject: RCW 43.20.050.

Reasons Why Rules on this Subject may be Needed and What They Might Accomplish: The state's food service rules were last significantly revised in 1992. Since then, the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) developed a model ordinance for regulating food service establishments called the "Food Code." Thirty states have adopted and fifteen other states are in the process of adopting most of the Food Code. Members of the food service industry and local health personnel have commented that the state's food service rules need to be more consistent with the provisions of the Food Code regarding such issues as manager knowledge, exclusion of ill workers from food preparation, alternative cooking temperatures, refrigeration temperature, speed of cooling, reheating, time/temperature control, molluscan shellfish tags, and greater use of hazard analysis critical control point process. Some other provisions of the state rules need clarification regarding such issues as bare hand contact with ready to eat food, temporary events, temperature monitoring, and exempt foods.

Other Federal and State Agencies that Regulate this Subject and the Process Coordinating the Rule with These Agencies: The United States Department of Agriculture regulates the production of meat and poultry products in interstate commerce; FDA regulates other food items in interstate commerce and provides guidance to state and local agencies about safe food service practices; the Washington State Department of Agriculture regulates food products in intrastate commerce at the wholesale level; the Department of Health administers rules of the board regarding retail food service safety, which are implemented by local health agencies.

Process for Developing New Rule: Broad-based advisory committee of food service stakeholders and food safety partners.

Interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication by contacting Marianne Seifert, Environmental Health Policy Advisor, Washington State Board of Health, P.O. Box 47990, Olympia, WA 98504-7990, phone (360) 236-4103, fax (360) 236-4088, e-mail Marianne.seifert@doh.wa.gov; or Ned Therien, Public Health Advisor, Washington State Department of Health, P.O. WSR 01-23-005 PROPOSED RULES DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING

[Filed November 7, 2001, 2:12 p.m.]

Original Notice.

Preproposal statement of inquiry was filed as WSR [01-08-096].

Title of Rule: Grounds for denial or withdrawal of course approval.

Purpose: Add a new subsection to the rule which will allow for the withdrawal of course approvals granted by the mistake or inadvertence of the director.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 18.85.040(1).

Summary: The existing rule does not allow for withdrawal of course approval when that approval was granted through the mistake or inadvertence of the director or the director's representatives. Courses mistakenly approved may offer misinformation to real estate licensees.

Reasons Supporting Proposal: Course approval may not be withdrawn without due process rights. This rule change allows a basis for issuing a notice to withdraw approval based on the mistake or inadvertence of the director.

Name of Agency Personnel Responsible for Drafting: Jana L. Jones, Department of Licensing, Black Lake Complex, P.O. Box 2445, Olympia, WA, (360) 664-6524; and Enforcement: Department of Licensing, Real Estate, Black Lake Complex, P.O. Box 2445, Olympia, WA 98507, (360) 664-6524.

Name of Proponent: Department of Licensing, Real Estate Program, governmental.

Rule is not necessitated by federal law, federal or state court decision.

Explanation of Rule, its Purpose, and Anticipated Effects: The current rule does not allow for withdrawal of course approval based on the mistake or inadvertence of the director. Providers of courses have due process rights under WAC 308-124H-061 and 308-124H-062. NEW SECTION

WAC 415-108-425 How do I determine if I have choice rights or transfer rights to PERS Plan 3? (1) Definitions:

- (a) "Concurrently employed" means you are employed at the same time, in eligible positions, by a Phase 1 employer and by a Phase 2 employer.
- (b) "Exercising choice rights" means choosing Plan 2 or Plan 3 or defaulting into Plan 3.
- (c) "Phase 1 employer" means state agencies and institutes of higher education.
 - (d) "Phase 2 employer" means all other employers.
- (e) "Phase 1 transfer period" is the period from March 1, 2002, through and including August 31, 2002.
- (f) "Phase 2 transfer period" is the period from September 1, 2002, through and including May 31, 2003.
- (2) What determines if I have "choice rights" or "transfer rights"? Your current employment status and your employment history will be used to determine if you have choice rights or transfer rights. If your employment status changes, your rights must be reevaluated. A change in your employment status, such as separating from employment or becoming reemployed, may change your rights.
- (3) What are "choice rights" and how are they applied? "Choice rights" refers to your right, within a ninety-day period, to make an irrevocable choice to become a member of Plan 2 or Plan 3.
- (a) You will be reported in Plan 2 until you exercise choice rights.
- (b) You must make a choice within ninety days of your first day of employment in an eligible position.

[15] Proposed

- (c) You will be defaulted into Plan 3 if you continue employment past the ninety-day choice period without making a choice.
 - (d) You may exercise choice rights only once.
 - (4) Do I have "choice rights"?
- (a) You have choice rights if your initial PERS membership began on or after March 1, 2002, with a Phase 1 employer in an eligible position.
- (i) If you separate from employment and did not exercise your choice rights, you retain choice rights if you are reemployed in an eligible position with a Phase 1 employer.
- (ii) If you separate from employment and did not exercise your plan choice rights, and you are not employed by a Phase 2 employer during Phase 2, you retain choice rights if you begin another period of employment in an eligible position with a Phase 2 employer after May 31, 2003.
- (b) You have choice rights if your initial PERS membership began on or after September 1, 2002, with a Phase 2 employer in an eligible position. If you separate from employment and did not exercise your plan choice rights, you retain choice rights if you begin another period of employment in an eligible position with a Phase 1 or Phase 2 employer.
- (5) What are "transfer rights" and how are they applied? "Transfer rights" refers to your right as a Plan 2 member to transfer into Plan 3 during an applicable transfer period to your employment type.
- (a) You are not required to exercise transfer rights. If you have transfer rights, you will remain in Plan 2 unless you decide to transfer to Plan 3.
- (b) If you do not transfer to Plan 3 during the Phase 1 or the Phase 2 transfer periods, you will not qualify to receive the additional transfer payment under RCW 41.40.795 or retroactive gainsharing payment under RCW 41.31A.040.
 - (6) Do I have transfer rights?
 - (a) You have transfer rights if you:
 - (i) Are a Plan 2 member;
- (ii) Are employed in an eligible position by a Phase 1 employer during the Phase 1 transfer period; and
- (iii) Were not eligible for choice rights under subsection (4)(a) of this section.
 - (b) You have transfer rights if you:
 - (i) Are a Plan 2 member;
- (ii) Are employed in an eligible position by a Phase 2 employer during the Phase 2 transfer period; and
- (iii) Were not eligible for choice rights under subsection (4)(b) of this section.
- (7) What are "January transfer rights" and how are they applied? "January transfer rights" refers to a Plan 2 member's right to transfer to Plan 3 during any January after the close of a transfer period.
- (a) If you are employed by a Phase I employer, in an eligible position, the first January you can transfer is January 2003.
- (b) If you are employed by a Phase 2 employer, in an eligible position, the first January you can transfer is January 2004.
- (c) You must earn service credit in the January in which you transfer.
 - (8) Do I have January transfer rights?

- (a) You have January transfer rights if you were eligible for transfer rights and did not transfer to PERS Plan 3 during the transfer period that applied to you.
 - (b) You have January transfer rights if you:
- (i) Were employed in an eligible position with a Phase 1 employer before the Phase 1 transfer period, or were employed in an eligible position by a Phase 2 employer before the Phase 2 transfer period;
- (ii) Were not employed by a Phase 1 employer during the Phase 1 transfer period;
- (iii) Were not employed by a Phase 2 employer during the Phase 2 transfer period; and
- (iv) Are employed by a Phase 1 employer in an eligible position that you began after the Phase 1 transfer period ended, or are employed by a Phase 2 employer in an eligible position that you began after the Phase 2 transfer period ended.
- (9) What happens after I become a Plan 3 member? Once you choose Plan 3 or default to Plan 3 or transfer to Plan 3, you will remain a Plan 3 member. You will not have any additional transfer rights or choice rights to exercise.
- (10) What rules apply to me if I am concurrently employed? If you are, or become concurrently employed during the Phase 1 transfer period in an eligible position, you will have transfer rights but must wait until the Phase 2 transfer period to transfer. If you separate from one of the employers, your membership rights must be reevaluated.

Examples:

The examples are written, for the most part, for a Phase 1 employer. Use the Phase 2 transfer period (September 1, 2002, through and including May 31, 2003) to apply the rules to a Phase 2 employer.

Plan Choice Rights:

Example 1: Pat starts working for a state agency in an eligible position (Phase 1 employer) as of:

- A. April 1, 2002. Since Pat has not previously been a member of PERS, Pat has ninety days to make a plan choice for Plan 2 or Plan 3. See subsection (3)(b) of this section.
- B. After forty-five days, Pat leaves service without making a choice, and then returns in an eligible position one year later. Pat has a new ninety day period in which to make his plan choice. See subsection (4)(a)(i) of this section.
- C. Pat chooses Plan 3 within his ninety days. Pat is now a Plan 3 member regardless of future employment. See subsection (9) of this section.
- D. Instead of choosing Plan 3, Pat lets his ninety day plan choice period go by with out choosing Plan 2 or Plan 3. Pat is defaulted into Plan 3 and is now a Plan 3 member regardless of future employment. See subsections (3)(c) and (9) of this section.

Transfer Rights:

Example 2:

A. Chris has been a Plan 2 member since 1977. Chris is working at a state agency (Phase 1 employer) as of March 1, 2002. Since Chris was a member prior to the start of Plan 3, Chris has the right to transfer to Plan 3 in the transfer period (March 1, 2002, through August 31, 2002). See subsection (6)(a) of this section.

B. However, Chris did not make a decision to transfer prior to the close of the Phase 1 transfer period. If Chris remains employed for a Phase 1 employer, her right to transfer to Plan 3 is limited to January of each year. See subsection (8)(a) of this section.

C. In this variation, Chris was a Plan 2 member from March 1, 1987, through February 1, 2002. Chris returns on October 15, 2002, for a state agency (Phase 1 employer). Since Chris returned to service after the transfer period (March 1, 2002, through August 31, 2002), Chris only has the right to transfer to Plan 3 in January of each year. See subsection (8)(b) of this section.

Irrevocable Choice Rule:

Example 3: Mike starts working for a state agency (Phase I employer) as of April 1, 2002. Since Mike has not previously been a member of PERS, he has ninety days to make a plan choice for Plan 2 or Plan 3. Mike chooses Plan 3 within his ninety days. Mike is now a Plan 3 member regardless of future employment. See subsection (9) of this section.

Example 4: Pat starts working for a state agency (Phase 1 employer) as of April 1, 2002. Since Pat has not previously been a member of PERS, he has ninety days to make a plan choice for Plan 2 or Plan 3. Pat chooses Plan 2 within his ninety days. Pat is now a Plan 2 member who can no longer have a plan choice regardless of future employment. See subsection (3)(d) of this section.

Concurrent Employment in Phase 1 and 2:

Example 5: Using example 2A, Chris also accepts employment for a county (Phase 2 employer) on April 1, 2002, prior to transferring to Plan 3. Since Chris is concurrently employed at a Phase 1 and a Phase 2 employer, Chris must wait for the Phase 2 window before he can transfer to Plan 3. See subsection (10) of this section.

NEW SECTION

WAC 415-108-980 Will I receive a transfer payment when I transfer to Plan 3? (1) PERS Plan 3 will be implemented on March 1, 2002. If you transfer from PERS Plan 2 to PERS Plan 3 during your transfer period, and establish any service credit in February 2003, you will receive a transfer payment to be added to your member account on or after June 1, 2003, once the department receives the transfer information from your employer. The transfer period and payment amount you will receive is based upon your employer type and your account balance as of March 1, 2002.

- (a) You will receive a payment of one hundred and ten percent of your transfer basis if you are employed in an eligible position by a Phase 1 employer and you transfer to Plan 3 during the Phase 1 transfer period. State agencies and institutes of higher education are Phase 1 employers.
- (b) You will receive a payment of one hundred and eleven percent of your transfer basis if you are employed in an eligible position by a Phase 2 employer and you transfer to Plan 3 during the Phase 2 transfer period. All other employers are Phase 2 employers.

- (2) Your transfer basis is your total accumulated contributions (and interest) on March 1, 2002, less fifty percent of any contributions you made under RCW 41.50.165(2).
- (3) If you request to transfer but die before payment is made, the transfer payment will be paid immediately to your defined contribution account. These moneys will be distributed when payment is made from your account to your estate, or the person or persons, trust or organization you nominated by the most recent written beneficiary designation filed with the department.

Examples: If your account balance as of March 1, 2002, was $10,000, and you work for a Phase 1 employer, your transfer payment would be 110 percent of your account balance, or $11,000. When you transfer to Plan 3, your original $10,000 will be deposited in your Plan 3 account. Your account balance after the transfer would be $21,000 plus the additional contributions and earnings that have accumulated since March 2002, adjusted by any earnings or losses. If your account balance as of March 1, 2002, was $10,000, and you work for a Phase 2 employer, your transfer payment would be 111 percent of your account balance, or $11,100. When you transfer to Plan 3, your original $10,000 will be deposited in your Plan 3 account. Your account balance after the transfer would be $21,100 plus the additional contributions and earnings that have accumulated since March 2002, adjusted by any earnings or losses.

(4) Terms defined:

Phase I transfer period: WAC 415-108-420. Phase 2 transfer period: WAC 415-108-420.

Service: RCW 41.40.010 (9)(b). Transfer basis: RCW 41.40.795 (1)(b). Transfer period: RCW 41.40.795 (1)(a).

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-01-059, filed 12/12/00, effective 1/12/01)

WAC 415-111-310 Defined contribution ((withdrawal)) account distribution. (1) How do I ((withdraw)) receive a distribution of funds from my defined contribution account? Except as otherwise allowed by RCW 41.34.070, ((you must meet the following criteria to withdraw)) before you can receive a distribution of funds from your defined contribution account:

- (a) You must separate from all eligible employment;
- (b) The department must receive the notice of separation ((must-be received by the department)) from your employer(s) through the retirement transmittal system; and
- (c) You must submit the appropriate, completed form ((for)) requesting a defined contribution ((withdrawal. -Pursuant to WAC 415-111-110, you bear the responsibility for completing and submitting the form)) distribution to the department's designated recordkeeper as directed on the form. See WAC 415-111-110.

[17] Proposed

- (2) Can I still receive my defined contribution ((withdrawal)) distribution if I ((return)) have returned to work before receiving my ((withdrawal)) funds? If you have ((made a request for payment and meet all of the)) requested a distribution of funds and all criteria in subsection (1) of this section are met, you may return to work in an eligible position and still ((take)) receive payment of the requested defined contribution ((withdrawal)) distribution.
- (3) What are my options for distributing my defined contribution funds? You have the following options for distributions from your Plan 3 defined contribution account. Options for both the WSIB and the SELF-directed investment programs are combined where applicable.
- (a) Lump sum cash distribution. In either program, you may request the entire amount of your funds in a single lump-sum payment.
- (b) Direct rollover. In either program, you may have some or all of your funds rolled over to an eligible retirement plan or individual retirement account (IRA). If you choose a partial rollover, the remaining funds that were not rolled over will be distributed to you as a lump sum, unless you create a personal payment schedule under (d) of this subsection.
- (c) Scheduled payments. In either program, subject to the distribution requirements of IRC section 401 (a)(9), you may request that your funds be distributed in equal payments over a specified period of time, or that a specific dollar amount be paid on a monthly basis until the account is exhausted. You may also request equal payments over your lifetime or the lifetimes of you and your beneficiary. Scheduled payments for the WSIB program are made monthly only. Scheduled payments for the SELF-directed program are made monthly, quarterly, semi-annually and annually. Both programs have a minimum payment requirement of one hundred dollars per month.
- (d) Personalized payment schedule. In either program, you may create a personalized payment plan using any part of one or more of the distribution options provided in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection (see examples below).
- (e) Annuity purchase. For the SELF-directed program only, you may request to have your funds used to purchase an annuity from an insurance company which pays a benefit for your lifetime or the lifetimes of you and your beneficiary.
- (4) Market fluctuations. Your defined contribution account is subject to actual investment earnings (both gains and losses). These gains or losses will be used to adjust the value of your account. The defined contribution payment plans are subject to the same market fluctuations. As a result, the funding of your selected payment plan may last longer than anticipated due to market gains, or end earlier than anticipated due to market losses.

EXAMPLE (WSIB - Partial rollover with payments until account exhausted):

Pat has $10,000 in the WSIB investment program. Pat wants to rollover $2,000 of the total to an IRA, but does not want to receive the remainder of the account in a lump sum payment as provided by the partial direct rollover option. Pat selects the personalized payment schedule option and requests to do a partial rollover of $2,000 and receive the remaining $8,000 in equal monthly payments until the account is exhausted.

EXAMPLE (Self - Partial rollover with payments for fixed period):

Chris has $10,000 in the self-directed investment program. Chris wants to rollover $3,000 of the total to an IRA, but does not want to receive the remainder of the account in a lump sum payment as provided by the partial direct rollover option. Chris selects the personalized payment schedule option and requests to do a partial rollover of $3,000 and receive the remaining $7,000 in quarterly payments of $250 over the next 7 years (28 quarters).

If you do not have a surviving spouse or minor child or children, your account will no longer receive gainsharing payments.
- (b) If you die as the beneficiary receiving a survivorship benefit from a death-in-service member with gainsharing payments, your gainsharing payments will continue to your minor child or children until they reach the age of majority or die. If you do not have any minor children, your account will no longer receive gainsharing payments.
- (c) If you die after retirement and you chose a survivorship benefit, the gainsharing payment will continue to your survivor. If you did not choose a survivorship benefit, your account will no longer receive gainsharing payments.
- (3) What happens if I die before the first payment is made? If you have qualified for a gainsharing payment, but die prior to the payment being made, the payment will be paid to your estate, or the person or persons, trust, or organization you nominated by the most recent written designation filed with the department.

NEW SECTION

WAC 415-111-450 How does a court-ordered division of property affect my Plan 3 account? (1) The department will honor orders that provide for a property division of your retirement benefit only if the order:

- (a) Is entered by a court of competent jurisdiction;

ments. If (the obligor) requests or has requested a withdrawal of accumulated contributions as defined in RCW 41.50.500, or becomes eligible for a lump sum death benefit, the department of retirement systems shall pay to (the obligee) dollars plus interest at the rate paid by the department of retirement systems on member contributions. Small Business Economic Impact Statement

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RULES: The Department of Social and Health Services' Aging and Adult Services Administration (AASA) is proposing to amend chapter 388-71 WAC, Social services for adults. The amendments to chapter 388-71 WAC contain the training rules for home care provided through the Medicaid personal care, COPES, or chore programs by individual providers or home care agency providers. These include new rules implementing changes in chapter 74.39A RCW, Long-term care services option—Expansion.

The purpose of this chapter is to:

- Define minimum training requirements;
- Define the types of training;
- Clarify instructor requirements; and
- Establish department procedures for approval of instructors.

The statutory authority for this chapter is RCW 74.39A.050 Long-term care services options—Expansion.

The major proposed changes are:

- Incorporating a new requirement for orientation training for new staff, as required in chapter 74.39A RCW; and
- Creating an approval system for trainers as required by the RCW.

Background of the proposed rule:

In 1995, as part of long-term care reform, the legislature allocated funds for training during the following year. Providers and caregivers who were trained included:

- Caregivers in boarding homes that contract with DSHS;
- All licensed adult family home providers and caregivers; and
- Home care agency providers and individual providers serving clients through the Medicaid personal care, COPES, and chore programs.

In 1997, two task forces were created under the auspices of the legislature to review caregiver training:

The Joint Executive-Legislative Long Term Care Task Force's subcommittee on training. This task force reported to the legislature in December 1998 and January 2000.

The training task force, which was the responsibility of DSHS, the Department of Health, and the Nursing Care Quality Assurance Commission, was directed to review caregiver training. This task force reported to the legislature in December 1998.

The new training requirements created by legislation in the 2000 session were based largely on the recommendations from the two task forces. This same legislation created the Community Long Term Care Education and Training Steering Committee to advise the department on the development of rules to implement the new law (see RCW 74.39A.190.)

Goal for the proposed rules: The goal for this chapter is to ensure that all caregivers have an orientation when they begin to work with clients or residents.

Training improves caregiving skills and the quality of care delivered to more than 20,000 adults receiving care through these programs.

SMALL BUSINESS ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT: Chapter 19.85 RCW, the Regulatory Fairness Act, requires that the economic impact of proposed regulations be analyzed in relation to small businesses. This statute outlines information that must be included in a small business economic impact statement (SBEIS). Preparation of an SBEIS is required when a proposed rule has the potential of placing a disproportionate economic impact on small businesses.

Aging and Adult Services Administration has analyzed the proposed amendments to their rules and has determined that small businesses will be impacted by these changes, with some costs considered "more than minor."

INDUSTRY ANALYSIS: The Department of Health is responsible for home care agency licensing. As part of licensing, this state agency keeps current internal databases that identify all licensed agencies. Since internal industry information can be obtained at a more accurate level than is required by chapter 19.85 RCW, it is unnecessary to conduct an industry analysis using the four-digit standard industrial classification (SIC) codes.

INVOLVEMENT OF SMALL BUSINESSES: The data used in this analysis was gathered from several sources:

- The statewide organizations that represent the fiftyeight home care agencies affected, and
- The Department of Health licensing information for home care agencies.

The organizations that contributed current data on wages, benefits, and cost estimates for the businesses they represent, most of which are small businesses, include: The Home Care Association of Washington and the Washington State Association of Home Care Services.

The rule has been developed with the advice of the training steering committee, which has been meeting monthly for fifteen months to consider and recommend the rules to implement these laws. The small businesses affected are represented on the committee by the statewide provider organizations listed above.

In addition, four public forums were held during the summer (in Bellevue, Lacey, Spokane, and Yakima) to discuss the rule development and take public comment on the proposed rules as recommended by the steering committee. Approximately 2000 interested parties were invited; seventy-seven people attended and commented.

Proposed [26]

AASA staff also have regularly attended meetings with home care providers for the past year to update them on the rule development and take their comments and suggestions. To reach those who could not attend meetings, the proposed rules as recommended by the steering committee have been posted on the AASA Internet web site, with contact person information for anyone wishing to comment or make suggestions on the rule. All the input from these various groups and meetings has helped shape the development of this rule.

cost of compliance: Costs related to record keeping: Each business must keep on file copies of certificates showing successful completion of required trainings for each of their employees. The only new record-keeping requirement for home care agencies is orientation. Keeping orientation certificates on file will result in a minor cost to the business.

Estimated training costs: Expected costs include:

■ The trainer's wages and benefits (on-staff trainers are used for orientation);

- The trainee's wages and benefits; and
- Costs for training materials.

See Table 1, below, for estimated costs.

To fairly consider costs of compliance, AASA has elected to look at costs per trainee. This is because there is no reliable data on the number of employees that will be required to have this training, or the rate of turnover, both of which affect total training costs.

The most costly wage scenarios were used for cost estimates. These include using a registered nurse who is on staff as the orientation trainer, and assuming a one-on-one training, rather than group training. Circumstances that may be used to mitigate these costs are noted in the section on mitigating expenses.

Table 1: Costs of Compliance for Home Care Agencies

Orientation is a new requirement for all home care agencies. It is always provided at the agency, by agency staff, requiring no travel or consultant costs.

Orientation	Personnel, other costs	Wages	Benefits & Taxes	Total per hour	Hours	Total Cost
	Trainer (RN)	$24.24	$6.14	$30.38	2	$60.76
	Trainee	$7.68	$2.19	$9.87	2	$19.74
	Materials					$10.00
	Total per trainee					$90.50

Disproportionate Economic Impact Analysis: When there are more than minor costs to small businesses as a result of proposed rule changes, the Regulatory Fairness Act requires an analysis to be done, comparing these costs between small businesses and ten percent of the largest businesses.

About 17% of home care agencies have more than fifty employees (Department of Health licensing data, 2001), but some are nonprofits. While the per-trainee costs do not differ between small and large businesses, the costs may be a higher proportion of overall costs for a small business. AASA elected to focus on mitigating expenses for small businesses regardless of actual figures resulting from an analysis comparing large and small businesses. AASA proposes several measures that will mitigate the cost impact for small businesses, thus helping them more easily comply with additional training requirements.

Mitigating Expenses: Aging and Adult Services Administration has included the following to help mitigate training costs for small businesses:

- Orientation of home care agency staff is already required under home care licensing, chapter 246-336 WAC. Many of the specific topics required in chapter 388-71 WAC may already be included in the orientation that agencies currently provide their staff.
- Orientation training costs can be significantly reduced if the person doing the orientation is not an RN (high wage rate). For instance, an RN's median hourly wage is estimated to be $24.24. If an LPN does the orientation, the hourly wage drops to $15.72; if a social worker does the orientation, the hourly wage is $18.74. Both LPNs and social workers are qualified to do this - training. The agency has a choice of which staff to use for conducting the orientation training, and may save money with these other choices.

- Orientation training costs are further reduced if the agency orients more than one person at a time. This can be done any time the agency hires several new caregivers and has them start working at the same time. By doing this, the cost for the trainer's time is spread across several trainees, reducing the per trainee cost.
- Individuals who have already been oriented at another agency can have a much briefer orientation at a new agency, which is a saving for the second business. The orientation can be shorter because basic information on the required topics will be consistent across agencies. The agency will be able to spend less time on basic information, and focus primarily on information specific to the agency.

Additional cost savings: There are additional, overall cost savings for small businesses with the new training requirements, which are important to mention.

- The orientation reduces the time it takes new employees to begin to provide quality care to clients, translating into better care and higher satisfaction for the clients, and improved word-of-mouth publicity for the agency, which may increase income for the agency.
- Well-trained employees generally have higher job satisfaction and this leads to a lower turnover rate, significantly reducing overall costs. Turnover rates have been estimated as 50% or higher per year, for caregivers. Village Green, a Washington state boarding home, determined that monthly turnover for caregivers dropped from 21% to under 5% after implementing a thorough orientation program.

CONCLUSION: Aging and Adult Services Administration has given careful consideration to the impact of proposed amendments to chapter 388-71 WAC, Social services for adults, on small businesses. In accordance with the Regulatory Fairness Act, chapter 19.85 RCW, Aging and Adult Services Administration has analyzed impacts on small businesses and proposed ways to mitigate those costs associated with implementing the training requirements in these rules. The new requirements being implemented in these rules are contained in chapter 74.39A RCW. The proposed WAC amendments expand on the information in the RCW to assist providers in successfully meeting the new requirements. Training staff adequately to care for adult clients is a benefit to both the client and the provider.

Statute Being Implemented: Chapter 121, Laws of 2000. Summary: Implements requirements for staff orientation in adult family homes and boarding homes; implements requirements for licensed boarding home administrators and caregivers to have basic training and specialty training; moves all training requirements for these two settings into one training WAC.

Name of Proponent: Department of Social and Health Services, governmental.

Rule is not necessitated by federal law, federal or state court decision.

Explanation of Rule, its Purpose, and Anticipated Effects: This rule implements RCWs on training for adult family homes and boarding homes, and consolidates the current training rules for those settings into one place. New requirements in the RCW include an orientation for all staff with significant interaction with residents in adult family homes and boarding homes; requirements for licensed boarding homes for administrators or their designees, and caregivers to have basic training and specialty training.

Proposal Changes the Following Existing Rules: This proposal moves existing rules into one new rule.

A small business economic impact statement has been prepared under chapter 19.85 RCW.

Small Business Economic Impact Statement

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RULES: The Department of Social and Health Services' Aging and Adult Services Administration (AASA) is proposing to create a new chapter, chapter 388-112 WAC, Home and community long-term care services—Training. The new chapter contains the training rules for:

- Adult family homes, and
- Boarding homes.

The new chapter 388-112 WAC consolidates training rules by including rules moved from:

- Chapter 388-76 WAC, Adult family homes;
- Chapter 388-78A WAC, Boarding homes; and
- Chapter 388-110 WAC, Contracted residential services.

The chapter also contains new rules implementing changes mandated by the following RCWs:

- Chapter 18.20 RCW, Boarding homes, and
- Chapter 70.128 RCW, Adult family homes.

The purpose of this chapter is to:

- Define minimum training requirements;
- Define the types of training;
- Clarify curriculum requirements and instructor requirements; and
- Establish department procedures for approval of curricula and instructors.

The statutory authority for these chapters includes RCW 18.20.270 Boarding homes and 70.128.230 Adult family homes.

The major proposed changes are:

- Incorporating a new requirement for orientation training for new staff in both settings, as required in chapters 18.20 and 70.128 RCW.
- Incorporating new training requirements for licensed boarding homes that do not contract with DSHS, including orientation, basic training, special needs (specialty) training, and continuing education, as required in RCW 18.20.270.
- Creating an approval system for alternative curricula for basic and specialty training, as required by RCW 18.20.270 Boarding homes and 70.128.230 Adult family homes.
- Creating an approval system for trainers as required by the RCWs.

Background of the proposed rule: In 1995, as part of long-term care reform, the legislature allocated funds for training during the following year. Providers and caregivers who were trained included:

- Caregivers in boarding homes that contract with DSHS: and
- All licensed adult family home providers and caregivers

In 1997, two task forces were created under the auspices of the legislature, to review caregiver training:

- The Joint Executive-Legislative Long Term Care Task Force's subcommittee on training. This task force reported to the legislature in December 1998 and January 2000.
- The training task force, which DSHS, the Department of Health, and the Nursing Care Quality Assurance Commission created, under legislative directives, to review caregiver training. This task force reported to the legislature in December 1998.

Recommendations from both task forces were key in establishing new training requirements created by legislation in the 2000 session. This same legislation created the Community Long Term Care Education and Training Steering Committee to advise the department on the development of rules to implement the new law. (See RCW 74.39A.190.)

Goals for the proposed rules:

- Increase the number of caregivers who will be trained;
- Ensure that all caregivers have an orientation when they begin to work with residents; and
- Allow more boarding homes and adult family homes to teach their own staff and use their own curricula.

Training improves caregiving skills and the quality of care delivered to more than 7,000 adults receiving care through these programs.

SMALL BUSINESS ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT: Chapter 19.85 RCW, the Regulatory Fairness Act, requires that the economic impact of proposed regulations be analyzed in relation to small businesses. This statute outlines information that must be included in a small business economic impact statement (SBEIS). Preparation of an SBEIS is required when a proposed rule has the potential of placing a disproportionate economic impact on small businesses.

Aging and Adult Services Administration has analyzed the proposed amendments to their rules and has determined that small businesses will be impacted by these changes, with some costs considered "more than minor."

INDUSTRY ANALYSIS: Aging and Adult Services Administration is responsible for boarding home and adult family home licensing. As part of licensing, this state agency keeps current internal databases that identify all licensed facilities and agencies. Since internal industry information can be obtained at a more accurate level than is required by chapter 19.85 RCW, it is unnecessary to conduct an industry analysis using the four-digit standard industrial classification (SIC) codes.

INVOLVEMENT OF SMALL BUSINESSES: The data used in this analysis was gathered from several sources:

- The statewide organizations that represent the 2084 adult family homes, and 513 boarding homes affected by these proposed rules.
- The residential care services and management services divisions of the Aging and Adult Services Administration

The organizations that contributed current data on wages, benefits, and cost estimates for the businesses they represent, most of which are small businesses, include: Washington State Residential Care Council (AFH), the Adult Family Home Association (AFH), Washington Health Care Association (BH), Washington Association of Housing and Services for the Aging (BH), and Northwest Assisted Living Facilities Association (BH).

This proposed chapter has been developed with the advice of the training steering committee, which has been meeting monthly for fifteen months to consider and recommend the rules to implement these laws. Represented in this committee are small business members from the statewide provider organizations mentioned above.

In addition, four public forums were held during the summer in (Bellevue, Lacey, Spokane, and Yakima) to discuss the rule development and take public comment on the proposed rules as recommended by the steering committee. Approximately 2,000 interested parties were invited; seventy-seven people attended and commented. Small businesses were represented at these forums, as well.

AASA staff have also regularly attended meetings with adult family home and boarding home providers for the past year to update them on the rule development and take their comments and suggestions. To reach those who could not attend meetings, the proposed rules as recommended by the steering committee have been posted on the AASA Internet web site, with contact person information for anyone wishing to comment or make suggestions on the rule. All the input from these various groups and meetings has helped shape the development of this rule.

cost of compliance: Costs related to record keeping: Each business must keep on file copies of certificates showing successful completion of required trainings for each of their employees. The only new record-keeping requirement for boarding homes that contract with DSHS and adult family homes is orientation. The new requirements for boarding homes that do not contract with DSHS include orientation, basic training, and continuing education. Boarding homes that contract with DSHS already meet these requirements under contracting rules, so they will incur no additional costs. Training costs are included in the DSHS rates paid to both boarding homes and adult family homes. Keeping these certificates on file will result in a minor cost to the business.

Costs related to professional services: In estimating costs, AASA has chosen to assume that staff are trained onsite for orientation, and sent off-site for other trainings, with the intent that these are probably the highest cost scenarios. However, if a boarding home or adult family home chooses to contract with a trainer to come in and provide training in their own facility, this will result in costs for the professional services of a trainer. This training strategy, however, eliminates the costs of paying tuition and paying for travel time to and from training, for each trainee.

Estimated training costs: Expected costs include:

- The trainer's wages and benefits (if an on-staff trainer is used, as for orientation);
- The trainee's wages and benefits; and
- Costs for training materials (if training is on site) or for tuition, if off-site.

See Tables 1 and 2 below for estimated costs for each type of provider.

To fairly consider costs of compliance, AASA has elected to look at costs per trainee. This is because there is no reliable data on the number of employees that will be required to have this training, or the rate of turnover, both of which affect total training costs.

In each setting, the most costly wage scenarios were used for cost estimates. These include:

- For orientation, using a registered nurse as the orientation trainer, and assuming a one-on-one training, rather than in a group;
- For basic training, assuming the facility will pay tuition rather than providing training at the facility.
- For continuing education, assuming the facility will pay tuition rather than providing training at the facility.

Circumstances that may be used to mitigate these costs are noted in the section on mitigating expenses, which follows the cost estimates.

Specialty training has not been included in this analysis, because the boarding home rules specifying who has to take this training are not yet developed. The Residential Care Services Division of AASA is in the process of developing these rules with the input of stakeholder workgroups.

Costs of Compliance for Boarding Homes:

- Orientation is a new requirement for all boarding homes. It is always provided at the facility, by facility staff.
- Basic training is a new requirement for boarding homes that do not contract with DSHS. It may be provided by the facility or staff may be sent to another educator for training.
- Continuing education is a new requirement for boarding homes that do not contract with DSHS. It includes ten hours of training on caregiving issues, per calendar year. The requirement begins the second year after the basic training is completed. It may be provided by the facility, or staff may be sent to another educator for training.

Table 2 Adult Family Homes

Disproportionate Economic Impact Analysis: When there are more than minor costs to small businesses as a result of proposed rule changes, the Regulatory Fairness Act requires an analysis to be done, comparing these costs between small businesses and 10% of the largest businesses.

All for-profit adult family homes are by nature small businesses; an adult family home can serve a maximum of six residents at a time, and so has a small number of employees. No data is available on the actual numbers of employees in boarding homes, but many or most boarding homes are small businesses with fewer than fifty employees. While the pertrainee costs do not differ between small and large businesses, the costs may be a higher proportion of overall costs for a small business. AASA elected to focus on mitigating expenses regardless of results of comparing large and small businesses; therefore AASA considered this type of comparative analysis unnecessary. Therefore, AASA proposes several measures that will mitigate the impact of costs for small businesses.

Mitigating Expenses: Aging and Adult Services Administration has included the following to help mitigate training costs for small businesses:

- Orientation training costs can be significantly reduced if the person doing the orientation is not an RN (high wage rate), for instance, if an LPN does the orientation, the median hourly wage is estimated to be $15.72, and a social worker's median hourly wage is $18.74 (compared to an RN at $24.24). for instance, an RN's median hourly wage is estimated to be $24.24. If an LPN does the orientation, the hourly wage drops to $15.72; if a social worker does the orientation, the hourly wage is $18.74. Both are qualified to do this training. The organization has a choice of who to use in conducting the orientation training.
- Orientation training costs are further reduced if the facility orients more than one person at a time. This can be done any time the facility hires several new caregivers and has them start working at the same time.
- Individuals who have already been oriented at another facility can have a much briefer orientation at a new facility, which is a savings for the second business. The orientation can be shorter because basic information on the required topics will be consistent across facilities. The facility will be able to spend less time on basic information, and focus primarily on information specific to the facility.
- Basic training costs may be mitigated if the training is done on-site. The rules allow for facilities to train their - own staff if the instructor(s) meet minimum qualifications. This means the facility does not have to pay tuition for each student, nor pay for travel time and expenses to the training.

- Individuals who take basic, specialty training, or continuing education will not be required to take it again if hired at another business where training is required, which is a savings for the second business.
- Boarding homes with a new requirement for basic training for caregivers will have up to one hundred twenty days following the effective date of the rule to meet the requirement.
- The continuing education requirement does not start until January of the second year after an employee takes the basic training.
- Continuing education costs may be mitigated by holding this training at the facility rather than sending staff to an educator, paying for each student's tuition and travel. No pre-approval of trainer or instructor is required.

Additional cost savings:

- The orientation reduces the time it takes new employees to begin to provide quality care to residents, which translates into higher satisfaction for the clients, and better word-of-mouth publicity for the agency, which may increase income.
- Well-trained employees generally have higher job satisfaction and this leads to a lower turnover rate, significantly reducing overall costs. Turnover rates have been estimated as 50% or higher per year, for caregivers. Village Green, a Washington state boarding home, determined that monthly turnover for caregivers dropped from 21% to under 5% after implementing a thorough orientation program.

CONCLUSION: Aging and Adult Services Administration has given careful consideration to the impact of proposed rules in chapter 388-112 WAC, Home and community long-term care services—Training, on small businesses. In accordance with the Regulatory Fairness Act, chapter 19.85 RCW, Aging and Adult Services Administration has analyzed impacts on small businesses and proposed ways to mitigate those costs associated with implementing the training requirements in these rules. Training staff adequately to care for adult residents is a benefit to both the resident and the provider.

Explanation of Rule, its Purpose, and Anticipated Effects: This rule implements RCWs on training for adult family homes and boarding homes, and consolidates the current training rules for those settings into one place. The rules also set the processes for approval of instructors and alternative curricula for certain trainings. New requirements in the RCW include requirements for licensed boarding homes for administrators, or their designees, and caregivers to have continuing education.

Proposal Changes the Following Existing Rules: This proposal moves existing rules into one new rule.

A small business economic impact statement has been prepared under chapter 19.85 RCW.

Small Business Economic Impact Statement

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RULES: The Department of Social and Health Services' Aging and Adult Services Administration (AASA) is proposing to create a new chapter, chapter 388-112 WAC, Home and community long-term care services—Training. The new chapter contains the training rules for:

- Adult family homes, and
- Boarding homes.

The new chapter 388-112 WAC consolidates training rules by including rules moved from:

- Chapter 388-76 WAC, Adult family homes;
- Chapter 388-78A WAC, Boarding homes; and
- Chapter 388-110 WAC, Contracted residential services.

The chapter also contains new rules implementing changes mandated by the following RCWs:

- Chapter 18.20 RCW, Boarding homes, and
- Chapter 70.128 RCW, Adult family homes.

The purpose of this chapter is to:

- Define minimum training requirements;
- Define the types of training;
- Clarify curriculum requirements and instructor requirements; and
- Establish department procedures for approval of curricula and instructors.

The statutory authority for these chapters includes RCW 18.20.270 Boarding homes and 70.128.230 Adult family homes.

The major proposed changes are:

- Incorporating a new requirement for orientation training for new staff in both settings, as required in chapters 18.20 and 70.128 RCW.
- Incorporating new training requirements for licensed boarding homes that do not contract with DSHS, including orientation, basic training, special needs (specialty) training, and continuing education, as required in RCW 18.20.270.

- Creating an approval system for alternative curricula for basic and specialty training, as required by RCW 18.20.270 Boarding homes and 70.128.230 Adult family homes.
- Creating an approval system for trainers as required by the RCWs.

Background of the proposed rule: In 1995, as part of long-term care reform, the legislature allocated funds for training during the following year. Providers and caregivers who were trained included:

- Caregivers in boarding homes that contract with DSHS; and
- All licensed adult family home providers and caregivers.

In 1997, two task forces were created under the auspices of the legislature, to review caregiver training:

- The Joint Executive-Legislative Long Term Care Task Force's subcommittee on training. This task force reported to the legislature in December 1998 and January 2000.
- The training task force, which DSHS, the Department of Health, and the Nursing Care Quality Assurance Commission created, under legislative directives, to review caregiver training. This task force reported to the legislature in December 1998.

Recommendations from both task forces were key in establishing new training requirements created by legislation in the 2000 session. This same legislation created the Community Long Term Care Education and Training Steering Committee to advise the department on the development of rules to implement the new law. (See RCW 74.39A.190.)

Goals for the proposed rules:

- Increase the number of caregivers who will be trained;
- Ensure that all caregivers have an orientation when they begin to work with residents; and
- Allow more boarding homes and adult family homes to teach their own staff and use their own curricula.

Training improves caregiving skills and the quality of care delivered to more than 7,000 adults receiving care through these programs.

SMALL BUSINESS ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT: Chapter 19.85 RCW, the Regulatory Fairness Act, requires that the economic impact of proposed regulations be analyzed in relation to small businesses. This statute outlines information that must be included in a small business economic impact statement (SBEIS). Preparation of an SBEIS is required when a proposed rule has the potential of placing a disproportionate economic impact on small businesses.

Aging and Adult Services Administration has analyzed the proposed amendments to their rules and has determined that small businesses will be impacted by these changes, with some costs considered "more than minor."

INDUSTRY ANALYSIS: Aging and Adult Services Administration is responsible for boarding home and adult family home licensing. As part of licensing, this state agency keeps current internal databases that identify all licensed facilities and agencies. Since internal industry information can be obtained at a more accurate level than is required by chapter 19.85 RCW, it is unnecessary to conduct an industry analysis using the four-digit standard industrial classification (SIC) codes.

INVOLVEMENT OF SMALL BUSINESSES: The data used in this analysis was gathered from several sources:

- The statewide organizations that represent the 2084 adult family homes, and 513 boarding homes affected by these proposed rules.
- The residential care services and management services divisions of the Aging and Adult Services Administration.

The organizations that contributed current data on wages, benefits, and cost estimates for the businesses they represent, most of which are small businesses, include: Washington State Residential Care Council (AFH), the Adult Family Home Association (AFH), Washington Health Care Association (BH), Washington Association of Housing and Services for the Aging (BH), and Northwest Assisted Living Facilities Association (BH).

This proposed chapter has been developed with the advice of the training steering committee, which has been meeting monthly for fifteen months to consider and recommend the rules to implement these laws. Represented in this committee are small business members from the statewide provider organizations mentioned above.

In addition, four public forums were held during the summer in (Bellevue, Lacey, Spokane, and Yakima) to discuss the rule development and take public comment on the proposed rules as recommended by the steering committee. Approximately 2,000 interested parties were invited; seventy-seven people attended and commented. Small businesses were represented at these forums, as well.

AASA staff have also regularly attended meetings with adult family home and boarding home providers for the past year to update them on the rule development and take their comments and suggestions. To reach those who could not attend meetings, the proposed rules as recommended by the steering committee have been posted on the AASA Internet web site, with contact person information for anyone wishing to comment or make suggestions on the rule. All the input from these various groups and meetings has helped shape the development of this rule.

COST OF COMPLIANCE: Costs related to record keeping: Each business must keep on file copies of certificates showing successful completion of required trainings for each of their employees. The only new record-keeping requirement for boarding homes that contract with DSHS and adult family homes is orientation. The new requirements for boarding homes that do not contract with DSHS include orientation, basic training, and continuing education. Boarding homes that contract with DSHS already meet these requirements under contracting rules, so they will incur no additional costs. Training costs are included in the DSHS rates paid to both boarding homes and adult family homes. Keeping these certificates on file will result in a minor cost to the business.

Costs related to professional services: In estimating costs, AASA has chosen to assume that staff are trained onsite for orientation, and sent off-site for other trainings, with the intent that these are probably the highest cost scenarios. However, if a boarding home or adult family home chooses to contract with a trainer to come in and provide training in their own facility, this will result in costs for the professional services of a trainer. This training strategy, however, eliminates the costs of paying tuition and paying for travel time to and from training, for each trainee.

Estimated training costs: Expected costs include:

- The trainer's wages and benefits (if an on-staff trainer is used, as for orientation);
- The trainee's wages and benefits; and
- Costs for training materials (if training is on site) or for tuition, if off-site.

See Tables 1 and 2 below for estimated costs for each type of provider.

To fairly consider costs of compliance, AASA has elected to look at costs per trainee. This is because there is no reliable data on the number of employees that will be required to have this training, or the rate of turnover, both of which affect total training costs.

In each setting, the most costly wage scenarios were used for cost estimates. These include:

- For orientation, using a registered nurse as the orientation trainer, and assuming a one-on-one training, rather than in a group;
- For basic training, assuming the facility will pay tuition rather than providing training at the facility.

For continuing education, assuming the facility will pay tuition rather than providing training at the facility.

Circumstances that may be used to mitigate these costs are noted in the section on mitigating expenses, which follows the cost estimates.

Specialty training has not been included in this analysis, because the boarding home rules specifying who has to take this training are not yet developed. The Residential Care Services Division of AASA is in the process of developing these rules with the input of stakeholder workgroups.

Costs of Compliance for Boarding Homes:

- Orientation is a new requirement for all boarding homes. It is always provided at the facility, by facility staff.
- Basic training is a new requirement for boarding homes that do not contract with DSHS. It may be provided by the facility or staff may be sent to another educator for training.
- Continuing education is a new requirement for boarding homes that do not contract with DSHS. It includes ten hours of training on caregiving issues, per calendar year. The requirement begins the second year after the basic training is completed. It may be provided by the facility, or staff may be sent to another educator for training.

Proposed [34]

Disproportionate Economic Impact Analysis: When there are more than minor costs to small businesses as a result of proposed rule changes, the Regulatory Fairness Act requires an analysis to be done, comparing these costs between small businesses and 10% of the largest businesses.

All for-profit adult family homes are by nature small businesses; an adult family home can serve a maximum of six residents at a time, and so has a small number of employees. No data is available on the actual numbers of employees in boarding homes, but many or most boarding homes are small businesses with fewer than fifty employees. While the pertrainee costs do not differ between small and large businesses, the costs may be a higher proportion of overall costs for a small business. AASA elected to focus on mitigating expenses regardless of results of comparing large and small businesses; therefore AASA considered this type of comparative analysis unnecessary. Therefore, AASA proposes several measures that will mitigate the impact of costs for small businesses.

Mitigating Expenses: Aging and Adult Services Administration has included the following to help mitigate training costs for small businesses:

- Orientation training costs can be significantly reduced if the person doing the orientation is not an RN (high wage rate), for instance, if an LPN does the orientation, the median hourly wage is estimated to be $15.72, and a social worker's median hourly wage is $18.74 (compared to an RN at $24.24). for instance, an RN's median hourly wage is estimated to be $24.24. If an LPN does the orientation, the hourly wage drops to $15.72; if a social worker does the orientation, the hourly wage is $18.74. Both are qualified to do this training. The organization has a choice of who to use in conducting the orientation training.
- Orientation training costs are further reduced if the facility orients more than one person at a time. This can be done any time the facility hires several new caregivers and has them start working at the same time.
- Individuals who have already been oriented at another facility can have a much briefer orientation at a new facility, which is a savings for the second business. The orientation can be shorter because basic information on the required topics will be consistent across facilities. The facility will be able to spend less time on basic information, and focus primarily on information specific to the facility.
- Basic training costs may be mitigated if the training is done on-site. The rules allow for facilities to train their own staff if the instructor(s) meet minimum qualifications. This means the facility does not have to pay tuition for each student, nor pay for travel time and expenses to the training.
- Individuals who take basic, specialty training, or continuing education will not be required to take it again if hired at another business where training is required, which is a savings for the second business.
- Boarding homes with a new requirement for basic training for caregivers will have up to one hundred twenty days following the effective date of the rule to meet the requirement.

- The continuing education requirement does not start until January of the second year after an employee takes the basic training.
- Continuing education costs may be mitigated by holding this training at the facility rather than sending staff to an educator, paying for each student's tuition and travel. No pre-approval of trainer or instructor is required.

Additional cost savings:

- The orientation reduces the time it takes new employees to begin to provide quality care to residents, which translates into higher satisfaction for the clients, and better word-of-mouth publicity for the agency, which may increase income.
- Well-trained employees generally have higher job satisfaction and this leads to a lower turnover rate, significantly reducing overall costs. Turnover rates have been estimated as 50% or higher per year, for caregivers. Village Green, a Washington state boarding home, determined that monthly turnover for caregivers dropped from 21% to under 5% after implementing a thorough orientation program.

CONCLUSION: Aging and Adult Services Administration has given careful consideration to the impact of proposed rules in chapter 388-112 WAC, Home and community long-term care services—Training, on small businesses. In accordance with the Regulatory Fairness Act, chapter 19.85 RCW, Aging and Adult Services Administration has analyzed impacts on small businesses and proposed ways to mitigate those costs associated with implementing the training requirements in these rules. Training staff adequately to care for adult residents is a benefit to both the resident and the provider.

WSR 01-23-075 PROPOSED RULES OFFICE OF THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

Original Notice.

Preproposal statement of inquiry was filed as WSR 01-20-095.

Title of Rule: Continuation of a rate filing exemption for certain commercial property casualty products.

Purpose: The existing rules include a "sunset" provision and will expire unless amended.

Other Identifying Information: R 2001-09.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 48.02.060, 48.18.100, 48.19.080.

Statute Being Implemented: RCW 48.18.100, 48.19.080.

Summary: WAC 284-24-120 exempts certain commercial property casualty products from rate filing requirements. Subsection (7) includes a sunset clause that will cause the exemption to expire unless the rule is amended.

Reasons Supporting Proposal: The proposal will continue to allow property casualty insurers to choose not to file the rates of certain policies. This should provide some cost and time savings.

Name of Agency Personnel Responsible for Drafting: Lee Barclay, Olympia, (360) 586-3685; Implementation: Beth Berendt, Olympia, (360) 664-4627; and Enforcement: Carol Sureau, Lacey, (360) 407-0048.

Name of Proponent: Insurance Commissioner Mike Kreidler, governmental.

Rule is not necessitated by federal law, federal or state court decision.

Explanation of Rule, its Purpose, and Anticipated Effects: The proposed rule extends the sunset date on an existing regulation for an additional two years. The existing rule allows insurers the option to file or not to file rates on certain commercial policies that have an estimated annual premium over $25,000. The purchasers of large commercial property casualty policies are sophisticated buyers. These purchasers have the ability to negotiate as equals over the rates of their policies and to adequately safeguard their interests. Since less protection is needed for these purchasers the filing and review requirements are not necessary. Suspending the filing of rates for these policies will save insurers some time and expense. These savings may be passed along to the purchasers.

During the proposed extension of the sunset, the commissioner intends to use the additional time to review the experience under WAC 284-24-120 since adoption. The commissioner will evaluate the rule and engage in discussions with agents, brokers, consumers, and insurers about possibly modifying the existing scheme of deregulation. The subject has been discussed extensively by the NAIC and other states and the commissioner will consider the recommendations of the "Speed to Market" and other appropriate NAIC working groups that address issues of commercial deregulation. The commissioner will review WAC 284-24-120 and other systems of commercial deregulation and determine what, if any, is the most appropriate for Washington.

Proposal Changes the Following Existing Rules: The proposal would amend WAC 284-24-120(7) and change "2001" to "2003."

A small business economic impact statement has been prepared under chapter 19.85 RCW.

Small Business Economic Impact Statement

Background: The existing rule exempts certain large property casualty policies from rate filing requirements. The existing rule includes a "sunset" clause that will cause the section to expire if not amended. The proposed rule delays the "sunset" for an additional two years.

The existing rule was developed in the OIC regulatory improvement process and adopted in 1999. The existing rule exempts rate filing requirements for policies that:

- (1) Pertain to a business, nonprofit organization, or public entity;
- (2) Involve the lines of property and casualty insurance defined in RCW 48.11.040, 48.11.050, 48.11.060, 48.11.070, and/or 48.11.080; and
- (3) Have an estimated annual collected premium of $25,000 or more.

The underlying theory of the existing rule is that purchasers of large commercial property casualty policies are sophisticated buyers. These purchasers have the ability to adequately safeguard their interests. Since less protection is needed for these purchasers, the filing requirements are not necessary. Suspending the filing of rates for these policies may save insurers some time and expense. These savings may be passed along to the purchasers.

The deregulation of commercial rates and forms continues to be discussed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. There is still debate in Washington state and nationally regarding the thresholds for deregulation. Exactly how deregulation can be best accomplished while retaining adequate consumer protections varies from proposal to proposal. Commissioner Kreidler intends to ascertain what regulation is the best fit for Washington. He believes that there is not enough experience with the existing rule to make such a determination. Commissioner Kreidler is proposing to continue the existing exemption until 2003. In that timeframe, the commissioner will continue to evaluate the existing rule, research the issue, and engage in discussions with agents, brokers, consumers, and insurers about modifying the commercial property casualty rate filing process.

Is the rule required by federal law or federal regulation? This rule is not required by federal law or regulation.

What industry is affected by the proposed rule? The industry code directly affected by the proposed rule is Fire, Marine, and Casualty Insurance SIC #6331.

List the specific parts of the proposed [rule], which may impose a cost to business: No part of the proposed rule will impose costs upon business. The existing regulation rate allows an exemption from rate filing requirements for certain large commercial property casualty policies. The proposed rule continues a regulation intended to lessen time and expenses related to filing. The text of the proposed rule changes the date "2001" to "2003."

What will be the compliance costs for the industries affected? There should be no compliance costs for industry associated with the proposed rule. There are no new requirements upon insurers in the proposal. The proposed rule continues an exemption intended to lessen compliance costs. Certain existing filing requirements are exempted at the discretion of the insurer, which should save insurers some time and money. The insurer need not rates file [rate files] if the criteria of the rules are met. If the insurer chooses to continue to file, it can practice in exactly the same fashion as it currently does and there is no impact at all.

What percentage of the industries in the four-digit standard industrial classification will be affected by the rule? The proposed rule would affect 100% of the property casualty insurers that offer products that are subject to regulation by the Insurance Commissioner and if the product:

- (a) Pertains to a business, nonprofit organization, or public entity;
- (b) Involves the lines of property and casualty insurance defined in RCW 48.11.040, 48.11.050, 48.11.060, 48.11.070, and/or 48.11.080; and
- (c) Has an estimated annual collected premium of $25,000 or more.

As noted in the section above, insurers that meet these and other criteria of the rules do not need to file rates for these products.

Will the rule impose a disproportionately higher economic burden on small businesses? No. The proposed rule does not impose any economic burden on regulated entities, whether they are small insurers or not.

Can mitigation be used to reduce the economic impact of the rule on small businesses and still meet the stated objective of the statutes that are the basis of the proposed rule? No. The proposed rule has no negative economic impacts. Thus, there are no impacts that could be mitigated. If insurers have products that meet the criteria of the rule, they will continue to have the option of being exempted from filing requirements.

If any negative cost impacts are foreseen at some point during the rule making, the commissioner will work with all affected parties to mitigate those impacts.

What steps will the commissioner take to reduce the costs of the rule on small businesses? There should be no costs to small insurers beyond the costs of reading and understanding the rule. The commissioner will distribute the proposed rules to the affected parties and will provide any technical assistance necessary requested by insurers.

Which mitigation techniques have been considered and incorporated into the proposed rule? There are no negative cost impacts so there is no need or opportunity to mitigate. The proposed rules preclude a possible increase of costs.

Which mitigation techniques were considered for incorporation into the proposed rule but were rejected, and why? See above.

Briefly describe the reporting, record keeping, and other compliance requirements of the proposed rule: There are no new reporting or record-keeping requirements as a result of the proposed rule. If an insurer chooses to not file in reliance on the rules, they shall maintain records supporting the rating and premium determination of each policy issued in reliance on this section. These records shall be retained by the insurer for a minimum of three years and made available at all reasonable times for the commissioner's examination. Certain records they customarily kept must still be kept and available for the inspection to enable the commissioner to investigate if an insurer is complying with statutory requirements.

List the kinds of professional services that a small business is likely to need in order to comply with the reporting, record keeping, and other compliance requirements of the proposed rule: The proposed rule continues an existing exemption from certain rate filing requirements intended to lessen compliance costs. There are no new reporting or record-keeping requirements. No new professional services will be needed by smaller insurers.

Cost of equipment: There is no anticipated increase in the cost of equipment.

Cost of supplies: There is no anticipated increase in the cost of supplies.

Cost of labor: There is no anticipated increase in the cost of labor. If the rule were not adopted, costs for insurers may increase since the filing requirements on the relevant policies would no longer be exempted.

Cost of increased administration: There is no anticipated increase in the costs of administration. If the rule were not adopted, costs for insurers may increase since the filing requirements on the relevant policies would no longer be exempted.

Compare the cost of compliance for small business with the cost of compliance for the largest business in the same four-digit classification, using one or more of the following: There should be no associated costs of compliance. The proposed rule allows the existing exemption to continue. Compliance costs may increase if no rule making amended the existing rule. The filing exemption is unrelated to size of business and should not be disproportionate in effects.

Have insurers that will be affected been asked what the economic impact will be? Yes. The commissioner informed all interested parties of his intent to revisit this subject and began the rule-making process on October 3, 2001. He published the proposal in the Washington State Register and posted the proposal on the OIC website. He mailed the CR-101 to interested parties and affected insurers, including smaller insurers. The CR-101 requested comments and gave agency contact numbers for parties interested in participating in the rule-making process. Members of the commissioners e-mail list received the CR-101 by use of that tool.

The commissioner discussed this subject with members of all segments of the regulated industry. Several comments were received prior to the filing and after the filing of the CR-101. The majority of comments advocated a repeal or extension of the sunset date. Other comments expressed support for more complete deregulation. Still others expressed support for allowing the sunset to occur. No comment indicated that there would be any regulatory costs associated with the continuation of the current exemption. The majority of comments indicated that there would be costs associated if the proposed rule were not adopted to extend the sunset.

How and when were affected small insurers advised of the proposed rule? The commissioner informed all interested parties of his intent to revisit this subject and began the rule-making process on October 3, 2001. He published the proposal in the Washington State Register and posted the proposal on the OIC website. He mailed the CR-101 to interested parties and affected insurers, including smaller insurers. The CR-101 requested comments and gave agency contact numbers for parties interested in participating in the rule-making process. Members of the commissioners e-mail list received the CR-101 by use of that tool.

How did the commissioner involve small business in the development of the proposed rule? See above regarding notification. The commissioner discussed this subject with interested parties on many occasions. His belief in continuing that dialogue is one of the reasons he is choosing to delay the sunset and work together for the best possible result. During the extension, the commissioner will continue to involve agents, brokers, consumers, and insurers in discussions of this subject.

WSR 01-23-080 PROPOSED RULES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRIES

Original Notice.

Preproposal statement of inquiry was filed as WSR 01-19-068.

Title of Rule: WAC 296-33-010 Attendant services.

Purpose: On August 29, 2001, Industrial insurance adopted WAC 296-20-303 regarding attendant services. The 2001 legislature did not fund the implementation of WAC 296-20-303 for the crime victims' compensation program. The purpose of a new chapter is to allow the program to continue authorizing attendant care benefits under the same rules as prior to the adoption of WAC 296-20-303.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 7.68.030.

Statute Being Implemented: Chapter 7.68 RCW.

Summary: The new chapter will allow the crime victims' compensation program to continue authorizing attendant services the same as they did prior to the adoption of WAC 296-20-303.

Reasons Supporting Proposal: The 2001 legislature did not provide funds for implementing WAC 296-20-303 for the crime victims' compensation program.

Name of Agency Personnel Responsible for Drafting, Implementation and Enforcement: Cletus Nnanabu, 7273 Linderson Way S.W., Tumwater, WA 98501, (360) 902-5340.

Name of Proponent: Labor and industries, governmental.

Rule is not necessitated by federal law, federal or state court decision.

Explanation of Rule, its Purpose, and Anticipated Effects: On August 29, 2001, the Department of Labor and Industries' industrial insurance program adopted WAC 296-20-303. With the adoption of this rule administering benefits for attendant services changed. The 2001 legislature did not fund the crime victims' compensation program to implement WAC 296-20-303. Without the funding to implement the Department of Labor and Industries' crime victims' compensation program needs to continue administering attendant service benefits the same as prior to the adoption of WAC 296-20-303. The adoption of this new chapter 296-33 WAC will allow the crime victims' compensation program to continue as they have in the past in regards to attendant services.

Proposal Changes the Following Existing Rules: On August 29, 2001, WAC 296-20-303 was adopted by industrial insurance. WAC 296-20-303 changes the way attendant services benefits are authorized. By creating a new chapter, using the rules in place prior to the adoption of WAC 296-20-303, the crime victims' compensation program will be able to continue administering attendant services benefits the same as they have prior to August 29, 2001.

No small business economic impact statement has been prepared under chapter 19.85 RCW. New rules and rule amendments must meet the requirements of the Regulatory Fairness Act (RFA), chapter 19.85 RCW and the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), chapter 34.05 RCW. One of the requirements of the RFA is that the economic impact of proposed regulations on small businesses be examined relative to their impact on large businesses. The agency must prepare a small business economic impact statement (SBEIS) when a proposed rule, or rule amendments, have the potential of placing a more than minor economic impact on business. A related requirement in the APA demands an evaluation of the probable costs and benefits of a proposed regulation and that it be shown that these probable benefits exceed the probable costs: A process referred to as a cost-benefit analysis (CBA). As the proposed rule will have no impact on L&I expenditures, or payments to individuals, or businesses, neither a SBEIS nor a CBA is necessary for this rule making.

RCW 34.05.328 does not apply to this rule adoption. This rule does not change the way the crime victims' compensation program is administering benefits.

Hearing Location: 7273 Linderson Way S.W., Room S119, Tumwater, WA 98501, on December 27, 2001, at 9:00 a m to noon.

Assistance for Persons with Disabilities: Contact Jill Short by December 12, 2001, (360) 902-5341.

Submit Written Comments to: Crime Victims' Compensation Program, Attention: Janice M. Deal, P.O. Box 44520, Olympia, WA 98504-4520, by January 3, 2002.

Victims who are temporarily or permanently totally disabled and rendered physically unable to care for themselves due to the crime may receive attendant services.

Yes, all other insurances both private and public must be used first.

(5) What attendant services does the crime victims program cover?

(9) Is my attendant service provider(s) an employee(s) of the crime victims compensation program?

No. Even though the crime victims compensation program is required by the federal government to withhold certain payroll taxes from moneys paid to some nonagency providers, the victim is the common law employer of attendant service provider(s).

(10) How can a provider obtain a provider account number from the department?

In order to receive a provider account number from the department, a provider must:

- Complete a provider application;
- · Sign a provider agreement;
- Provide a copy of any practice or other license held;
- Complete, sign and return Form W-9; and
- Meet the department's provider eligibility requirements.

Note:

A provider account number is required to receive payment from the department but is not a guarantee of payment for services.

(11) How many hours will be authorized for attendant services?

The crime victims compensation program will determine the maximum hours of authorized care based on an independent nursing assessment conducted in the victim's residence. More than one provider may be authorized, based on the victim's needs and the availability of providers. Attendant service providers are limited to a maximum of seventy hours per week per provider.

- The department changes the provider application or application procedures; or
- Provider does not comply with department request to update information.

(14) When may the department terminate a provider account?

The department may terminate a provider account when:

- The provider is found ineligible to treat per department rules; or
 - The provider requests termination; or
- The provider dies or is no longer in active business status.

(15) How can a provider reactivate a provider account?

To reactivate a provider account, the provider may call or write the department. The department may require the provider to update the provider application and/or agreement or complete other needed forms prior to reactivation. Account reactivation is subject to department review. If a provider account has been terminated, a new provider application will be required.

WSR 01-23-081 PROPOSED RULES DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING

Original Notice.

Preproposal statement of inquiry was filed as WSR 01-16-004.

Title of Rule: WAC 308-125-120 Fees and charges.

Purpose: To increase fees pursuant to the requirements of RCW 43.24.086.

Reasons Why Rules on this Subject May Be Needed and What That Might Accomplish: Under provision of RCW 43.24.086, the cost of each professional licensing program shall be borne by the members of the profession. The director of the Department of Licensing is charged with setting fees at a level sufficient to defray the costs of administering the program.

Projected revenue for the 2001-03 biennium from licensing fees is not sufficient to cover projected operating costs for the real estate appraiser program. An increase in original license applications anticipated as a result of mandatory licensing legislation has not been realized. In addition, many licensees have opted not to renew due to market conditions and perceptions regarding the value of certification or licensing.

Current resources are needed, at a minimum, to maintain program effectiveness. Program workload has shifted from primarily an application review process to include an emphasis on the enforcement of practice standards. Consumer complaints are technical in nature, related enforcement involves increased staff training, investigation and legal support costs.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 43.24.086.

Statute Being Implemented: RCW 18.140.050.

Summary: To increase fees identified as WAC 308-125-120 (1), (4), (5), (9), (10).

Reasons Supporting Proposal: RCW 43.24.086 requires that regulatory programs raise enough revenue to be self-supporting. Pursuant to RCW 43.135.055, during the 2001-03 fiscal biennium, the department may increase fees in excess of the fiscal growth factor if the increases are necessary to fully fund the costs of the licensing programs.

Name of Agency Personnel Responsible for Drafting, Implementation and Enforcement: Cleotis Borner, Jr., Olympia, (360) 664-6504.

Name of Proponent: Department of Licensing, Real Estate Appraiser Program, governmental.

Rule is not necessitated by federal law, federal or state court decision.

Explanation of Rule, its Purpose, and Anticipated Effects: Increase WAC 308-125-120(1), Application fee, from $196.00 to $246.00.

Increase WAC 308-125-120(4), Original certification fee, from $106.00 to $206.00.

Increase WAC 308-125-120(5), Certification renewal fee, from $302.00 to $407.00.

Increase WAC 308-125-120(9), Application for reciprocity fee, from $196.00 to $246.00.

Increase WAC 308-125-120(10), Original certification via reciprocity, from $106.00 to $206.00.

Proposal Changes the Following Existing Rules: Pursuant to RCW 43.135.055, during the 2001-03 fiscal biennium, the department may increase fees in excess of the fiscal growth factor if the increases are necessary to fully fund the costs of the licensing programs.

No small business economic impact statement has been prepared under chapter 19.85 RCW. The increase does not impose more than minor costs on businesses and are exempt from small business economic impact statement preparation under RCW 19.85.030. The proposed rule also adjusts a fee pursuant to legislative approval.

RCW 34.05.328 does not apply to this rule adoption.

Hearing Location: Department of Licensing, Business and Professions Division, 405 Black Lake Boulevard, Building #2 Conference Room, Olympia, WA, on Friday, December 28, 2001, at 1:00 p.m.

(((1) When a contestant is knocked down the referce shall order the opponent to retire to the farthest neutral corner of the ring, pointing to the corner, while simultaneously beginning the count over the contestant who is down. The referce is the sole judge as to whether there has been a knockdown.
- (2) The referee shall audibly announce the passing of each second, accompanying the count with a visible arm motion, the downward motion indicating the end of each second.
- (3) Any contestant who is knocked down shall not be allowed to resume boxing until after the referee has finished the count of eight. The contestant may, but is not required to, rise before the referee has reached the count of eight.
 - (4) The timekeeper shall:
- (a) Stand up and strike the edge of the platform with a hammer or other equipment approved by the department, at the end of each second; or
- (b) By other effective signaling method, give the referee the correct one second intervals for the purpose of maintaining the proper count of the passing seconds.
- (5) Should the standing contestant leave the farthest neutral corner to which he or she has been directed by the referee, the referee shall interrupt the count. The count shall not be resumed until the contestant returns to the neutral corner to which he or she was directed by the referee. When the contestant returns to the appropriate corner, the referee shall resume the count from the point at which it was interrupted.

- (6) When the referee determines a contestant has been knocked down primarily as a result of a blow, the referee shall require the contestant to be subjected to a count of eight before the contestant may resume the contest, regardless of whether the contestant rises from the ring floor prior to the count of eight being reached. This rule will prevent a boxer being struck while proper reflexes are absent and will also aid the referee in judging the condition of the boxer. If the contestant does not arise before the count of eight is reached, the referee must determine whether the contestant's reflexes and condition renders it appropriate to continue the contest.
- (7) If the referee deems it appropriate, he or she may defer resumption of a contest to determine whether a contestant who was knocked down and arises before a count of eight is reached is in fit condition to continue. If so assured the referee shall, without loss of time, order both boxers to go on with the contest. During such intervention by the referee the striking of a blow by either boxer may be ruled a foul.
- (8) If the contestant taking the count is still down when the referee calls the count of ten the referee shall wave both arms to indicate the contestant has been knocked out, and shall raise the hand of the opponent as winner. The referee's count is the official count. Upon the opinion and decision of both the physician and referee on any knockout, bad or continuous beating, a boxer will be suspended until such time as he takes a complete physical examination and is reinstated by such report from the department physician. This report will not include the blood test for communicable diseases, which is taken once a year.
- (9) In all contests where a contestant has been knocked down a total of three times in a round, the contest shall be terminated and the opponent shall be awarded the decision.
- (10) If a boxer is down and the referee is in the course of counting at the end of:
- (a) A round other than the final scheduled round, the bell indicating the end of the round must not be sounded, but the bell must be sounded as soon as the downed boxer regains his feet and the referee indicates that the boxers should continue.
- (b) The final round, the bell must be sounded indicating the end of the round and contest.) (1) The referee may give an injured boxer a count of eight seconds at any time. The referee does not have to continue to count if in the referee's opinion a boxer is unable to continue to box. The referee shall resume a count where it was left off if a boxer attempts to rise after being knocked down and goes down again immediately.
- (2) When the referee determines a boxer has been knocked down, the referee shall require the boxers to cease boxing during the count. If the boxer rises prior to, or when the count is completed, the referee shall determine whether the boxer's reflexes and condition render it appropriate to continue the contest.
- (3) If a boxer does not rise when the count of eight is completed, the referee shall continue the count to ten seconds.

- (4) If the boxer being given a count by the referee is down on the canvas of the ring when the referee completes counting to ten seconds, the referee shall wave both arms to indicate that the boxer has been knocked out and shall stop the contest. The referee may raise the hand of the opponent indicating that the opponent has won by a knockout.
- (5) The referee's counting of seconds is the official count. However, when a boxer is knocked down, the time-keeper shall assist with starting and maintaining an accurate count by striking the edge of the ring platform once each second with a hammer or other equipment or signaling method.
- (6) When a boxer is knocked down, the referee shall direct the opponent to move to the farthest neutral corner of the ring. If the opponent leaves the neutral corner, the referee shall interrupt the count and will not resume the count until the opponent returns to the neutral corner.
- (7) If a boxer has been knocked down three times during a round, the referee shall stop the contest.
- (8) If a boxer is knocked down and the referee is still counting when three minutes of a round has elapsed, the bell shall not be sounded until the knocked down boxer rises and the referee indicates that the contest will continue. A boxer cannot be saved by the bell at the end of any round.
- (9) If both boxers score simultaneous knockdowns (double knockdown), the referee shall begin a count as in any knockdown. If one contestant does not rise before the count of ten, his opponent shall be declared the winner. If both contestants rise before completion of the count, the bout may continue at the discretion of the referee. If both contestants rise but neither can continue as determined by the referee and/or event physician, the winner will be determined by the scorecards. If neither contestant rises before the count of ten, they will both lose by knockout.

- WAC 36-12-150 When boxer falls from or leaves the ring during a round. (1) A ((eontestant)) boxer who has been knocked ((or has fallen)) through the ropes and over the edge of the ring platform ((during a contest)) shall be subject to a count of twenty. The boxer may be helped back into the ring by anyone except his/her seconds or manager ((and the referee will allow a reasonable time for this return. When on the ring platform outside the ropes the contestant must reenter the ring immediately, then he may either resume the contest or stay down for a count, which in the latter case shall be started by the referee as soon as the fallen contestant is back in the ring)).
- (2) ((If a contestant intentionally declines to reenter the ring, the referee shall start the count immediately. If the contestant is not in the ring within ten seconds, the referee shall award the contest to the other contestant on the basis of a knockout.
- (3) When a contestant has fallen through the ropes the other shall retire to the farthest neutral corner and stay there until the count is completed or the other contestant returns to the ring and the referee directs resumption of the contest.
- (4) A contestant who deliberately wrestles or throws an opponent from the ring, or strikes an opponent who is partly out of the ring, and prevented by the ropes from assuming a position of defense may be disqualified, and the referee shall recommend to the department that the purse of the offending boxer be forfeited.)) A boxer who leaves the ring due to other than fair blows shall be subject to a count of ten only if he/she refuses to reenter the ring.

WSR 01-23-087 PROPOSED RULES FOREST PRACTICES BOARD standards.

Original Notice.

Preproposal statement of inquiry was filed as WSR [01-18-009 on] August 22, 2001.

Title of Rule: Forest riparian easement program.

Purpose: The purpose of the rule is to implement legislative changes in chapter 280, Laws of 2001 (SHB 2105).

Other Identifying Information: The Department of Natural Resources administers the forest riparian easement program.

Statute Being Implemented: Chapter 280, Laws of 2001.

Summary: The changes make a previously exempt group of small forest landowners eligible for a new state program that pays landowners to protect streamside trees. Landowners can also choose whether the assessed value of their streamside timber is based upon market prices on the date they submit their forest practices application or the date they begin timber harvesting. The assessment determines how much compensation a landowner receives. The changes also allow the landowner to be reimbursed for the cost of preparing and recording of the easement and all business, occupation, and real estate excise taxes.

Reasons Supporting Proposal: These changes are being made to make the forestry riparian easement program consistent with SHB 2105.

Name of Agency Personnel Responsible for Drafting: Debora Brown-Munguia, 1111 Washington Street S.E., Olympia, (360) 902-1448; Implementation and Enforcement: Lenny Young, 1111 Washington Street S.W., Olympia, (360) 902-1744.

Name of Proponent: Forest Practices Board, governmental.

Rule is not necessitated by federal law, federal or state court decision.

Explanation of Rule, its Purpose, and Anticipated Effects: The changes make a previously exempt group of small forest landowners eligible for a new state program that pays landowners to protect streamside trees. Landowners can also choose whether the assessed value of their streamside timber is based upon market prices on the date they submit their forest practices application or the date they begin timber harvesting. The assessment determines how much compensation a landowner receives. The changes also allow the landowner to be reimbursed for the cost of preparing and recording of the easement and all business, occupation, and real estate excise taxes.

The purpose and anticipated effect of this rule change is to allow more small forest landowners the ability to participate in the forestry riparian easement program.

Section by section description: WAC 222-21-010, a definition of compliance cost is added and the definitions of qualifying timber and small forest landowner are modified to match legislative changes.

WAC 222-21-020, amended to incorporate legislative recognition of disapproved applications.

WAC 222-21-045, amended to recognize legislative direction to have a choice of valuation dates and to provide a method of valuation for disapproved applications.

WAC 222-21-050, amended to recognize payment of compensation costs and to address compensation for disapproved applications.

Proposed [64]

WAC 222-21-061, new section to establish criteria when a commercially reasonable harvest is not possible.

Proposal Changes the Following Existing Rules: See Explanation of Rule above.

No small business economic impact statement has been prepared under chapter 19.85 RCW. The proposed rules are designed to allow more small forest landowners to participate in the forestry riparian easement program, which provides compensation to landowners for certain timber. These rules will not impose more than minor costs on businesses within an industry and therefore a small business economic impact statement is not required.

RCW 34.05.328 does not apply to this rule adoption. The content of these rules is explicitly and specifically dictated by statute, and therefore exempt from RCW 34.05.328 analysis.

Hearing Location: Natural Resource Building, 1111 Washington Street S.E., First Floor Room 172, Olympia, WA 98504, on January 15, 2002, at 3:00 p.m.; and at the Hampton Inn Spokane, 2010 South Assembly Road, Spokane, WA 99224, on January 17, 2002, at 3:00 p.m.

Assistance for Persons with Disabilities: Contact rules coordinator at (360) 902-1413, by January 5, 2002, TDD (360) 902-1125.

Submit Written Comments to: Patricia Anderson, Department of Natural Resources, Forest Practices Division, 1111 Washington Street S.E., P.O. Box 47012, Olympia, WA 98504-7012, fax (360) 902-1428, by January 17, 2001 [2002], 5:00 p.m.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-12-042, filed 5/30/01, effective 7/1/01)

WAC 222-21-010 Definitions. The following definitions apply to this chapter:

- (1) "Commercially reasonable harvest unit" means a harvest area that meets the requirements of WAC 222-21-060.
- (2) "Completion of harvest" means that the trees have been harvested from an area under an approved forest practices application and that further entry into that area by any type of logging or slash treating equipment or method is not expected.
- (3) "Compliance costs" includes the cost of preparing and recording the easement, and any business and occupation tax and real estate excise tax imposed because of entering into the easement.
- (4) "Danger tree" means any qualifying timber reasonably perceived to pose an imminent danger to life or improved property.
- (((4))) (5) "Easement premises" means the geographic area designated in a forestry riparian easement, including the areas in which qualifying timber is located. Easement premises may be categorized as follows:

- (a) Riparian area easement premises means riparian areas and areas upon which qualifying timber associated with riparian areas are located.
- (b) Other easement premises means areas of land required to be left unharvested under rules adopted under RCW 76.09.055 or 76.09.370 including areas upon which other qualifying timber outside riparian areas is located and areas of land upon which uneconomic qualifying timber is located.
- (((5))) (6) "Forestry riparian easement" means an easement covering qualifying timber granted voluntarily to the state by a small forest landowner.
- (((6))) (7) "Hazardous substances" means hazardous substances as defined in RCW 70.102.010(5), and 70.105D.020(7), and solid waste as defined in RCW 70.95.030(22).
- (((7))) (8) "High impact regulatory threshold" means the threshold where the value of qualifying timber is greater than 19.1% (for timber in Western Washington) or 12.2% (for timber in Eastern Washington) of the value of the harvested timber and qualifying timber under the approved forest practices application covering the qualifying timber.
- (((8))) (9) "Qualifying timber" means those trees covered by a forest practices application that the small forest landowner is required to leave unharvested under rules adopted under RCW 76.09.055 or 76.09.370 or that are made uneconomic to harvest by those rules, and for which the small forest landowner is willing to grant the state a forestry riparian easement. Qualifying timber is timber within or bordering a commercially reasonable harvest unit, or timber for which an approved forest practices application for timber harvest cannot be obtained because of restrictions under these rules. Qualifying timber is categorized as follows:
- (a) Permanent qualifying timber includes trees that shall not be harvested or damaged or removed from the easement premises during the term of the easement.
- (i) Where permanent qualifying timber is in areas in which no harvest may take place, the easement shall describe the boundaries of the areas. No harvest of any tree within this area shall take place during the term of the easement.
- (ii) Where permanent qualifying timber is located in areas in which selective harvest may take place, the permanent qualifying timber must be tagged for the duration of the easement.
- (b) Reserve qualifying timber includes trees that may be harvested and removed but only in compliance with the terms of the easement. Reserve qualifying timber shall be identified separately from the permanent qualifying timber.
- (c) Replacement qualifying timber includes trees which, in the future, will be substituted for the reserve qualifying timber before the reserve qualifying timber may be harvested or removed from the property. Replacement qualifying timber will be selected from time to time pursuant to the provisions of the easement and will be subject to the terms and protections of the easement.
- (d) Uneconomic qualifying timber includes trees made uneconomical to harvest. The trees are considered permanent qualifying timber and may not be harvested or otherwise damaged during the term of the easement.

[65] Proposed

- (e) Other qualifying timber outside riparian areas includes trees that may not be harvested under forest practices rules adopted under RCW 76.09.055 or 76.09.370 for reasons other than protection of riparian functions. It includes without limitation trees that are unharvestable because of public safety concerns. The trees are considered permanent qualifying timber and may not be harvested or otherwise damaged during the term of the easement.
- (((9))) (10) "Riparian areas" include the areas designated in a forestry riparian easement. Riparian areas include without limitation all riparian and other special management zones required by the forest practices rules for protection of aquatic resources and includes associated qualifying timber.
- (((10))) (11) "Riparian function" includes bank stability, recruitment of woody debris, leaf litter fall, nutrients, sediment filtering, shade, and other riparian features that are important to both riparian forest and aquatic systems conditions.

(((11))) (12) "Small forest landowner" means:

- (a) A forest landowner meeting all of the following characteristics ((in (a) of this subsection unless any of the exceptions in (b) of this subsection are met.
- (a))) as of the date a forest practices application is received (see WAC 222-20-010(8)), or the date the land-owner provides written notification to the small forest land-owner office that the harvest is to begin, for which the forestry riparian easement is associated((, the forest land-owner)):
- (i) Is an individual, partnership, corporate, or other nongovernmental legal entity. If a landowner grants timber rights to another entity for less than five years, the landowner may still qualify as a small forest landowner under this section;
- (ii) Has a fee interest in the land and timber or has rights to harvest the timber to be included in the forestry riparian easement that extend at least fifty years from the date the forest practices application associated with the easement is received:
- (iii) Has harvested from its own lands in this state during the three years prior to the year of application an average timber volume that would qualify the forest landowner as a small timber harvester under RCW 84.33.073(1); and
- (iv) Certifies at the time the forest practices application is received that it does not expect to harvest from its own lands more than the volume allowed by RCW 84.33.073(1) during the ten years following receipt of the application.
- (b) ((At the time the forest practices application is received,)) \underline{A} forest landowner whose prior three-year average harvest exceeds the limit of RCW 84.33.073(1), or who expects to exceed this limit during the ten years following receipt of the forest practices application, may still qualify as a small forest landowner if that landowner establishes to the small forest landowner office reasonable satisfaction that the harvest limits were or will be exceeded to raise funds to pay estate taxes or equally compelling and unexpected obligations such as court-ordered judgments or extraordinary medical expenses. (Note: The small forest landowner office will establish a board manual governing these exceptions.)
- (((12))) (c) A landowner may still qualify as a small forest landowner if the landowner is unable to obtain an approved forest practices application for timber harvest for

- any of his or her land because of restrictions under the forest practices rules adopted under RCW 76.09.055 or 76.09.370.
- (13) "Small forest landowner office" is an office within the department described in RCW 76.13.110, and it shall be a resource and focal point for small landowner concerns and policies and shall have significant expertise regarding the management of small forest holdings and government programs applicable to such holdings, and the forestry riparian easement program.
- (((13))) (14) "Uneconomic to harvest" means that a harvest area meets the requirements of WAC 222-21-065.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-12-042, filed 5/30/01, effective 7/1/01)

- (a) The easements must include qualifying timber within riparian areas and may include other qualifying timber;
- (b) The small forest landowner must be willing to sell or donate such easements to the state;
- (c) The small forest landowner has a final((, approved)) forest practices application including qualifying timber on the easement premises that has been approved or has been disapproved because of restrictions under the forest practices rules adopted under RCW 76.09.055 or 76.09.370;
- (d) The small forest landowner has provided a litigation guarantee or similar report from a title company for the property:
- (e) Acceptable documents necessary for creation of the easement have been prepared; and
- (f) The easement is not subject to unacceptable liabilities in subsection (3) of this section.
- (2) Where more than one person has an interest in property to be covered by a forestry riparian easement, all persons holding rights to control or affect the easement premises, qualifying timber, and the riparian functions provided by the qualifying timber during the term of the easement must execute the easement documents or otherwise subordinate their interest to the easement interest being acquired by the state. This includes tenants in common, joint tenants, holder of reversionary interests, lien holders, and mortgages.
- (3) Unacceptable liabilities for the state include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) Potential liability exposure due to the presence of hazardous substances;

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-12-042, filed 5/30/01, effective 7/1/01)

WAC 222-21-045 Valuation. (1) This section is designed to establish methods and standards for valuation of forestry riparian easements for purposes of establishing the compensation. It applies only to the department, small forest landowners, and the small forest landowner office in connection with the forestry riparian easement program.

- (2) The small forest landowner office will calculate the fair market value of the forestry riparian easement as of the date of receipt of the forest practices application associated with the qualifying timber, or the date the landowner provides written notification to the small forest landowner office that the harvest is to begin. Data obtained or maintained by the department of revenue under RCW 84.33.074 and 84.33.091 will be used and adjusted to the applicable date ((of receipt of the forest practices application associated with the qualifying timber)). For easements with an approved forest practices application, the small forest landowner must indicate whether valuation will be calculated using method (a) or (b) of this subsection. Only method (a) of this subsection is available for qualifying timber for which an approved application for timber harvest cannot be obtained because of restrictions under the forest practices rules under WAC 222-21-061. In either method (a) or (b) of this subsection, the time adjustment index will be based on log price changes. The small forest landowner office will determine the specific log species and/or sorts and the log price reporting service to use after consultation with the small forest landowner advisory committee established under RCW 76.13.110(4) and the department of revenue. The small forest landowner office will generate an index that reflects the time adjustments using information and data obtained from a log price reporting service determined by the department in consultation with the small forest landowner committee.
- (a) Stumpage value determination. The small forest landowner office will create and maintain value tables to determine stumpage value of the qualifying timber. These tables will be created using a method coordinated with the department of revenue. The values will closely approximate the stumpage value for logs that would be sold in the ordinary course of business for the date of receipt of the forest practices application. The landowner must provide the small forest landowner office with:
- (i) The reference for the stumpage value table and any other needed information for use of the table (see the board manual section 17 for details); and
- (ii) Any information the small forest landowner would like the department to consider in its cruise and valuation of the qualifying timber.
- (b) Small harvester tax return. The landowner must provide mill or buyer information to the department on the sale breakdown. This includes:
- (i) The volume and scaling bureau log grades of each species harvested;
 - (ii) The amount received for each species; and
- (iii) The actual harvesting and marketing costs as defined in the department of revenue small harvester instructions.

The price received for the timber is adjusted to the applicable date ((of receipt of the forest practices application)) using the time adjustment index and then the average logging and hauling cost per MBF is subtracted to arrive at the stumpage value. The value of the qualifying timber is determined by multiplying the time adjusted stumpage value of each species in the harvest unit by the net volume for each corresponding species in the inventory of qualifying timber. A residual value approach is used to determine the value of species in the easement, which are not present in the harvest area. The prices for species not present in the harvest unit are based on the delivered log price report approved by the small forest landowner office that corresponds closest to the date of the forest practices application, minus the average logging and hauling costs.

(3) Reduced valuation.

- (a) For an easement that allows one or more harvests of qualifying timber during the term of the easement, a reduced valuation rate will be applied to the values obtained using either method in subsection (2) of this section. The reduced rate adjusts the values for reserve and replacement qualifying timber. The rate is based on the proportionate economic value lost to the small forest landowner from the regulatory requirements and adjusted for future harvest options during the term of the easement.
- (b) The value of the qualifying timber that may be harvested during the term of the easement will be reduced based on the following formula. Variables will include:
 - (i) The 29 or more trees in the inner zone;
 - (ii) The outer zone leave trees;
 - (iii) Other regulatory requirements.

Reduced valuation rate
$$= \frac{1 - \left(\frac{1}{(1+I)^N}\right)}{1 - \left(\frac{1}{(1+I)^{50}}\right)}$$

— Is the rate of return on 30 year treasury bills, as reported by the Federal Reserve Statistical Release H15 less the rate of increase in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers as published by the U.S. Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics for the previous 12 months less the anticipated rate of growth expected on the portion of the easement subject to reentry, but not less than zero or greater than 6 percent.

N

- The single time limit established by the small forest landowner office.

(c) The reduced rate will not be applied to the department of revenue tax data values if the landowner does not intend to reenter the easement area during the length of the 50 year easement. The harvest at the time of the reentry is not required to meet the requirements in WAC 222-21-060 (5) and (6).

[67] Proposed

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-12-042, filed 5/30/01, effective 7/1/01)

WAC 222-21-050 Payment of compensation. (1) The compensation offered to the small forest landowner will be 50% of the fair market value of the qualifying timber established under the process described in WAC 222-21-045, plus the compliance costs, subject to the following exceptions:

(a) If the high impact regulatory threshold is exceeded for an area covered by an approved forest practices application, then the compensation offered will be increased to 100% for the value of the qualifying timber where the high impact regulatory threshold is exceeded. Use the following calculation:

Where:

Vq = value of qualifying timber;

Vh = value of harvested timber;

t = high impact of regulatory threshold (19.1% for Western Washington, 12.2% for Eastern Washington);

TV = total value of all timber covered under FPA = Vq + Vh; and

HIO - high impact override = (Vq/TV)-t;

See Section 17 of board manual for example.

- (((2))) (b) All compensation is subject to available funding.
- (((3))) (2) If funding is not available, the small forest landowner office will maintain a priority list for compensation. Priority will be based on (a) date of receipt of forest practice application and (b) date of receipt of completed ((postharvest)) harvest status questionnaire.
- (((4))) (3) The small forest landowner office will send the small forest landowner a notice of compensation decision within 60 days of completion of the timber cruise.
- (((5))) (4) Compensation for a forestry riparian easement associated with an approved forest practices application will not be paid until:
- (a) The department has documented completion of harvest;
- (b) The department has verified that there has been compliance with the rules requiring leave trees in the easement area;
- (c) Any dispute over the amount of compensation or eligibility or other matter involving the forestry riparian easement has been resolved; and
- (d) The forestry riparian easement has been executed and delivered to the department.
- (5) Compensation for a forestry riparian easement for which an approved forest practices application for timber harvest cannot be obtained because of restrictions under these rules adopted under RCW 76.09.055 or 76.09.370 will not be paid until:

- (a) The department has verified that there has been compliance with the rules requiring leave trees in the easement area; and
- (b) Any dispute over the amount of compensation or eligibility or other matter involving the forestry riparian easement has been resolved; and
- (c) The forestry riparian easement has been executed and delivered to the department.

NEW SECTION

WAC 222-21-061 Criteria when commercially reasonable harvest is not possible. The small forest landowner office will use the following criteria to determine if a forest practices application for harvest may qualify for the forestry riparian easement program because it involves an area where a commercially reasonable harvest is not possible and an approved application for harvest cannot be obtained because of restrictions under the forest practices rules. The proposed harvest must meet all of the following requirements:

- (1) The application has been disapproved based on rules adopted under RCW 76.09.055 or 76.09.370 that require the area covered by the application to be left unharvested; and
- (2) The application is for a Class III or Class IV Special forest practice; and
- (3) The harvest is not a Class IV General conversion or covered by a conversion option harvest plan; and
- (4) The landowner is not eligible for the 20 acre exemption under WAC 222-30-023; and
- (5) The value of the qualifying timber is equal to, or exceeds, the minimum required by the department of revenue for taxing purposes ($1,000).

Statute Being Implemented: See Statutory Authority for Adoption above.

Summary: The amendments and new rules include public protection provisions, qualifications to be a licensee, regulation of certified public accountants (CPAs); ownership of CPA firms; assurance that CPAs from Washington state are substantially equivalent with CPAs in other states; assurance that CPAs from other states have met qualifications that are substantially equivalent to the CPA qualifications of this state; and regulation of the activities of persons holding licenses, certificates (including a new inactive certificate-holder status), and non-CPA owners of CPA firms.

Reasons Supporting Proposal: E2SSB 5593 that passed through the 2001 legislative session significantly revised the Public Accountancy Act, chapter 18.04 RCW. The Board of Accountancy needs to revise all of its rules for statutory authority and amend or adopt rules to implement the revisions to chapter 18.04 RCW.

Name of Agency Personnel Responsible for Drafting, Implementation and Enforcement: Dana M. McInturff, CPA, 711 South Capitol Way, #400, Olympia, (360) 586-0163.

Name of Proponent: Board of Accountancy, governmental.

Rule is not necessitated by federal law, federal or state court decision.

Explanation of Rule, its Purpose, and Anticipated Effects: The board's goal with all of its rule proposals is to:

- Promote clarity.
- Ensure effective communication.
- Ensure fairness in interpretation and application of the rules.

Proposed

Promote efficiencies through minimizing gray areas.

Specifically:

Specifically.
WAC 4-25-410	Defines terms used throughout the board's rules to provide clarity for users.
WAC 4-25-520	Notifies the public of the records available for inspection and copying for informational purposes.
WAC 4-25-540	Chapter 34.05 RCW, Administrative Procedure Act, allows agencies to adopt brief adjudicative proceedings to resolve some limited administrative issues. The board uses brief adjudicative proceedings to provide a clear process to persons to appeal staff actions denying applications.
WAC 4-25-610, 4- 25-620, 4-25-630, 4-25-631	Advises Washington CPAs of the standards of conduct and when they must comply with these standards. These standards are needed to establish and maintain high standards of competence and ethics to address the need to protect the public.
WAC 4-25-626	In order to protect the public interest, this rule prohibits licensees from being compensated in a manner which tends to bias or give the appearance of tending to bias the results of their attest services. However, to permit Washington CPAs to practice public accounting on a level playing field with other CPAs nationwide, this rule is aligned with the Uniform Accountancy Act (UAA), to follow the national trend of allowing compensation in the form of commissions, referral fees, and contingent fees, and to address the profession's desire to allow commissions and contingent fees with disclosure. In order to ensure the public is sufficiently informed the rule requires all CPAs accepting commissions, referral fees, and contingent fees to disclose in writing and in advance of client acceptance the method of calculating the fee and the CPA's role as the client's advisor.
WAC 4-25-640	Incorporates parts of statute (RCW 18.04.390 and [18.04.]405) into the board's rules of professional conduct. The rule prohibits Washington CPAs from disclosing any confidential client information without the consent of the client; clarifies when the rule does not affect a CPA's disclosure of client information, and outlines a CPA's obligations with respect to the records of a client in a clear format. This standard of professional conduct is needed to protect the public by ensuring privacy and record accessibility.
WAC 4-25-660	"Advertising and other forms of solicitation" is a rule of professional conduct necessary to establish and maintain high standards of competence and ethics of certified public accountants (CPAs) to protect the public interest especially in the area of advertising and solicitation.
WAC 4-25-710	Outlines the educational requirements for individuals to qualify to apply for the CPA examination and ultimately the CPA license, including requirements regarding education obtained outside of the United States, accreditation standards, and an alternative to accreditation. Candidates for the CPA exam need clear concise requirements to ensure fair treatment of all candidates. Ensures candidates will have the necessary foundation and obtain acceptable competence in an increasingly complex business environment to eventually become a licensed CPA. This rule continues to be aligned with the Uniform Accountancy Act (UAA) therefore assuring that Washington CPAs are substantially equivalent with CPAs in other states.

WAC 4-25-720 Outlines the requirements for individuals making application, the application due date, timing for completion and documentation of the education requirements, when exam admission notices will be mailed, the passing grade, conditional credit, proctoring, and the completion of an ethics exam. WAC 4-25-721 This rule provides CPA exam candidates with a listing of what the board considers to be cheating, what actions the board may take if cheating is suspected, and what sanctions the board may impose if cheating occurs. WAC 4-25-730 Licensed CPAs are statutorily given the exclusive right to perform audit, review, and compilation services. In exchange for this valuable right, CPAs are expected to have a certain level of mature expertise prior to offering unsupervised services to the general public. Washington state statute mandates that CPAs demonstrate one year of public accounting experience and meeting competency requirements. The profession and the public expect CPAs to have a focused, relevant and meaningful apprenticeship period to perfect skills and abilities. WAC 4-25-735 Sets forth the procedures applicants for an initial license must follow in a short clear manner; notifies the applicant of the board's definition of a "complete" application and where the board will send notification when the application is complete; sets the expiration of the license on June 30 of the third calendar year following initial licensure; notifies applicants of the prohibition against using the CPA title by persons not properly licensed. Name of Agency Personnel Responsible for Drafting, Implementation and Enforcement: Tracy Hansen, 1300 S.E. Quince Street, Olympia, WA 98504, (360) 236-4940.

Name of Proponent: Department of Health, governmental.

Agency Comments or Recommendations, if any, as to Statutory Language, Implementation, Enforcement, and Fiscal Matters: Health professions must be self-supportive.

Rule is not necessitated by federal law, federal or state court decision.

Explanation of Rule, its Purpose, and Anticipated Effects: The purpose of the rules is to amend WAC 246-826-100 to include a seventh category of health care assistants, category G, to perform hemodialysis. The proposal establishes definitions, health care assistants, category G, minimum requirements to perform end-stage renal dialysis, core competencies and minimum training standards for the certification of hemodialysis technicians. The rules will require and ensure certified health care assistants, category G, meet the same core competencies and minimum training standards for mandatory training programs to be utilized by renal dialysis facilities for training hemodialysis technicians as health care assistants.

Proposal Changes the Following Existing Rules: WAC 246-826-100 is being amended to include a seventh category of health care assistants, category G, to perform hemodialysis.

A small business economic impact statement has been prepared under chapter 19.85 RCW.

Small Business Economic Impact Statement

I. What does the rule or rule amendment require? The proposed regulations will require and ensure certified health care assistants, category G, meet core competencies and minimum training standards for mandatory training programs to be utilized by renal dialysis facilities for training hemodialysis technicians as health care assistants. The training for hemodialysis technicians include both didactic and supervised clinical instruction. The training program shall extend over a period of time sufficient to provide essential, sequenced learning experiences, which enable the trainee to develop competence and shall show evidence of an organized pattern of instruction consistent with principles of learning and sound educational practices.

II. What industries are affected? The proposed regulations affect general medical and surgical hospitals and renal dialysis facilities that provide training for hemodialysis technicians as health care assistants in both didactic and supervised clinical instruction.

				Average employment
SIC	DESCRIPTION	TOTAL UNITS	TOTAL EMP	Smallest 90%	Largest 10%
8062	General medi- cal & surgical hospital	146	78,593	11.07	2,027.71
8092	Kidney dialy- sis centers	17	1,303	15.50	31.50

III. What are the costs?

- A. Did you use a survey to estimate costs? Yes. The Department of Health (DOH) requested assistance from both small and large firms in determining the costs associated with the businesses.
- B. Did you use a committee to estimate costs? Yes. A member of the committee assisted in obtaining cost information from the large firms.

C. What costs of this rule are.

There are potential costs associated with the health care facility and/or health care practitioner administrative and labor costs. There may be an increase of cost for replacing individuals in a training program. There could be a reduction in cost for those individuals who have completed their training program, become certified as a health care assistant, category G, and are moving from health care facility to health care facility. There would be less of a cost associated with retaining individuals.

Large businesses may train 110 - 116 hemodialysis technician trainees per year with low turnover. Labor costs are as follows:

Nurse -	$30 per hour x 112 hours		=	$3,360
+Preceptor -	$23 per hour x 168 hours		=	$3,864
+Trainee -	$12.32 per hour x 180 hours		=	$3,450
			=	$10,674
Average employment of large businesses			÷	2,027
		Total:	=	5.26

Small businesses may train 4 - 6 hemodialysis technician trainees per year with no or low turnover. Labor costs are as follows:

Nurse -	$22 per hour x 112 hours		=	$2,464
+Preceptor -	$23 per hour x 168 hours		=	$3,864
+Trainee -	$10.80 per hour x 180 hours		=	$3,240
			=	$9,352
Average employment of small businesses			÷	11
		Total:	=	8.50

IV. Is the cost disproportionate? The rule has a disproportionate impact based on the cost per employee and DOH does have to minimize the costs.

Approximate cost per employee $5 Small Business $850

V. What cost minimizing features were included? In developing minimum training standards, DOH only considered essential functions for public protection. The training standards must apply to all individuals in the profession, chapter 18.135 RCW.

In developing core competencies, DOH provided a Hemodialysis Technicians Core Competencies Questionnaire Survey to the Hemodialysis Technicians Task Force and members of the audience during the August 24, 2001, task force meeting. By identifying the tasks frequently performed, stakeholders could identify those tasks with the greatest impact on patients.

Stakeholders were concerned that DOH should:

- 1. Not require beyond an entry-level hemodialysis technician.
- 2. Not require those tasks that will create problems due to the hemodialysis technician's practice and variability between renal dialysis centers. Example, not all facilities allow technicians to work with catheters.
- 3. Not change items related to job function and shift worked. Example, hemodialysis technicians who are on the evening shift so the day shift staff may not be trained to do that function initially may do the disinfecting of the equipment.

A survey assisted DOH in recognizing only core competencies at an entry-level would be sufficient for certification of hemodialysis.

The following alternative list of core competencies proved too burdensome beyond entry-level training in both didactic and supervised clinical instruction. DOH recognized the following functions go well beyond entry-level core competencies and were eliminated from the proposed draft rules:

VI. Any other mitigation techniques? There were no other mitigation techniques used.

VII. How will you involve small business in the rule making? During the course of rules development, DOH maintained open communication with stakeholders, such as: Hemodialysis technicians task force members, medical doctors, registered nurses, hemodialysis technicians, Washington state kidney/renal dialysis centers, educators, various related associations, the general public, and individuals credentialed under chapter 18.135 RCW. These people work in various work settings and geographic areas.

During the Hemodialysis Technicians Task Force meeting on August 24, 2001, task force members and stakeholders present at the meeting were provided with a Hemodialysis Technicians Core Competencies Questionnaire and rating scale. The purpose of the rating process was to identify tasks that are most important to include in the rules. By identifying the tasks frequently performed, stakeholders could identify those tasks with the greatest impact on patients. Program staff was also interested to know what tasks should be learned prior to credentialing and after credentialing.

Fifteen people participated in the survey. All attendees of the meeting participated in the discussion of the survey and provided recommendation of core competencies. Program staff received thirteen surveys. Program staff conducted an analysis of the survey and incorporated the most important tasks into a core competency rule.

The Department of Health received letters from ten stakeholders with comments/recommendations to the proposed draft rules. Stakeholders are in support of establishing rules that relate to entry-level hemodialysis technicians and for the rules to not go beyond entry-level. Stakeholder comments regarding clarification of specific sections to the rules and establishing rules for entry-level hemodialysis technicians were incorporated.

This collaborative effort has produced rules for health care facilities and health care practitioners for their entry-level hemodialysis technicians to obtain training in both didactic and supervised clinical instruction. The training program shall extend over a period of time sufficient to provide essential, sequenced learning experiences, which enable the trainee to develop competence and shall show evidence of an organized pattern of instruction consistent with principles of learning and sound educational practices. The rules establish training standards on the health care facilities and health care practitioners without restricting or limiting the applicant's ability to obtain certification as a health care assistant, category G.

A copy of the statement may be obtained by writing to Tracy Hansen, Program Manager, Health Care Assistants Program, P.O. Box 47869, Olympia, WA 98504-7869, phone (360) 236-4940, fax (360) 664-9484.

RCW 34.05.328 applies to this rule adoption. The rule is significant under RCW 34.05.238 because it requires persons trained by a federally approved end-stage renal disease facility who perform end-stage renal dialysis to obtain certification as a health care assistant.

PART 2 GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR CHEMIGATION OPERATIONS

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1003 What are the general requirements in performing a chemigation operation? The applicator and the chemigation system must comply with the following performance and operational requirements to protect human health and the environment. The certified applicator is responsible for safe application and for the proper operation of the chemigation equipment.

- (1) Only pesticides properly labeled for chemigation may be used.
- (2) An application system shall be operated in a manner that is consistent with the intent of the pesticide label, state pesticide rules, and this chapter and its provisions.
- (3) Substituted alternative technology not otherwise specified in this chapter must be evaluated by the department to determine if the provisions of this chapter have been fulfilled.

- (5) Pesticides shall be used or applied only by certified applicators or persons under the direct supervision of a certified applicator.
- (6) All applicable pesticide laws, in addition to those contained in this chapter, pertain to chemigation.
- (7) A chemigation system cannot draw water from any water supply unless that supply is protected from contamination. The applicator must verify that backflow cannot occur.
- (8) Intentional or unintentional application off-site is prohibited. The application must be continuously observed whenever sensitive areas are at risk of being exposed to drift, runoff, or overspray.
- (9) Pesticides cannot be applied with an open surface, gravity irrigation system unless allowed by the product label.

- (1) An application tank must:
- (a) Have the registered product label or labels (including the EPA registration number(s) and the appropriate EPA establishment number) prominently affixed to the application tank if it contains product;

NEW SECTION

- WAC 16-202-1008 What are the placement requirements for application tanks? Application tanks cannot be located in an area or placed in such a manner to contaminate water or to endanger human health, sensitive areas, or the environment.
- (1) Application tanks should be positioned down gradient from wellheads, public waterways, off-farm irrigation supply ditches or conveyance systems, or sensitive areas.
- (a) If down gradient placement is not feasible, earthen berms or other structures of sufficient design must be constructed to divert spillage, leakage, or surface flow away from such areas.
- (b) An application tank cannot be placed closer than twenty feet from wellheads, public waterways, off-farm irrigation supply ditches or conveyance systems, or sensitive areas.
- (c) Mixing or loading activities cannot occur within twenty feet of a sensitive area, wellhead, public waterway, off-farm irrigation supply ditch or conveyance system, and irrigation water source.
- (d) Alternative technology that provides substantially equal protection such as a secondary containment facility that complies with the structural design requirements in the secondary and operational area containment rules (chapter 16-229 WAC) will fulfill the requirements in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection.
- (e) Overflow from an irrigation pond contaminated with product cannot enter a public waterway, off-farm irrigation supply ditch or conveyance system, or sensitive area.
- (2) Application tanks must be positioned to prevent leaks, spills, or structural damage.
- (a) Application tanks must be placed on a rigid, sound understructure or on stable ground to prevent tippage, spillage, puncturing, or breakage.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1009 Under what conditions is an application tank exempt from secondary and operational area containment rules? Application tanks functionally connected to and dedicated solely for use with a chemigation system may be exempt from the secondary and operational area containment rules (chapter 16-229 WAC). The following conditions determine whether a tank that is a component of a chemigation system, is subject to the secondary and operational area containment rules.

- (1) Time-in-place.
- (a) Product can remain in an application tank for a period not to exceed fourteen days between chemigation applications. If the fourteen-day period is exceeded, the tank is deemed to be a storage facility and is therefore subject to the secondary and operational area containment rules.

- (b) An application tank containing product during the nonapplication or nonirrigation season is subject to the secondary and operational area containment rules regardless of tank size.
- (c) The application tank must be removed at the end of the irrigation or application season, whichever is shorter, but not to exceed nine months. At the end of this period, the application tank must be emptied, cleaned, visually inspected for integrity, and serviced. The tank must be removed from the site, or the tank must be decommissioned and clearly tagged with the words "out-of-service," or the tank must be managed as a permanent storage facility (chapter 16-229 WAC).
 - (2) Tank size.
- (a) Tanks with a rated capacity exceeding two thousand five hundred gallons are deemed a permanent storage facility.
- (b) Multiple tanks positioned at an injection site with a cumulative capacity exceeding three thousand gallons are also deemed a permanent storage facility.
- (c) Exception for soil fumigation only: Beginning at the time of tank placement, a tank with a rated capacity of eight thousand gallons or less may be placed at an injection site for fourteen days or less. However, during the fourteen-day period, the cumulative quantity of product at an injection site whether in single or multiple tanks cannot exceed six thousand five hundred gallons. The injection site shall be deemed a permanent storage facility provided, if at anytime during the fourteen-day time-in-place period, the rated capacity of an individual tank exceeds eight thousand gallons or the cumulative quantity at an injection site exceeds six thousand five hundred gallons.
 - (3) Monitoring.
- (a) Tanks containing product must be inspected at least daily or monitored with remote access volumetric measuring devices.
- (b) Tanks must be inspected each time a chemigation operation is performed.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1010 How should rinsate or backflush water from a filtration device be handled? (1) Water used to rinse, flush, or clean equipment or containers is considered rinsate. It must be applied at or below label rate to a target site or disposed of properly in accordance with chapter 173-303 WAC.

(2) Contaminated backflush water from a filtration device cannot contaminate ground water or surface water, or adversely impact sensitive areas.

PART 3 SAFETY REQUIREMENTS FOR CHEMIGATION SYSTEMS

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1011 What are the general antipollution safety device requirements for a chemigation system? All systems must have antipollution safety devices that include a backflow prevention system, metering device, injection device, and system interlock as listed on the pesticide label and contained in this rule. To prevent backflow into the irrigation water source or chemical supply system.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1012 What measures must be used to prevent backflow into the irrigation water source? Backflow prevention is a requirement on all irrigation systems used for chemigation, except when alternative technology is applied.

- (1) Pressurized irrigation system.
- (a) At least one irrigation mainline check valve must be correctly installed, properly operated, and adequately maintained to prevent contamination of the water source. The check valve must be located upstream from the injection point. The check valve must be automatic, quick-closing, and capable of forming and maintaining a watertight seal.
- (b) An inspection port or a direct access point must be positioned immediately upstream of the check valve to allow visual and manual inspection of the check valve and the low pressure drain. The inspection port or access point must have a minimum diameter of four inches. If a four-inch inspection port or access point is not feasible, an alternative access system must be devised.
- (c) An inspection port or access point is not required with an approved backflow prevention assembly.
- (d) A vacuum relief valve must be located upstream of the irrigation line check valve, installed at the top of the irrigation pipeline, and adequately sized to prevent backsiphoning. The orifice size must comply with current American Society of Agricultural Engineers (ASAE) standards.
- (e) An automatic low pressure drain or similar mechanism must be placed upstream of the irrigation line check valve and at the lowest point in the bottom of the pipeline. The low pressure drain must be of adequate size and properly positioned to intercept and purge leakage away from the water source.
- (f) Product-treated water cannot be discharged through a water outtake.
 - (2) Nonpressurized water delivery system.
- (a) An open surface water delivery system cannot be used for product application unless allowed by the label.
- (b) System design must prevent the introduction of treated water into the water source.
- (c) Backflow prevention may be achieved with a hydraulic discontinuity in source water flow or by a sufficient hydraulic gradient.
- (d) Backflow devices for nonpressurized systems may include a weir box, drop structure, ASAE approved air gap, batch tank, or similar device that can function to prevent backflow into the source water.
- (e) Injection must occur downstream from the water diversion point.
- (3) Cross-connection to municipal or public water system.

Backflow prevention devices must be approved by the Washington state department of health in accordance with WAC 246-290-490.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1013 What alternative methods may be used to prevent backflow into the irrigation water source? The application of alternative technology in achieving backflow prevention must be accomplished either by a backflow system or by system design to fulfill the provisions of this chapter. The operator must be able to demonstrate that backflow cannot occur. Alternative technology must provide substantially equal or greater protection than the provisions of this chapter.

- (1) System design.
- (a) If a system's configuration will provide substantially equal or greater protection due to the physical laws of gravity and water hydraulics, components of a backflow prevention system may be waived by the department.
 - (2) Barometric pipe loop.
- (a) Barometric loops can only be used on systems pumping from a surface water source.
- (b) The barometric pipe loop must be located in the main water line immediately downstream of the irrigation water pump.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1014 What are the prevention requirements for backflow into or seepage from application tanks? All irrigation and injection systems used for chemigation must prevent backflow into the application tank. Leakage or siphonage from the application tank through the injection system into the irrigation system must also be prevented.

- (1) Injection into a pressurized section of an irrigation system must include:
- (a) An automatic, quick-acting injection line check valve must be used to prevent leakage from the application tank into irrigation water and to prevent irrigation water from entering the chemical injection line. The injection line check valve must maintain, at a minimum, 10 psi opening (cracking) pressure or adequate opening pressure to prevent gravity flow due to hydraulic head pressure from the application tank. The check valve must be located at the point of product injection into the irrigation water; and
- (b) Where siphon action induced by an irrigation system could compromise the cracking (opening) pressure of an injection line check valve, a vacuum relief valve must be installed in the irrigation line downstream of the injection point. The orifice size must comply with current American Society of Agricultural Engineers (ASAE) standards.

[19] Permanent

- (2) Injection into nonpressurized (e.g., open surface, gated pipe, or spigotted pipe) portion of irrigation system must include a hydraulic discontinuity in source water flow or a sufficient hydraulic gradient such that chemicals or treated water cannot contaminate the water source. Backflow devices for nonpressurized systems may include a weir box, drop structure, air gap, batch tank, or similar device whose intended function is to prevent backflow into the application tank.
 - (3) Venturi or other passive injection systems.
- (a) If backpressure or backsiphonage can occur, the chemical injection line must contain an automatic, quick-closing check valve. The valve must be located immediately adjacent to the chemical inlet side of the venturi.
- (b) If product can potentially siphon or seep into the water supply, the chemical injection line must contain a normally closed solenoid operative valve connected to the system interlock, or a normally closed hydraulically operated valve that opens only when the main water line is adequately pressurized. The valve must be installed adjacent to the product outlet on the application tank.
- (c) With a bypass system, as an alternative to (a) and (b) of this subsection, the automatic, quick-closing check valve may be installed in the bypass immediately upstream of the venturi water inlet. In addition, either the normally closed solenoid or the hydraulic solenoid may be installed immediately downstream of the venturi water outlet.
- (d) Bypass systems with a booster pump must have the normally closed solenoid interlocked with the source pump for the irrigation system.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1015 What alternative methods may be used to prevent backflow into or seepage from application tanks? Alternative technology used for backflow prevention must be accomplished by system design to fulfill the provisions of this chapter.

- (b) A normally closed solenoid must be installed immediately adjacent to the product outlet on the application tank. If electric, it must be interlocked with the injection pump or, if hydraulic, with the irrigation system.
- (c) In place of (b) of this subsection, a normally open valve must be located in the chemical injection line between the application tank and a positive displacement injection pump as described in subsection (1)(a) of this section. This alternative cannot be used with venturi injection systems.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1016 What are the requirements for metering devices? Metering devices must be capable of being accurately calibrated. Metering devices must control the rate of product injection into irrigation water and discontinue product delivery when the predetermined application quantity has been dispensed. All metering systems must be functionally interlocked with the source irrigation pump or irrigation water distribution system.

- (1) Injecting product with a pressurized metering pump.
- (a) The metering pump must be of a positive displacement design.
- (b) Water-powered injection pumps can only be used when no other power source is available to operate the injection unit.

- (2) Injection into nonpressurized section of an irrigation system.
- (a) An open surface water delivery system cannot be used for product application unless allowed by the label.
- (b) Application rate may be accomplished with an adjustable valve, flow control device, or other metering mechanism as allowed by the pesticide label.
- (c) The metering device must also control application quantity by employing a slide metering device or by placing a predetermined quantity into a batch tank.
 - (3) Venturi system as a metering device.
- (a) A venturi system may be used as a metering device, except where variable pressure may contribute to a variable injection rate.
- (b) The chemical injection line must contain either a normally closed, solenoid-operated valve connected to the system interlock or a normally closed hydraulically operated valve that opens only when the main water line is adequately pressurized. The valve must be placed on the intake side of the injection pump, immediately adjacent to the application tank.
- (c) The chemical injection line between the application tank and the venturi must contain an automatic, quick-closing check valve to prevent the flow of liquid back toward the application tank. This check valve must be placed immediately adjacent to the venturi chemical inlet.

- (2) Injection into nonpressurized section of an irrigation system.
- (a) If injection occurs in a nonpressurized portion of the irrigation system, an air gap or other hydraulic discontinuity must exist between the pressurized or nonpressurized irrigation water source and the point of product injection.
- (b) When an air gap is used in conjunction with a public water supply, injection may only occur downstream of the air gap.
 - (3) Venturi systems.
- (a) The chemical injection line must contain either a normally closed solenoid-operated valve connected to the system interlock or a normally closed hydraulically operated valve that opens only when the main water line is adequately pressurized. The valve must be placed on the intake side of the injection pump, immediately adjacent to the application tank.
- (b) The chemical injection line between the application tank and the metering device must contain an automatic, quick-closing check valve. The check valve must be placed immediately adjacent to the venturi chemical inlet.

- (a) The chemical injection line must contain either a normally closed solenoid-operated valve connected to the system interlock or a normally closed hydraulically operated valve that opens only when the main water line is adequately pressurized. A normally closed, solenoid-operated valve must be placed on the intake side of the injection pump, immediately adjacent to the application tank.
- (b) The chemical injection line between the application tank and the metering device must contain an automatic, quick-closing check valve to prevent the flow of liquid back toward the application tank. The check valve must be placed immediately adjacent to the venturi chemical inlet.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1020 What are the requirements for a system interlock? A system interlock must automatically shut off the injection system if the irrigation pump stops operating or if variation in water flow adversely affects product injection rate or product distribution uniformity. The operator must be able to demonstrate that backflow cannot occur.

- (1) Pressurized injection systems or injection into a pressurized portion of the irrigation system requires either an electrical, hydraulic, or mechanical system interlock device.
- (2) When the injection point is at a nonpressurized section of an irrigation water distribution system, an interlock mechanism must discontinue product delivery in the event that water flow is interrupted or sufficiently reduced such that product application is adversely impacted to the target site. Furthermore, treated water cannot enter waters of the state.

- (3) With venturi systems.
- (a) Booster or auxiliary water pumps must be connected with the system interlock such that when pressure in the mainline changes to the point where product distribution is adversely affected automatic shutoff of product supply will occur.
- (b) The supply line must contain either a normally closed solenoid-operated valve connected to the system interlock or a normally closed hydraulically operated valve that opens only when the main water line is adequately pressurized. If a booster or auxiliary pump is used in conjunction with a venturi system, the normally closed solenoid must be electrically interlocked with the source pump for the irrigation system.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1021 What alternative methods can be used as a system interlock? Alternative technology used as a system interlock must fulfill the provisions of this chapter.

- (1) A person may not serve as a human interlock.
- (2) Solenoid and check valve.
- (a) The chemical injection line must contain either a normally closed solenoid-operated valve connected to the system interlock or a normally closed hydraulically operated valve that opens only when the main water line is adequately pressurized. A normally closed, solenoid-operated valve must be placed on the intake side of the injection pump, immediately adjacent to the application tank.
- (b) The chemical injection line between the application tank and the metering device must contain an automatic, quick-closing check valve to prevent the flow of liquid back toward the application tank. The check valve must be placed immediately adjacent to the venturi chemical inlet.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1022 What is an appropriate monitoring schedule? (1) A chemigation application must be visually inspected by a certified applicator or someone under his or her direct supervision at least once during each four-hour period, unless the pesticide label requires a more frequent interval. Specific applications due to location or product characteristics may require more frequent monitoring.

(2) The certified applicator is considered principally responsible to ensure that the chemigation system functions properly and conforms with the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-1023 Public water system cross-connections or connections to a potable water supply intended for human use. (1) If the irrigation system is cross-connected to a public water system, Washington state department of health (DOH) rules (WAC 246-290-490) apply to backflow prevention.

(2) Cross-connections of a chemigation system to any potable water system intended for human use must have either a department of health-approved reduced pressure backflow assembly or reduced pressure detector assembly installed for backflow prevention. Otherwise, a physical separation in the form of an air gap may be used to protect the water source.

PART 4 PENALTIES AND PENALTY ASSIGNMENT SCHEDULE

NEW SECTION

- WAC 16-202-2003 What are the general requirements in performing a fertigation operation? The applicator and fertigation system must comply with the following performance requirements to protect human health, source water, and the environment. The fertigation operator is responsible for safe application and for the proper operation of the fertigation equipment.
- (1) A fertigation system must be designed, constructed, installed, operated, and maintained in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.
- (2) Substituted alternative technology not otherwise identified in this chapter must be evaluated by the department to determine if the provisions of this chapter have been fulfilled.
- (3) All commercial fertilizers used for fertigation must meet Washington state fertilizer standards. This does not prohibit fertigation systems from being used to apply other - products such as reclaimed water, animal effluent, or similar substances provided that the appropriate antipollution devices are present and the provisions of this law are met.

- (4) During a fertigation application, an irrigation system and injection system are considered one unit, and the applicator is responsible for their proper operation.
- (5) All applicable fertilizer laws, in addition to those contained in this chapter, pertain to fertigation.
- (6) A fertigation system cannot draw water from any water supply unless that supply is protected from contamination. The fertigation operator must verify that backflow cannot occur.
- (7) The application must be continuously monitored whenever sensitive areas are at risk of being exposed to drift, runoff, or overspray.
- (8) All fertigation systems and system components must allow for adequate visual, physical, and manual inspection.
- (9) A fertigation system must be flushed out and rinsed off after an application.
- (10) All components must be chemically compatible with injected materials, water containing injected materials, and system pressure.
- (11) Equipment must be calibrated and maintained in a manner to prevent misapplication or off-site application of any product.
- (12) Safety devices and injection equipment must be installed, operated, and maintained in accordance with the manufacturer's specifications, established industry standards, and department rule.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-2005 What are the placement requirements for application tanks? Application tanks cannot be located in an area or placed in such a manner to contaminate water or to endanger human health, sensitive areas, or the environment.

- (1) Application tanks should be positioned downgradient from wellheads, public waterways, off-farm irrigation supply ditches or conveyance systems, or sensitive areas.
- (a) If downgradient placement is not feasible, earthen berms or other structures of sufficient design must be constructed to divert spillage, leakage, or surface flow away from such areas.
- (b) An application tank cannot be placed closer than twenty feet from wellheads, public waterways, off-farm irrigation supply ditches or conveyance systems, or sensitive areas.
- (c) Mixing or loading activities cannot occur within twenty feet of a sensitive area, wellhead, public waterway, off-farm irrigation supply ditch or conveyance system, and irrigation water source.
- (d) Alternative technology that provides substantially equal protection such as a secondary containment facility that complies with the structural design requirements in the secondary and operational area containment rules (chapter 16-201 WAC) will fulfill the requirements in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection.

Permanent [24]

- (e) Overflow from an irrigation pond contaminated with product cannot enter a public waterway, off-farm irrigation supply ditch or conveyance system, or sensitive area.
- (2) Application tanks must be positioned to prevent leaks, spills, or structural damage.
- (a) Application tanks must be placed on a rigid, sound understructure or on stable ground to prevent tippage, spillage, puncturing, or breakage.
- (b) Application tanks and the injection system must be protected against reasonably foreseeable risks of damage by implements, trucks or other moving vehicles, or objects.
- (3) Application tanks should be sited as close as reasonably possible to the injection point.
- (4) Tank outlet ports must be fitted with manual shutoff valves.

NEW SECTION

WAC 16-202-2006 Under what conditions is an application tank exempt from the secondary and operational area containment rules? Application tanks functionally connected to and dedicated solely for use with a fertigation operation may be exempt from the secondary and operational area containment rules (chapter 16-201 WAC). The following conditions determine whether a tank that is a component of a fertigation system is subject to the secondary and operational area containment rules.

- (1) Time-in-place.
- (a) Product can remain in an application tank for a period not to exceed nine consecutive months during an irrigation or application season. If the nine-month period is exceeded, the tank is deemed a storage facility and is therefore subject to the secondary and operational area containment rules.
- (b) An application tank containing product during the nonapplication or nonirrigation season is subject to the secondary and operational area containment rules regardless of tank size.
- (c) The application tank must be removed at the end of the irrigation or application season, whichever is shorter, but not to exceed nine months. At the end of this period, the application tank must be emptied, cleaned, visually inspected for integrity, and serviced. The tank must be removed from the site, or the tank must be decommissioned and clearly tagged with the words "out-of-service," or the tank must be managed as a permanent storage facility (chapter 16-201 WAC).
 - (2) Tank size.
- (a) An application tank must have a rated capacity of six thousand five hundred gallons or less.
- (b) An application tank with a rated capacity exceeding six thousand five hundred gallons is deemed a permanent storage facility.
- (c) Multiple tanks positioned at an injection site with a cumulative capacity exceeding ten thousand gallons are also deemed a permanent fertilizer storage facility.
- (d) Cumulative tank capacity cannot exceed ten thousand gallons per application system.
 - (3) Monitoring.
- (a) Tanks containing product must be inspected at least every seven days.

(b) Tanks must be inspected each time a fertigation operation is performed.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 99-09-054, filed 4/19/99, effective 6/1/99)

WAC 388-450-0050 How are your cash assistance and food assistance benefits determined when you are participating in the community jobs (CJ) program? (1) When you work in the community jobs (CJ) program, you get part of your money from the job and part as a TANF grant. The department estimates your total monthly income from your ((eommunity jobs ())CJ(())) position based on the number of hours you, your case manager and the CJ contractor expect you to work for the month ((multiplied)). We multiply the number of hours by the federal or state minimum wage, whichever is higher, to get your monthly income.

WSR 01-23-054 PERMANENT RULES GAMBLING COMMISSION

[Filed November 20, 2001, 8:47 a.m., effective January 1, 2002]

Date of Adoption: November 15, 2001.

Purpose: Under current rules, raffle licensees may request approval from commission staff to sell tickets at a discount when tickets are bundled together and licensees may also utilize alternative drawing formats (such as a duck race) to determine raffle winners. Raffle licensees must obtain staff approval each and every time a discount scheme or alternative drawing format is utilized. The amendment eliminates the need for subsequent approval once a discount scheme or alternative drawing format has been approved. Licensees may offer the discount scheme or alternative drawing format again, as long as it is identical to what was previously approved and the organization has a current raffle license. This amendment saves staff time by eliminating repetitive approval of alternative drawing formats and discount schemes when they are identical in nature.

Citation of Existing Rules Affected by this Order: Amending WAC 230-20-325 and 230-20-335.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 9.46.070.

WSR 01-23-056 PERMANENT RULES GAMBLING COMMISSION

[Filed November 20, 2001, 8:51 a.m., effective January 1, 2002]

Date of Adoption: November 15, 2001.

Purpose: After reviewing the agency's budget, staff determined that a fee increase of 2.79% was needed to cover budget requirements. This increase is in accordance with the limitations set forth in Initiative 601. The CR-102 filing listed two alternatives: One raised fees for all licensees; the second alternative raised fees for commercial licensees, however, fees for charitable and nonprofit licensees were not raised. Both Alternative #1 and #2 listed FRE licensing fees as set forth in staff's alternative to Mr. Walker's petition for rule change, which was held over from the August meeting so it could be incorporated in WAC 230-04-202. This allowed all changes to be made to WAC 230-04-202 at one time, rather than adopting an amendment in August and possibly again in November.

At the November commission meeting, the commission adopted the second alternative, which raised fees for commercial operators and did not raise fees for charitable and nonprofit licensees.

Citation of Existing Rules Affected by this Order: Amending WAC 230-04-202, 230-04-203, 230-04-204, and 230-08-017.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 9.46.070.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 00-11-060, filed 5/12/00, effective 7/1/00)

WAC 296-17-90409 I understand that there are specific prerequisites that an organization must meet to sponsor a new retrospective rating group plan. Can you tell me what these requirements are? Yes. Before we can consider an organization's request to sponsor a new retrospective rating group plan they must meet all the following requirements:

(1) The sponsoring organization must have been in existence for at least four years prior to sponsoring a retrospective rating group.

- (a) To validate this, the sponsoring organization must provide the department with copies of its articles of incorporation, bylaws and marketing/membership applications or similar material, accompanied with an affidavit certifying that the documents are true and the information contained in the documents is accurate as of the date of submittal.
- (b) The department will verify this information through contacts with various state, local and federal agencies and other businesses.
- (2) The sponsoring organization must have been formed for purposes other than that of obtaining or offering insurance coverage or insurance services described in WAC 296-17-90408.
- (3) Employer members of the proposed retrospective rating group must be dues paying members of the organization. We recognize that some organizations may be funded through member donations and not dues. The intent of this requirement is to ensure that the members of the organization are current members as opposed to potential members. Where an organization's members do not pay dues the organization must provide a list of its current members and a written explanation of how member contributions are determined.
- (a) An organization seeking to sponsor a group retrospective rating plan must submit a ((eomplete)) list of its current ((membership)) members that want to participate in the organization's group plan to the department ((that details)). The membership list must include the effective date of membership ((accompanied with)) for each proposed member and an affidavit signed by an officer of the sponsoring organization certifying the list to be true and accurate as of the date of submittal.
- (b) Each employer member who wants to participate in the organization's retrospective rating group plan must have an industrial insurance account in good standing with the department.
- (c) Each employer member who wants to participate in the proposed sponsoring organization's retrospective rating group must provide us with a written request/release. This is to be done on a form provided by the sponsoring organization and approved by the department. Sample forms can be found in Appendix A of this manual. Completion and submission of this application to the department signifies the employer's desire to participate in the organization's retrospective rating group if it is approved. The proposed retrospective rating group membership list must be submitted with the group application of the organization and the other material listed in this section.
- (d) All employers in the retrospective rating group must be members of the sponsoring entity.
- (e) Fifty percent of the members of the proposed retrospective rating group must have been members of the sponsoring organization for one year prior to the group's entrance into the retrospective rating program. We will verify this from the membership information provided to the department in (a) of this subsection.
- (4) The sponsoring organization must have an industrial insurance account and the account must be in good standing at all times, including the application process and the coverage and adjustment periods.

- (5) The initial premium level of the proposed retrospective rating group must be at least one million five hundred thousand dollars. This will be based on the standard premium of the proposed group members' most current fiscal year (four quarters) of reporting.
- (6) The requirements contained in this rule are in addition to any other requirements contained in the retrospective rating manual such as those found in WAC 296-17-90412(2) applicable to an annual safety report and WAC 296-17-90421(2) applicable to selection of an industry group by the sponsoring organization.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 00-11-060, filed 5/12/00, effective 7/1/00)

WAC 296-17-90421 Is there a requirement for employer members of an organization to be engaged in substantially similar businesses to participate in the organization's group plan? (1) Yes, Washington law (RCW 51.18.040) requires all retrospective rating groups to be made up of employer members who are engaged in substantially similar business operations when the nature of their services or work activities of employees is considered.

(2) The first step in this process is for the sponsoring organization to select the single retrospective rating group it wishes to sponsor. This is done at the time the application for group is submitted to the department from the broad industry or business category from the table below:

Industry/business group table

- Agriculture and related services.
- Automotive, truck and boat, manufacturing, sales, repair and related services.
- Construction and related services.
- Distillation, chemicals, food and related services.
- Entertainment, hospitality and related services.
- Facilities, property management, maintenance and related services.
- Government, utilities, schools, healthcare and related services.
- Grocery stores, grocery distribution centers, bakeries, milk and dairy products processing, delivery to customers and related services.
- Healthcare, pharmaceutical, laboratories and related services
- Logging and wood products manufacturing and related services.
- Manufacturing, processing, mining, quarrying, and related services.
- Retail and wholesale stores and professional services such as banks and law firms and related services.
- Temporary help and related services.
- Transportation, recycle, warehousing, facility maintenance and related services.

The intent of this process is to ensure that the homogeneity requirement of RCW 51.18.040 is met.

Example: An organization that was formed to advance the interests of apple growers would select the agriculture and related services business/industry group plan. This organization could sponsor a single group for all its grower members or could offer different performance groups for its grower members.

(3) To simplify administration and keep the administrative costs associated with devising a different classification system for the retrospective rating plan to a minimum, the retrospective rating program follows the same classification procedure established by the department to assign workers' compensation insurance classifications to an employer (WAC 296-17-31012). This procedure requires employers to be assigned a classification or series of classifications based on the nature of their business, not the occupations or duties of the workers they employ. Only those members whose business undertakings are substantially similar to the industry/business group selected by the organization will be permitted to participate. This grouping technique is fundamental to workers' compensation insurance and is referred to as "homogeneity of risk."

Example: Having selected the agriculture and related services business/industry grouping the department would verify that the employer members of the apple grower organization were either apple growers or were involved in a related service such as an apple processing operation owned by the grower.

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-17-90447 How are third-party, second injury, and occupational disease claims handled for retrospective premium calculations? (1) Third-party claims.

- (a) For claims with injury dates prior to July 1, 1996, a potential claim cost recovery from action against a third party, either by the injured worker or by the department, shall not be considered in the evaluation of incurred losses until the third party action has been completed.
- (b) For claims with injury dates on or after July 1, 1996, if the department determines that there is a reasonable potential of recovery from an action against a third party, the incurred loss value of the claim shall be reduced by fifty percent until the third-party action has been completed. This valuation shall not be retroactively adjusted, regardless of the final outcome of the third-party action. After a third-party recovery is made, the actual percentage recovery shall be applied to the incurred losses used in future retrospective premium calculations.
- (c) For third-party actions completed on or after July 1, 1996, the claim shall be credited with the department's gross share of the recovery, before deducting attorney fees and costs.
- (2) Second injury claims. The incurred losses of any claim that becomes eligible for second injury relief under the provisions of RCW 51.16.120 shall be reduced by the percentage of relief granted.
- (3) Occupational disease claims. When a claim results from a worker's exposure to an occupational disease hazard, the "date of injury" for retrospective rating purposes shall be the last date of employment involving the exposure to the hazard. In the event it is determined that the last exposure to an occupational disease hazard involves a state fund insured employer the department will prorate the cost of the claim to all state fund employers that exposed the worker to the occupational disease hazard that contributed to the injury. The date of last employment involving exposure to the occupational disease hazard shall be used for the injury date for retrospective premium calculations. Any employer charged with ten percent or more of an occupational disease claim as provided in our experience rating plan (chapter 296-17 WAC) will have their prorated share of the incurred losses included in the retro premium calculation if the date of injury (as defined above) falls within the retro coverage period being adjusted.

[43] Permanent

(4) Incurred losses determined in subsections (1) through (3) of this section are still subject to development for retrospective premium calculations per the provisions of WAC 296-17-90401 through 296-17-90497.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 99-18-068, filed 8/31/99, effective 10/1/99)

WAC 296-17-31013 Building construction. (1) Does this same classification approach apply to building and construction contractors?

Yes, but it may not appear that way without further explanation. We classify contractors by phase and type of construction since it is common for each contract to vary in scope.

Example: A contractor who builds and remodels private residences may frame the structure and work on no other phases of the project. On another job the same contractor may do only the interior finish carpentry. On still another job the contractor may install a wood deck or build a garden arbor. Each of these carpentry activities is covered by a different classification code. To ensure that contractor businesses receive the same treatment as other businesses, we assign classifications according to the phases and types of construction they contract to perform. Since some contractors specialize in one area of construction, such as plumbing, roofing, insulation, or electrical services, this classification approach mirrors that of nonbuilding contractor businesses. The policy of assigning several basic classifications to contractors engaged in multiple phases of construction may seem to be in conflict with the classification approach used for nonbuilding contractor businesses, but we have simply used the multiple business classification approach.

If we have assigned multiple classifications to your construction business you should take special care in maintaining the records required in the auditing and recordkeeping section of this manual. If we discover that you have failed to keep the required records we will assign all worker hours for which the records were not maintained to the highest rated classification applicable to the work that was performed.

(2) Who does this rule apply to?

If you are a building, construction or erection contractor and we have assigned one or more of the following classifications to your business, this rule applies to you: 0101, 0103, 0104, 0105, 0107, 0108, 0201, 0202, 0210, 0212, 0214, 0217, 0219, 0301, 0302, 0303, 0306, 0307, 0403, 0502, 0504, 0506, 0507, 0508, 0509, 0510, 0511, 0512, 0513, 0514, 0516, 0517, 0518, 0519, 0521, ((0524, 0526, 0527, 0528, 0529, 0530, 0531, 0532, 0533, 0534)) 0540, 0541, 0550, 0551, 0601, 0602, 0603, 0607, 0608, and 0701.

(3) Can I have a single classification assigned to my business to cover a specific construction project?

Yes, to simplify recordkeeping and reporting requirements we will assign a single classification to cover an entire project.

(4) How do I request the single classification for one of my construction projects?

You should send your request to the attention of your policy manager at the address below:

Department of Labor and Industries P.O. Box 44144 Olympia, Washington 98504-4144

(5) If I have asked for a single classification on one of my construction projects, how do you determine which classification will apply?

You must supply us with a description of the project and a break down of the total number of hours of exposure by phase of construction that you are responsible for.

Example: You notify us that your company will be responsible for all plumbing and iron erection work on a commercial building site. You have requested a single classification for this project. In your request you tell us that you estimate that it will take one thousand work hours to perform all the plumbing work and five hundred work hours to do the steel erection work.

With this information we will estimate the premiums by classification.

Example: We determine that the plumbing work is covered under classification 0306 and the steel erection work is covered under classification 0518. Assume that classification 0306 has an hourly premium rate of $1.50 and classification 0518 has an hourly premium rate of $2.55. We estimate the total premium on this job to be $2,775 (1,000 hours x $1.50 = $1,500 + 500 hours x $2.55 = $1,275).

Our next step in this process is to develop an average hourly rate for the project. We will use this information to select the single classification which will apply to this project.

Example: We will take the estimated premium ($2,775) and divide this number by the estimated hours (1,500) and arrive at an average hourly rate of $1.85.

To select the single classification that will apply to a construction project, we will compare the average hourly rate that we have computed to the rates of the classifications applicable to the project. We will select the classification whose hourly rate is the closest to the average hourly rate that we computed from the information you supplied us with.

Example: From the information you supplied, we have determined that the average hourly rate for this project is $1.85. We also know that the rate for the plumbing classification (0306) is $1.50 per hour and the rate for steel erection is $2.55 per hour. We would assign classification 0306 as the single classification applicable to this project.

(6) How will I know what classification will apply to my construction project?

We will send you a written notice which will specify the basic classification and premium rate that will apply to this project.

(7) If I have asked for a single classification to cover one of my construction projects, am I required to use the single classification which you gave me?

No, but you should call your policy manager to verify what other classifications would apply to the project. The name and phone number of your policy manager can be found on your quarterly premium report or your annual rate notice. For your convenience you can call us at (360) 902-4817 and we will put you in contact with your assigned policy manager.

(8) I am a general construction or erection contractor, I subcontract all my work and have no employees of my own. Do I have to report to the department of labor and industries?

No, since you do not have employees, you do not need to report to the department of labor and industries. You should be aware that the workers' compensation insurance laws of Washington include certain independent contractors as workers. If we determine that an independent contractor that you used qualifies as a covered worker, you will be responsible for the premium due for their work time. You can also be held responsible for premiums due to labor and industries if you subcontract with an unregistered contractor and they fail to pay premiums on behalf of their employees. It is in your best interest to make sure that your subcontractors are registered contractors by contacting us at 1-800-647-0982.

(9) Am I required to keep any special records of subcontractors that I use?

Yes, you are required to keep certain information about the subcontractors that you use. The information required is:

- Subcontractor's legal name;
- Contractor registration number and expiration date;
- UBI number (or labor and industries account ID number).

If you supply materials to a subcontractor, also keep a record of the:

- Amount of material supplied;
- Project name or location;
- Date material was supplied; and
- Completion date of contracted work.

Failure to maintain these records may result in the subcontractor being considered a covered worker for whom you must report hours.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 99-18-068, filed 8/31/99, effective 10/1/99)

WAC 296-17-35203 Special reporting instruction. (1) Professional and semiprofessional athletic teams. Athletes assigned to a Washington-domiciled sports team are mandatorily covered by Washington industrial insurance: Provided, That a professional athlete who is under contract with a parent team domiciled outside of the state of Washington while assigned to a team domiciled within Washington is subject to mandatory coverage by Washington industrial insurance unless the player and employer (parent team) have agreed in writing as to which state shall provide coverage in accordance with RCW 51.12.120(5).

The following rules shall apply to the written agreement:

- (a) Agreement must be in writing and signed by the employer and the individual athlete.
- (b) Agreement must specify the state that is to provide coverage. The state agreed upon to provide coverage must be a state in which the player's team, during the course of the season, will engage in an athletic event. For example, if the Washington-based team is a part of a league with teams in only Washington, Oregon, and Idaho, the player and the employer can agree to any of those three states to provide coverage. However, they could not agree to have California provide the coverage as this would not qualify as a state in which the player regularly performs assigned duties.

[45] Permanent

- (c) The state agreed upon accepts responsibility for providing coverage and acknowledges such to the department by certified mail.
- (d) Agreement and certification by the other state must be received by this department's underwriting section prior to any injury incurred by the athlete.
- (e) Agreement will be for one season only commencing with the assigning of the player to a particular team. A separate agreement and certification must be on file for each additional season.

Failure to meet all of these requirements will result in the athlete being considered a Washington worker for premium and benefit purposes until such time as all requirements have been met.

Professional sports teams who are domiciled outside the state of Washington and who participate in sporting events with Washington-domiciled teams are not subject to Washington industrial insurance for their team members while in this state. These out-of-state teams are not considered employers subject to Title 51 on the basis that they are not conducting a business within this state.

- (2) Excluded employments. Any employer having any person in their employ excluded from industrial insurance whose application for coverage under the elective adoption provisions of RCW 51.12.110 or authority of RCW 51.12.095 or 51.32.030 has been accepted by the director shall report and pay premium on the actual hours worked for each such person who is paid on an hourly, salaried-part time, percentage of profit or piece basis; or one hundred sixty hours per month for any such person paid on a salary basis employed full time. In the event records disclosing actual hours worked are not maintained by the employer for any person paid on an hourly, salaried-part time, percentage of profits or piece basis the worker hours of such person shall be determined by dividing the gross wages of such person by the state minimum wage for the purpose of premium calculation. However, when applying the state minimum wage the maximum number of hours assessed for a month will be one hundred sixty.
- (3) Special trucking industry rules. The following subsection shall apply to all trucking industry employers as applicable.
- (a) Insurance liability. Every trucking industry employer operating as an intrastate carrier or a combined intrastate and interstate carrier must insure their workers' compensation insurance liability through the Washington state fund or be self-insured with the state of Washington.

Washington employers operating exclusively in interstate or foreign commerce or any combination of interstate and foreign commerce must insure their workers' compensation insurance liability for their Washington employees with the Washington state fund, be self-insured with the state of Washington, or provide workers' compensation insurance for their Washington employees under the laws of another state when such other state law provides for such coverage.

Interstate or foreign commerce trucking employers who insure their workers' compensation insurance liability under the laws of another state must provide the department with copies of their current policy and applicable endorsements upon request.

Employers who elect to insure their workers' compensation insurance liability under the laws of another state and who fail to provide updated policy information when requested to do so will be declared an unregistered employer and subject to all the penalties contained in Title 51 RCW.

(b) Reporting. Trucking industry employers insuring their workers' compensation insurance liability with the Washington state fund shall keep and preserve all original time records/books including supporting information from drivers' logs for a period of three calendar years plus three months.

Employers are to report actual hours worked, including time spent loading and unloading trucks, for each driver in their employ. For purposes of this section, actual hours worked does not include time spent during lunch or rest periods or overnight lodging.

Failure of employers to keep accurate records of actual hours worked by their employees will result in the department estimating work hours by dividing gross payroll wages by the state minimum wage for each worker for whom records were not kept. However, in no case will the estimated or actual hours to be reported exceed five hundred twenty hours per calendar quarter for each worker.

- (c) Exclusions. Trucking industry employers meeting all of the following conditions are exempted from mandatory coverage.
- (i) Must be engaged exclusively in interstate or foreign commerce.
- (ii) Must have elected to cover their Washington workers on a voluntary basis under the Washington state fund and must have elected such coverage in writing on forms provided by the department.
- (iii) After having elected coverage, withdrew such coverage in writing to the department on or before January 2, 1987.

If all the conditions set forth in (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subsection have not been met, employers must insure their workers' compensation insurance liability with the Washington state fund or under the laws of another state.

- (d) Definitions. For purposes of interpretation of RCW 51.12.095(1) and administration of this section, the following terms shall have the meanings given below:
- (i) "Agents" means individuals hired to perform services for the interstate or foreign commerce carrier that are intended to be carried out by the individual and not contracted out to others but does not include owner operators as defined in RCW 51.12.095(1).
- (ii) "Contacts" means locations at which freight, merchandise, or goods are picked up or dropped off within the boundaries of this state.
- (iii) "Doing business" means having any terminals, agents or contacts within the boundaries of this state.
- (iv) "Employees" means the same as the term "worker" as contained in RCW 51.08.180.
- (v) "Terminals" means a physical location wherein the business activities (operations) of the trucking company are conducted on a routine basis. Terminals will generally include loading or shipping docks, warehouse space, dispatch offices and may also include administrative offices.

Permanent [46]

- (vi) "Washington" shall be used to limit the scope of the term "employees." When used with the term "employees" it will require the following test for benefit purposes (all conditions must be met).
- The individual must be hired in Washington or must have been transferred to Washington; and
- The individual must perform some work in Washington (i.e., driving, loading, or unloading trucks).
- (4) Forest, range, or timber land services—Industry rule. Washington law (RCW 51.48.030) requires every employer to make, keep, and preserve records which are adequate to facilitate the determination of premiums (taxes) due to the state for workers' compensation insurance coverage for their covered workers. In the administration of Title 51 RCW, and as it pertains to the forest, range, or timber land services industry, the department of labor and industries has deemed the records and information required in the various subsections of this section to be essential in the determination of premiums (taxes) due to the state fund. The records so specified and required, shall be provided at the time of audit to any representative of the department who has requested them.

Failure to produce these required records within thirty days of the request, or within an agreed upon time period, shall constitute noncompliance of this rule and RCW 51.48.030 and 51.48.040. Employers whose premium computations are made by the department in accordance with (d) of this subsection are barred from questioning, in an appeal before the board of industrial insurance appeals or the courts, the correctness of any assessment by the department on any period for which such records have not been kept, preserved, or produced for inspection as provided by law.

- (a) General definitions. For purpose of interpretation of this section, the following terms shall have the meanings given below:
- (i) "Actual hours worked" means each workers' composite work period beginning with the starting time of day that the employees' work day commenced, and includes the entire work period, excluding any nonpaid lunch period, and ending with the quitting time each day work was performed by the employee.
- (ii) "Work day" shall mean any consecutive twenty-four-hour period.
- (b) Employment records. Every employer shall with respect to each worker, make, keep, and preserve original records containing all of the following information for three full calendar years following the calendar year in which the employment occurred:
 - (i) The name of each worker;
 - (ii) The Social Security number of each worker;
- (iii) The beginning date of employment for each worker and, if applicable, the separation date of employment for each such worker;
- (iv) The basis upon which wages are paid to each worker;
- (v) The number of units earned or produced for each worker paid on a piece-work basis;
 - (vi) The risk classification(s) applicable to each worker;

- (vii) The number of actual hours worked by each worker, unless another basis of computing hours worked is prescribed in WAC 296-17-31021. For purposes of chapter 296-17 WAC, this record must clearly show, by work day, the time of day the employee commenced work, and the time of day work ended;
- (viii) A summary time record for each worker showing the calendar day or days of the week work was performed and the actual number of hours worked each work day;
- (ix) In the event a single worker's time is divided between two or more risk classifications, the summary contained in (b)(viii) of this subsection shall be further broken down to show the actual hours worked in each risk classification for the worker:
 - (x) The workers' total gross pay period earnings;
- (xi) The specific sums withheld from the earnings of each worker, and the purpose of each sum withheld;
 - (xii) The net pay earned by each such worker.
- (c) Business, financial records, and record retention. Every employer is required to keep and preserve all original time records completed by their employees for a three-year period. The three-year period is specified in WAC 296-17-352 as the composite period from the date any such premium became due.

Employers who pay their workers by check are required to keep and preserve a record of all check registers and cancelled checks; and employers who pay their workers by cash are required to keep and preserve records of these cash transactions which provide a detailed record of wages paid to each worker.

- (d) Recordkeeping estimated premium computation. Any employer required by this section to make, keep, and preserve records containing the information as specified in (b) and (c) of this subsection, who fails to make, keep, and preserve such records, shall have premiums calculated as follows:
- (i) Estimated worker hours shall be computed by dividing the gross wages of each worker for whom records were not maintained and preserved, by the state's minimum wage, in effect at the time the wages were paid or would have been paid. However, the maximum number of hours to be assessed under this provision will not exceed five hundred twenty hours for each worker, per quarter for the first audited period. Estimated worker hours computed on all subsequent audits of the same employer that disclose a continued failure to make, keep, or preserve the required payroll and employment records shall be subject to a maximum of seven hundred eighty hours for each worker, per quarter.
- (ii) In the event an employer also has failed to make, keep, and preserve the records containing payroll information and wages paid to each worker, estimated average wages for each worker for whom a payroll and wage record was not maintained will be determined as follows: The employer's total gross income for the audit period (earned, received, or anticipated) shall be reduced by thirty-five percent to arrive at "total estimated wages." Total estimated wages will then be divided by the number of employees for whom a record of actual hours worked was not made, kept, or preserved to arrive at an "estimated average wage" per worker. Estimated hours for each worker will then be computed by dividing the estimated average wage by the state's minimum wage in effect at the time the wages were paid or would have been paid as described in (d)(i) of this subsection.

- (e) Reporting requirements and premium payments.
- (i) Every employer who is awarded a forest, range, or timber land services contract must report the contract to the department promptly when it is awarded, and prior to any work being commenced, except as provided in (e)(iii) of this subsection. Employers reporting under the provisions of (e)(iii) of this subsection shall submit the informational report with their quarterly report of premium. The report shall include the following information:
- (I) The employers' unified business identification account number (UBI).
- (II) Identification of the landowner, firm, or primary contractor who awarded the contract, including the name, address, and phone number of a contact person.
 - (III) The total contract award.
- (IV) Description of the forest, range, or timber land services work to be performed under terms of the contract.
- (V) Physical location/site where the work will be performed including legal description.
 - (VI) Number of acres covered by the contract.
 - (VII) Dates during which the work will be performed.
- (VIII) Estimated payroll and hours to be worked by employees in performance of the contract.
- (ii) Upon completion of every contract issued by a landowner or firm that exceeds a total of ten thousand dollars, the contractor primarily responsible for the overall project shall submit in addition to the required informational report described in (e)(i) of this subsection, report the payroll and hours worked under the contract, and payment for required industrial insurance premiums. In the event that the contracted work is not completed within a calendar quarter, interim quarterly reports and premium payments are required for each contract for all work done during the calendar quarter. The first such report and payment is due at the end of the first calendar quarter in which the contract work is begun. Additional interim reports and payments will be submitted each quarter thereafter until the contract is completed. This will be consistent with the quarterly reporting cycle used by other employers. Premiums for a calendar quarter, whether reported or not, shall become due and delinquent on the day immediately following the last day of the month following the calendar quarter.
- (iii) A contractor may group contracts issued by a landowner, firm, or other contractor that total less than ten thousand dollars together and submit a combined quarterly report of hours, payroll, and the required premium payment in the same manner and periods as nonforestation, range, or timber land services employers.
- (f) Out-of-state employers. Forest, range, or timber land services contractors domiciled outside of Washington state must report on a contract basis regardless of contract size for all forest, range, or timber land services work done in Washington state. Out-of-state employers will not be permitted to have an active Washington state industrial insurance account for reporting forest, range, or timber land services work in the absence of an active Washington forest, range, or timber land services contract.

- (g) Work done by subcontract. Any firm primarily responsible for work to be performed under the terms of a forest, range, or timber land services contract, that subcontracts out any work under a forest, range, or timber land services contract must send written notification to the department prior to any work being done by the subcontractor. This notification must include the name, address, Social Security number, farm labor contractor number, (UBI) of each subcontractor, and the amount and description of contract work to be done by subcontract.
- (h) Forest, range, or timber land services contract release verification of hours, payroll, and premium. The department may verify reporting of contractors by way of an on-site visit to an employers' work site. This on-site visit may include close monitoring of employees and employee work hours. Upon receipt of a premium report for a finished contract, the department may conduct an audit of the firm's payroll, employment, and financial records to validate reporting. The department will notify the contractor, and the entity that awarded the contract, of the status of the contractors' account immediately after verification. The landowner, firm, or contractors' premium liability will not be released until the final report for the contract from the primary contractor and any subcontractors has been received and verified by the department.
- (i) Premium liability work done by contract. Washington law (RCW 51.12.070) places the responsibility for industrial insurance premium payments primarily and directly upon the person, firm, or corporation who lets a contract for all covered employment involved in the fulfillment of the contract terms. Any such person, firm, or corporation letting a contract is authorized to collect from the contractor the full amount payable in premiums. The contractor is in turn authorized to collect premiums from any subcontractor they may employ his or her proportionate amount of the premium payment.

To eliminate premium liability for work done by contract permitted by Title 51 RCW, any person, firm, or corporation who lets a contract for forest, range, or timber land services work must submit a copy of the contract they have let to the department and verify that all premiums due under the contract have been paid.

Each contract submitted to the department must include within its body, or on a separate addendum, all of the following items:

- (I) The name of the contractor who has been engaged to perform the work;
 - (II) The contractor's UBI number;
 - (III) The contractor's farm labor contractor number;
 - (IV) The total contract award;
- (V) The date the work is to be commenced; a description of the work to be performed including any pertinent acreage information;
 - (VI) Location where the work is to be performed;
- (VII) A contact name and phone number of the person, firm, or corporation who let the contract;
- (VIII) The total estimated wages to be paid by the contractor and any subcontractors;
- (IX) The amount to be subcontracted out if such subcontracting is permitted under the terms of the contract;

Permanent [48]

- (X) The total estimated number of worker hours anticipated by the contractor and his/her subcontractors in the fulfillment of the contract terms;
- (j) Reports to be mailed to the department. All contracts, reports, and information required by this section are to be sent to:

The Department of Labor and Industries Reforestation Team 8 P.O. Box 44168 Turnwater, Washington 98504-4168

- (k) Rule applicability. If any portion of this section is declared invalid, only that portion is repealed. The balance of the section shall remain in effect.
- (5) Logging and/or tree thinning—Mechanized operations—Industry rule. The following subsection shall apply to all employers assigned to report worker hours in risk classification 5005, WAC 296-17-66003.
- (a) Every employer having operations subject to risk classification 5005 "logging and/or tree thinning mechanized operations" shall have their operations surveyed by labor and industries insurance services staff prior to the assignment of risk classification 5005 to their account. Annual surveys may be required after the initial survey to retain the risk classification assignment.
- (b) Every employer as a prerequisite of being assigned risk classification 5005 and having exposure (work hours) which is reportable under other risk classifications assigned to the employer shall be required to establish a separate subaccount for the purpose of reporting exposure (work hours) and paying premiums under this risk classification (5005). Except as otherwise provided for in this rule, only exposure (work hours) applicable to work covered by risk classification 5005 shall be reported in this subaccount. In the event that the employer's only other reportable exposure (work hours) is subject to one of the standard exception risk classifications, or the shop or yard risk classification then all exposure (work hours) will be reported under a single main account.
- (c) Every employer assigned to report exposure (work hours) in risk classification 5005 shall supply an addendum report with their quarterly premium report which lists the name of each employee reported under this classification during the quarter, the Social Security number of such worker, the piece or pieces of equipment the employee operated during the quarter, the number of hours worked by the employee during the quarter, and the wages earned by the employee during the quarter.
 - (6) Special drywall industry rule.
- (a) Why have we changed the way you pay premiums? Under Washington law (RCW 51.16.035), we are given the authority to establish how workers' compensation insurance rates are computed. For most industries, workers' compensation insurance rates are based on hours worked by employees. While the worker hour system works well for most industries, this method of paying premium can be unfair when a large segment of workers within an industry are not paid an hourly wage. The drywall industry is one in which many workers are paid on the basis of material installed((5)) and/or finished, ((stocked and/or scrapped)) (piece work),

- not the hours they work. To help remedy the problems caused by using work hours as the basis of how you pay premiums, and to provide greater fairness to employers engaged in drywall work, the premium for classifications ((0524, 0526, 0527, 0528, 0529, 0530, 0531, 0532, 0533, and 0534)) 0540, 0541, 0550, and 0551 is based on material (square feet).
- (b) How can I qualify for a discounted rate? For each drywall industry classification, we have established a second classification covering the same activity. The second classification carries a discounted rate. To qualify for a discounted classification and rate you are required to meet all of the following conditions:
- (i) Prior to the end of the quarter that you want the discounted classifications and rates to be applied to your business, you (an owner/officer) must attend two workshops that we offer. For example, if you want the discounted classifications and rates to apply to your business for the third calendar quarter (July 1 through September 30), you (an owner/officer) must attend the two workshops by September 30. One workshop covers claims and risk management practices; the other workshop covers premium reporting and record-keeping. The two workshops may be offered together or separately. Be sure to sign in so that you receive credit for attending the workshops.
- (ii) You (an owner/officer) must provide us with a signed and completed voluntary release of information form that we ((will)) may provide to you ((or your representative)) at the workshops. If we audit your account we will use this release form to obtain material and supply/purchase sales records from the material supply dealer(s) you use. This will aid us as we verify the information you supply us on your premium and supplemental reports. If we need to verify the information that you supplied us, we will send you written notice before we contact your material supply dealer(s). We must receive this release form prior to the end of the quarter in which you want the discounted classifications and rates to become effective. For example, if you want the discounted classifications and rates to apply to your business for the third calendar quarter (July 1 through September 30), we must receive your signed and completed release of information form by September 30. You can complete the voluntary release form at the workshop and give it to our representative at the workshop or mail it to:

Labor and Industries Employer Services - Drywall Manager P.O. Box 44166 Olympia, Washington 98504-4166

(iii) You must submit complete and accurate premium reports when they are due and be current with all premium reports and payments. If you owe us money (premiums) for any quarter ((or period prior to December 31, 1996)), we will not allow you to report in the discounted classifications((. To meet this condition you must file all reports required by this section when due; and if you have not paid premiums which were due for any quarterly report you submitted to us prior to and including the fourth quarter 1996 (October 1, through December 31, 1996), either pay the balance due immediately or maintain a current payment agreement with us for any past due-premium. For purposes of this-section, a "current-payment agreement" is a written legal agreement which we have approved and entered into with you. This agreement will set forth-your unpaid premium obligation, any applicable penalties and interest that must be paid, the amount of each installment (payment) and a schedule of payment due dates. If you fail to make any payment covered in a payment agreement you will lose the right to use the discounted classifications and rates. You will not be allowed to use a discounted classification or rate if you fail to submit reports, or make premium payments on time for any period beginning with the first quarter 1997)) until your premium obligations have been paid. This requirement applies to any classification assigned to your business and for any exposure (hours, square feet, etc.,) which occurs ((after January 1, 1997)). Businesses requesting the use of the discounted classifications while in field audit status shall not be assigned the discounted classifications and rates until the audit process is complete and all criteria for this rule have been met.

- (iv) You must provide us with a supplemental quarterly report which shows by employee the employee's name and Social Security number, the wages you paid them during the quarter, the basis for how they are paid, (piece rate, commission, hourly, etc.,) their rate of pay per unit/hour, and a notation as to whether they are an installer, finisher, scrapper, painter, etc. This report is to be attached to and submitted with your quarterly premium report.
- (v) For any work which you subcontract to others, you must maintain the records described in WAC 296-17-31013 which requires you to keep certain information about the subcontractors you use and materials you may have supplied to the subcontractors.
- (vi) You must keep and retain the payroll and employment records described in WAC 296-17-35201.

If you do not meet all of the above conditions, we will not assign the discounted rates to your business and you will be required to pay premiums in the nondiscounted classification(s).

- (c) Can I be disqualified from using the discounted rates? Yes, as opposed to failing to qualify because you did not meet the conditions of (b) of this subsection, your business will be disqualified from using the discounted premium rates if:
 - You do not file premium reports on time;
 - You fail to pay premiums on time;
 - You under report or misclassify the work performed by your employees; or
 - ((* You-fail-to maintain the payments-in-a-payment agreement you have entered into with us; or))
 - You fail to meet any other condition set forth in this rule.
- (d) How long will I be disqualified from using the discounted classifications? ((If we disqualify your business from using the discounted classifications, the disqualification will be for three years (thirty six months) from the period of last noncompliance.)) If the drywall underwriter discovers your business has failed to meet the conditions as required in this rule, your business will need to comply to retain using the discounted classifications. If your business does not comply timely, your business may be referred for an audit. If, as a - result of an audit, your business is in noncompliance, your business will be disqualified from using the discounted classifications for three years (thirty-six months) from the period of last noncompliance. If your business does comply, we will schedule your business to be audited over the next several years to ensure continued compliance.

- (e) I have several businesses. If one of my businesses is disqualified from using the discounted rates will that affect my other businesses? Yes, if you have ownership interest in a business which has been disqualified from using the discounted rates, and you also have ownership interest in other construction businesses which have separate industrial insurance accounts or subaccounts, all businesses in which you have ownership interest will be disqualified from using the discounted rates. This includes a business which you own or owned that is in bankruptcy status and for which you have not entered into a payment agreement, if you owe us any money; or money that you owe us which we wrote off as an uncollectible debt.
- (f) If I make a mistake in how I reported to you, should I correct the error? Yes, you should send in a revised report(s) with an explanation of the error you are trying to correct to the drywall underwriter. If we audit your business, and we determine that you have under reported exposure in any classification assigned to your business, all exposure which you reported in the discounted classifications for the audit period will be reclassified to the nondiscounted classifications.
- (g) If I disagree with an audit or other decision can I still use the discounted rates while we are resolving the issue? Yes, if you are involved in a dispute with us over the status of an independent contractor, the issue being whether an individual is a covered worker; the proper classification of work your employees performed; or under reporting; you may qualify for the discounted classifications by paying the disputed amount while the issue is under dispute. In the event the issue is resolved in your favor we will refund any moneys which you paid which were disputed. We will not pay interest on the refunded amount. If you do not pay the audit balance or disputed amount when requested or do not post an equivalent bond, you will not be permitted to use any of the discounted classifications.
- (h) I am the owner of the business, and I do some of the work myself. Can I deduct the work I do from the total square feet to be reported to you? Yes, as an owner of the business you can deduct the amount of work that you did from the total square feet which you are going to report to us.
- (i) How do I calculate and report this deduction to you? To claim this deduction you must send us a report which shows by job, project, site or location the total amount of material that was installed or finished at that job, project, site or location; the amount of material which you, the owner, installed and/or finished at the job, project, site or location; the hours it took you to install and/or finish the material you are claiming deduction for; the total material installed and/or finished by subcontractors (including the subcontractor's legal name and Unified Business Identifier (UBI) at the job, project, site or location); the total material installed and/or finished by employees at the job, project, site or location; and the hours the employees worked by job, project, site or location. This report must accompany the quarterly report in which you are claiming a deduction. If there are several owners, you must supply this information for each owner for whom you wish to claim a deduction.

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-17-52140 Classification 0540.

0540-00 Wallboard installation, including scrapping - discounted rate (to be assigned only by the drywall underwriter)

Applies to contractors engaged in the installation or repair of wallboard. This classification includes the installation of wallboard, drywall, or sheetrock in all types of residential or commercial buildings or structures. The process consists of cutting wallboard with a utility knife, hacksaw, or power saw to the desired size and then butting material into place and nailing or screw fastening to wood or metal wall studs. Electrical box, window, or door openings are cut out where needed. Installation may require the use of scaffolding, ladders, specialty lifts, or stilts when working at heights, including the use of T holders or hydraulic lifts to hold material being installed on ceilings. This classification also includes wallboard scrapping (picking up and discarding unused portions of wallboard remnants or scraps) at the construction site when performed by employees of the wallboard contractor.

This classification excludes delivery of materials to the construction site by material dealer employees which is to be reported separately in the applicable delivery classification; delivery and stocking of materials to the construction site when performed by employees of the wallboard contractor which is to be reported separately in classification 1101; wallboard taping (including priming and texturing when performed by employees of the wallboard contractor) which is to be reported separately in classification 0541 or 0551; wallboard scrapping by nonwallboard contractor employees which is to be reported separately in the applicable construction debris cleanup classification; plastering, stuccoing or lathing work which is to be reported separately in classification 0303; and the framing of nonbearing walls when performed by the drywall contractor which is to be reported separately in classification 0516.

Special note: The basis of premium for this classification is material installed (square feet). The amount used to determine premium calculation for material installed shall be the same amount used for premium calculation of material finished for use in classification 0541 or 0551. The amount of wallboard purchased for each job, project, site or location shall be equal to the amount of material installed or finished. For contractors to be assigned and continue to report in this classification, their account must remain in good standing and conform to the conditions specified in the special drywall industry rule.

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-17-52141 Classification 0541.

0541-00 Wallboard taping, including texturing and priming -discounted rate (to be assigned only by the drywall underwriter)

Applies to contractors engaged in taping wallboard in residential or commercial buildings or structures. The process of taping occurs after wallboard, drywall, or sheetrock has been installed and involves taping the seams, and spreading joint compound over the seams and nail or screw heads. When dry, the seams are sanded to remove any rough edges. This classification includes the following activities when performed by employees of a wallboard contractor and part of the taping process which includes wallboard texturing (a putty-like material that is sprayed over the prepared wallboard in a clump-like application and smoothed with a trowel or putty knife), and wallboard priming (the application of an undercoating that may be applied either directly to the wallboard or after it has been textured). This classification also includes incidental painting when performed by employees of a wallboard contractor and part of the taping process.

This classification excludes wallboard installation which is to be reported separately in classification 0540 or 0550; wallboard priming and texturing not performed by employees of the wallboard contractor and part of the taping process which is to be reported separately in classification 0521; interior painting which is to be reported separately in classification 0521; and wallboard scrapping by nonmaterial dealer employees which is to be reported separately in classification 0540 or 0550.

Other Findings Required by Other Provisions of Law as Precondition to Adoption or Effectiveness of Rule: As a result of the new safety and health core rules, chapter 296-800 WAC, which were adopted on May 9, 2001, additional clarifying and housekeeping changes were made. Most of these changes are corrections that needed to be updated throughout chapter 296-800 WAC and chapter 296-62 WAC, General occupational health standards. Also, two minor reference changes in chapter 296-32 WAC, Safety standards for telecommunications and chapter 296-155 WAC, Safety standards for construction, were amended. These amendments are housekeeping in nature and do not increase requirements. Therefore, the effective date for these rules will be December 1, 2001, which is less than the required thirty-one day time period required by RCW 34.05.380.

The department believes the earlier effective date is necessary because of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare and to ensure continued protection for general industry.

Effective Date of Rule: December 1, 2001; except WAC 296-62-05140 is effective July 1, 2002.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-100 Introduction. The WISHA Core Rules: Your foundation for a safe and healthful workplace. This book contains 26 basic safety and health rules that affect all employers and should cover almost everything small, nonmanufacturing employers need for a safe and healthful workplace. These core rules include requirements for your Accident Prevention Program, personal protective equipment, first aid, and hazard communication program.

Note: ((There are other WISHA rules)) You may need to comply with other WISHA rules. For a complete list of WISHA rules, see the resources section of this book.

Why does workplace safety and health matter to you?

On average, two people lose their lives every week in job-related incidents in Washington state. Each year, more than 250,000 workers' compensation claims are accepted for work-related injuries and illnesses. Medical care and wage replacement for these injured workers costs more than a billion dollars. The indirect costs of workplace injuries are even larger in terms of lost quality of life, personal financial ruin, operating costs of business, and decreased profitability. Employers and employees who work together to identify and control hazards on the job can save lives and money while improving business and productivity.

What ((is)) are L&I and WISHA?

The department of labor and industries (L&I) is a state agency that provides many different services:

- Workplace safety and health, including inspections and enforcement, consultation, technical assistance, training, education and grants. (WISHA)
- Workers' compensation (or industrial insurance), including claims management, rate setting, medical payments, and research.
- Specialty compliance services, including contractor registration, electrical inspections, boiler and elevator inspections, apprenticeship programs and employment standards.

Many of these services are available from L&I's twentytwo regional offices (see the resource((s)) section of this book for a list of regional offices).

In 1973, the legislature passed the Washington Industrial Safety and Health Act or WISHA (Revised Code of Washington (chapter 49.17 RCW)). WISHA requires employers to provide safe and healthful workplaces for all employees. It gives L&I the responsibility to establish and enforce workplace safety and health rules. These rules are the Washington Administrative Code (WAC).

How does WISHA work?

WISHA covers nearly all employers and employees in Washington, including employees who work for the state, counties, and cities. L&I inspectors enforce WISHA rules by inspecting workplaces without advance notice including investigations of work-related deaths, injuries, and employees' complaints. When WISHA inspectors find a violation in a workplace, they issue a citation to the employer and a penalty may be attached. If you have questions about whether you are covered by WISHA, call 1-800-4BE SAFE (1-800-423-7233) or a local office of L&I.

What is OSHA and its relationship to WISHA?

The U.S. Congress created the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) in 1971 to develop and enforce workplace safety and health rules throughout the country. States may choose to run their own safety and health programs as long as they are at least as effective as OSHA. Washington state has chosen to run its own program and most employers in the state, therefore, are subject to enforcement by L&I and not by federal OSHA.

In Washington state, OSHA covers workplaces with federal employees, nonfederal employees working on federal reservations and military bases, employees working on floating worksites (floating dry docks, fishing boats, construction barges), and employees working for tribal employers on tribal lands.

Does WISHA apply to you?

WISHA applies to almost every employer and employee in Washington. WISHA applies to you if:

- You hire someone to work for you as an employee, including workers from a temporary agency.
 - You are hired to work for someone as their employee.
- You own your own business or you are a corporate officer and have elected industrial insurance coverage for yourself.
- You have a contract with someone else that primarily involves personal labor, even though you are not required to pay industrial insurance or unemployment insurance premiums
- You volunteer your personal labor, or you have volunteers working for you who receive any benefit or compensation.

If you have any questions about your particular situation, call 1-800-4BE SAFE (1-800-423-7233) or contact your local office of L&I for help. See the resource((s)) section of this book for a complete list of L&I offices.

Are there other safety and health rules I need to know about?

In addition to the rules in the WISHA Safety and Health Core Rules book, there are other general WISHA rules that may apply to employers, depending upon the industry and workplace activities. See the resource((s)) section of this book for a complete list of WISHA rules or go to the website for all the state rules administered by L&I at http://www.wa.gov/lni/home/wacs.htm. If you have questions about these rules or would like copies of them, call 1-800-4BE SAFE (1-800-423-7233) or your local office of L&I.

How do the WISHA rules relate to fire, building and electrical codes?

Fire codes: WISHA rules contain basic requirements for portable fire extinguishers, exit routes, housekeeping, storage, stairs and electrical hazards for the protection of employees in your workplace. The rules contained in this book are the most basic requirements to make sure that as an employer you provide a safe and healthy work environment. However, these are not the only rules regarding the requirements for portable fire extinguishers, exit routes, housekeeping, storage, stairs and electrical equipment. The fire ((marshall)) marshal and local fire authorities enforce the Uniform Fire Code (UFC). WISHA and UFC differ in some areas, for example UFC requires exit sign lettering to be 6" or more and WISHA only states that the letters have to be clearly visible. Fire codes have more detailed and extensive requirements for the protection of the public than WISHA. Some codes overlap with WISHA requirements.

Building and electrical codes: WISHA rules are minimum requirements regardless of when the building was built or remodeled. Buildings must also comply with building and electrical codes at the time of construction. If you remodel, you must comply with the building and electrical codes applicable at that time. Building authorities and electrical inspection authorities enforce rules from the Uniform Building Code (UBC), and the National Electrical Code (NEC).

You are encouraged to call your local fire, building or electrical authority. For more information on the requirements in your area look in the government section of your phone book. Copies of these codes are available at your local library.

How can WISHA help employers and employees?

Employers can ask WISHA safety and health consultation staff for free, confidential consulting services in your workplace. WISHA safety and health professionals can examine your workplace and make recommendations about how to comply with WISHA rules. If the consultant finds hazards, the employer will be given a reasonable period of time to correct the hazard without citation or penalty.

Sometimes you might have to wait for an appointment because of the demand for these services. You still must provide a safe workplace while you wait for a consultation.

WISHA offers a wide variety of free services:

- Safety and health workshops held in locations throughout the state
- A comprehensive safety and health video lending library
- Safety and health publications geared for both employer and employee
- Website with on-line publications and learning opportunities

Note: By law, WISHA consultants do not have any enforcement authority.

 - Flying particles.
 - Molten metal.
 - Liquid chemicals.
 - Acids or caustic liquids.
 - Chemical gases or vapors.
- Any light that could injure the eyes such as lasers, ultraviolet, or infrared light.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-170 Employer chemical hazard communication—Introduction. Important:

Thousands of chemicals can be found in today's workplaces. These chemicals may have the capacity to cause health problems, from minor skin irritations to serious injuries or diseases like cancer.

The Employer Chemical Hazard Communication rule was developed to make sure employers and employees are informed about chemical hazards in the workplace.

This rule applies to:

- Employers engaged in businesses where chemicals are used, distributed, or produced for use or distribution.
- Contractors or subcontractors that work for employers engaged in businesses where chemicals are used, distributed, or produced for use or distribution.

((Note:

- ◆ If you produce, import, distribute and/or-repackage chemicals, or choose not to rely on labels or material safety data sheets provided by the manufacturer or importer, you must comply with chemical hazard communication for manufacturers, importers and distributers, WAC 296 62 054.
- You may withhold trade secret information under certain circumstances, see trade secrets, WAC 296-62-053, to find out what information may be withheld as a trade-secret and-what-information must be released.))

Exemptions:

- ((a-For the-purposes of this Employer Hazard Communication rule, if you are engaged in agricultural production of crops or livestock, "employee" does not mean:
- Immediate family members of the officers of any corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship or other business entity or officers of any closely held corporation.))
- Certain products, chemicals, or items are exempt from this rule. Below is a summarized list of these exemptions. See WAC 296-800-17055 at the end of this rule to get complete information about these exemptions:
- Any hazardous waste or substance
- Tobacco or tobacco products
- Wood or wood products that are not chemically treated and will not be processed, for example, by sawing and sanding
- Food or alcoholic beverages
- Some drugs, such as retail or prescription medications

- Retail cosmetics
- Ionizing and nonionizing radiation
- Biological hazards
- Any consumer product or hazardous substance when workplace exposure is the same as that of a consumer
- ♦ Retail products used in offices in the same manner and frequency used by consumers can be termed "consumer products((-))" ((Consumer products)), and include things such as: Correction fluid, glass cleaner, and dishwashing liquid.

Example: If you use a household cleaner in your workplace in the same ((way)) manner and frequency that a consumer would use it when cleaning their house, ((the)) your exposure should be the same as the consumer's, you are exempt. ((("In the same way" means using the household cleaner in the same manner and frequency.))) A janitor using a household cleaner, such as bleach, throughout the day, is not considered to be a consumer ((use)), and is not exempt.

- Manufactured items that remain intact are exempt ((for)) from this rule.

- Manufactured items that are fluids or in the form of particles are not exempt from this rule.

The following are examples:

Item	Covered by this rule	Not covered by this rule
Brick	Sawed or cut in half	Used whole or intact
Pipe	Cut by a torch	Bent with a tube bender
Nylon Rope	Burning the ends	Tying a knot

((-Manufactured items that are fluids-or in the form of particles are not exempt for this rule.))

Note:

- If you produce, import, distribute and/or repackage chemicals, or choose not to rely on labels or material safety data sheets provided by the manufacturer or importer, you must comply with chemical hazard communication for manufacturers, importers and distributers, WAC 296-62-054.
- You may withhold trade secret information under certain circumstances. See trade secrets, WAC 296-62-053, to find out what information may be withheld as a trade secret and what information must be released.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-17005 Develop, implement, maintain, and make available a written Chemical Hazard Communication Program. You must:

- Develop, implement, maintain, and make available a written Chemical Hazard Communication Program specifically for your workplace. The Chemical Hazard Communication Program must, at a minimum, include:
- A list of hazardous chemicals known to be present in your workplace.
- Procedures for making sure all containers are properly labeled.
- A description of how you are going to obtain and maintain your material safety data sheets (MSDSs).
- A description of how you are going to train and inform your employees about hazardous chemicals in their workplace.
- A description of how you are going to inform your employees about:
 - ♦ Chemical hazards used during nonroutine tasks.
- ♦ The hazards associated with chemicals contained in unlabeled pipes in their work areas.

You must:

• Make sure your written chemical hazard communication program includes the following communication methods you will apply if you produce, use, or store hazardous chemicals at your workplace(s) in such a way that the employees of other employer(s) may be exposed:

- Provide the other employer(s) with a copy of the relevant material safety data sheets (MSDSs), or provide access to the MSDSs in a central location at the workplace.
- Inform the other employer(s) of any precautionary measures that need to be taken to protect employees during normal operating conditions and in foreseeable emergencies.
- Describe how to inform the other employer(s) of the labeling system used in the workplace.

Note

- Examples of employees of other employers who could be exposed to chemical hazards that you produce, use, or store in your workplace include employees of construction companies, cleaning services, or maintenance contractors visiting or working on-site.
- Your employees have the right to get chemical hazard communication information from other employers at workplaces where they are working; and Employees of other employers have the right to get the information from you when they are working at your workplace.

- Include in your written Chemical Hazard Communication Program the methods that you will use to share information with other employers and their employees at your workplace(s) regarding:
- Access to MSDSs.
- Precautionary measures such as personal protective equipment (PPE) and emergency plans.
- Any labeling systems used at the workplace.

If you rely on another employer's Chemical Hazard Communication Program to share the information required and the program meets the requirements of this rule, document this in your own written Chemical Hazard Communication Program.

You must:

• Make your Chemical Hazard Communication Program available to your employees.

Note:

- You must make the written Chemical Hazard Communication Program available, upon request, to employees, their designated representatives, the department and NIOSH, in accordance with the requirements of Access to records, WAC 296-62-052.
- Where employees must travel between workplaces during a workshift, that is, if their work is carried out at more than one geographical location, the written Chemical Hazard Communication Program may be kept at the primary workplace facility.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-17010 Identify and list all the hazardous chemicals present in your workplace. You must:

- Identify all hazardous chemicals at your workplace.
- _ This includes any chemical that is known to be present in your workplace in such a way that employees may be exposed to it under normal conditions of use or in a foreseeable emergency.
- Create a list of these chemicals using the chemical or common name on the material safety data sheet (MSDS).

This list

- Must be compiled for the workplace as a whole, or for individual work areas.
- Is necessary to make sure that all hazardous chemicals are identified and that MSDS, and labeling rules are met.
 - Must be current.

Note:

The following are some ways to determine whether a product is hazardous:

- Look for words on the label, such as "CAUTION," "WARNING," or "DANGER."
- Look for words or "hazard coding" that indicate that the chemical is flammable, an irritant, corrosive, carcinogenic, etc. "Hazard coding" refers to words, numbers, or colors that tell you a chemical is dangerous.
- Check the product's MSDS for hazard information.

Examples of hazardous chemicals are: Acids, adhesives, caustics, fuels, paints, varnishes, shellacs and pesticides. Too many other classes of hazardous chemicals exist to list them all here. If you have any questions about a chemical you have at your workplace, contact your local L&I office (see the resource section of this book).

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-17015 Obtain and maintain material safety data sheets (MSDSs) for each hazardous chemical used.

Note:

MSDSs are a type of employee exposure record. Therefore, you must comply with the ((Access to MSDS)) material safety data sheets (MSDSs) as exposure records, WAC 296-800-180, located in this book.

You must:

• Obtain a MSDS for each hazardous chemical used as soon as possible if the MSDS is not provided with the shipment of a hazardous chemical, from the chemical manufacturer or importer.

Note:

- To obtain a MSDS, you may try calling the manufacturer or checking their website.
- If you have a commercial account with a retailer or wholesaler, you have the right to request and receive a MSDS about hazardous chemicals you purchase.
- If a chemical is purchased from a retailer with no commercial accounts, you have the right to request and receive the manufacturer's name and address so that you can contact them and request a MSDS for the chemical.
- Whoever prepares the MSDS is required to mark all blocks on the form, even if there is no relevant information for that section
- If you have problems getting a MSDS within 30 calendar days after making a written request to the chemical manufacturer, importer, or distributor, you can get help from WISHA. You may contact your local regional office for assistance or make a written request for assistance to the:

Department of Labor and Industries

Right-to-Know Program

P.O. Box 44610

Olympia, Washington 98504-4610.

Include in your request:

- A copy of the purchaser's written request to the chemical manufacturer, importer, or distributor.
- The name of the product suspected of containing a hazardous chemical.
- The identification number of the product, if available.
- A copy of the product label, if available.
- The name and address of the chemical manufacturer, importer, or distributor from whom the product was obtained.

You must

- Maintain a MSDS for each hazardous chemical:
- Keep copies of the required MSDSs for each hazardous chemical present in your workplace. ((These may be kept in any form, including as a part of operating procedures.))
- Each MSDS must be in English. You may also keep copies in other languages.

Note:

- If you choose not to rely on MSDSs or labels provided by the manufacturer or importer, you must comply with the Chemical hazard communication standard for manufacturers, importers, and distributors, WAC 296-62-054.
- It may be more appropriate to address the hazards of a process rather than individual hazardous chemicals. MSDS can be designed to cover groups of hazardous chemicals in a work area.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-17020 Make sure material safety data sheets (MSDSs) are readily accessible to your employees. You must:

- Make sure that MSDSs are readily accessible, easily obtained without delay during each work shift ((to)) by employees when they are in their work area(s).
- Make sure that employees can immediately obtain the required MSDS information in an emergency.
- Where employees must travel between workplaces during a workshift, such as when their work is carried out at more than one geographical location, the MSDSs may be kept at a central location at the primary workplace facility.
- This can be done by means such as voice communication or laptop computer.

Note:

- Electronic access (such as computer or fax), microfiche, and other alternatives to maintaining paper copies of the MSDSs are permitted as long as they do not create barriers to immediate employee access in each workplace.
- Barriers to immediate access of electronic MSDSs may include:
- Power outages
- Equipment failure
- System delays
- Deficient user knowledge to operate equipment
- Location of equipment outside the work area.

Solutions to eliminating these and other possible barriers to access may require the availability of back-up systems, employee training, and providing access equipment in the work areas.

• MSDSs must also be made readily available, upon request, to the department in accordance with the requirements of material safety data sheets (MSDSs) as exposure records, WAC 296-800-180. NIOSH (National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health) must also be given access to MSDSs in the same manner.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-17025 Label containers holding hazardous chemicals.

Exemptions:

- The following is a summary of items that are exempt from this rule((. For complete information about each of these, see WAC 296-800 17055.)):
- Pesticides, when labeled as required by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).
- Food, food additives, color additives, drugs, cosmetics, or medical/veterinary devices or products.
- Alcoholic beverages not intended for industrial use.
- Consumer products labeled as required by the Consumer Product Safety Commission.
- Agriculture or vegetable seeds treated and labeled as required by the Federal Seed Act.

For complete information about each of these, see WAC 296-800-17055.

Note:

You are not required to label portable containers into which hazardous chemicals are transferred from labeled containers, if the chemical is used and controlled by the employee who performed the transfer within the same shift.

You must:

- Make sure that each container of hazardous chemicals in the workplace is labeled, tagged, or marked with the following information:
- The identity of the hazardous chemical(s) using either the chemical or common name.

((Note:

You are not required to list each component in a hazardous mixture on the label. If a mixture is referred to on a material safety data sheet (MSDS) by a product name, then the product name should be used as the identifier.))

- Appropriate hazard warnings which give general information about the relevant health and physical hazards of the chemicals. This includes health effects information, such as information about organs most likely to be affected by the chemicals.

((Examples of label:

Name of chemical

Physical hazards

Health-Hazards

- Health effects information
- Affected Target organs))
- For individual stationary process containers, you may use alternate labeling methods such as:
 - ♦ Signs
 - Placards
 - Process sheets
 - ♦ Batch tickets
 - Operating procedures or
 - ♦ Other such written materials, as long as the alternate method identifies the containers and conveys the required label information.

Note:

- You are not required to list each component in a hazardous mixture on the label. If a mixture is referred to on a material safety data sheet (MSDS) by a product name, then the product name should be used as the identifier.
- You may use words, pictures, symbols or any combination to communicate the hazards of the chemical. ((Be sure to train your employees so they can demonstrate a knowledge of the labeling system you use.))

Sample Container Labels

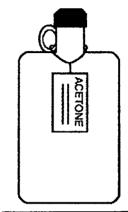

- Be sure to train your employees so they can demonstrate a knowledge of the labeling system you use.
- Some alternative labeling systems do no communicate target organ information, so the employee will have to rely on training provided by the employer to obtain this information.

You must

• Not remove or deface existing labels on incoming containers of hazardous chemicals (such as those marked with the United States Department of Transportation (USDOT) markings, placards and labels), unless the container is immediately labeled with the required information. You do not need to put on new labels if existing labels already provide the required information. If the package or container is sufficiently cleaned of residue and purged of vapors to remove any potential health or physical hazard, existing labels can be removed.

Above is an example of a labeled container. You may use a laminated or coated label, affixed to the container with a wire, to avoid deterioration of labels due to a solvent, such as acetone.

• Make sure that labels or other forms of warning are legible, in English, and prominently displayed on the container, or readily available in the work area throughout each work shift.

Note:

((*)) Employers with non-English speaking employees may use other languages in the warning information in addition to the English language.

Above is an example of a labeled container. You may use a laminated or coated label, affixed to the container with a wire, to avoid deterioration of labels due to a solvent, such as acetone.))

• Make sure if the hazardous chemical is regulated by WISHA or OSHA in a substance-specific health rule, that the labels or other warnings are used according to those rules.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-17030 Inform and train your employees about hazardous chemicals in your workplace. You must

- Provide employees with effective information on hazardous chemicals in their work area at the time of their initial job assignment. Whenever a new physical or health hazard related to chemical exposure is introduced into their employees' work areas, information must be provided.
 - Inform employees of:
 - ♦ The requirements of this rule
- ◆ Any operations in their work area where hazardous chemicals are present
- ♦ The location and availability of your written Chemical Hazard Communication Program, including the list(s) of hazardous chemicals and material safety data sheets (MSDSs) required by this rule.
- Provide employees with effective training about hazardous chemicals in their work area at the time of their initial job assignment. Whenever a new physical or health hazard related to chemical exposure is introduced, the employees must be trained.

Make sure ((that)) employee training includes:

- Methods and observations that may be used to detect the presence or release of a hazardous chemical in the work area.

Examples of these methods and observations may include:

- ♦ Monitoring conducted by you
- ♦ Continuous monitoring devices
- ♦ Visual appearance or odor of hazardous chemicals when being released
- ♦ Physical and health hazards of the chemicals in the work area, including the likely physical symptoms or effects of overexposure
- ♦ Steps employees can take to protect themselves from the chemical hazards in your workplace, including specific procedures implemented by you to protect employees from exposure to hazardous chemicals. Specific procedures may include:
 - Appropriate work practices
 - Engineering controls
 - Emergency procedures
 - Personal protective equipment to be used
- Details of the chemical hazard communication program developed by you, including an explanation of the labeling system and the MSDS, and how employees can obtain and use the appropriate hazard information.
- Tailor information and training to the types of hazards to which employees will be exposed. The information and training may be designed to cover categories of hazards, such as flammability or cancer-causing potential, or it may address specific chemicals. Chemical-specific information must always be available through labels and MSDSs
- Make reasonable efforts to post notices in your employees' native languages (as provided by the department) if those employees have trouble communicating in English.

Note: • Interactive computer-based training or training videos can be used provided they are effective.

Permanent

• Your MSDSs may not have WISHA permissible exposure limits (PELs) listed. In some cases, WISHA PELs are stricter than the OSHA PELs and other exposure limits listed on the MSDSs you receive. If this is the case, you must refer to the WISHA PEL table, WAC 296-62-075, for the appropriate exposure limits to be covered during training.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-17035 Follow these rules for laboratories using hazardous chemicals.

Note:

- Laboratories are required to have a written Chemical hygiene plan under WAC 296-62-400, if applicable. They are not required to have a written Chemical Hazard Communication Program.
- You may combine your accident prevention program and chemical hazard communication program to assist you in developing a chemical hygiene plan for your laboratory.

You must:

- (1) Make sure that labels on incoming containers of hazardous chemicals are in place and readable.
- (2) Maintain material safety data sheets (MSDSs) received with incoming shipments of hazardous chemicals and make them ((available)) readily accessible to laboratory employees when they are in their work areas.
- (3) Provide laboratory employees with information and training as described in: "Inform and train your employees about hazardous chemicals in your workplace," WAC 296-800-17030((, except for the part about)). You do not have to cover the location and the availability of the ((Written Chemieal)) Hazard Communication Program.

Note:

Laboratory employers that ship hazardous chemicals are considered to be either chemical manufacturers or distributors. When laboratory employers ship hazardous chemicals they must comply with the rule, "hazard communication standards for chemical manufacturers, importers and distributors," WAC 296-62-054.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-17040 Follow these rules for handling chemicals in factory-sealed containers. This applies to situations where employees only handle chemicals in factory-sealed containers that are not opened under normal use (such as those found in marine cargo handling, trucking, warehousing, or retail sales).

You must:

- (1) Make sure that labels on incoming containers of hazardous chemicals are in place and readable.
 - (2) Keep or obtain material safety data sheets (MSDSs).
- Keep any MSDSs that are received with incoming shipments of the sealed containers of hazardous chemicals.
- If a factory-sealed container of hazardous chemicals comes without a MSDS, obtain one as soon as possible, if an employee requests it.
- (3) Make sure that the MSDSs are readily accessible during each work shift to employees when they are in their work area(s).
- (4) Inform and train your employees about hazardous chemicals in your workplace, to protect them in case of a hazardous chemical spill or leak from a factory-sealed container. You do not have to cover the location and availability of the written Chemical Hazard Communication Program.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-180 Material safety data sheets (MSDSs) as exposure records ((introduction)). Important: Exposure records contain information about employees' exposure to toxic substances or harmful physical agents. Material safety data sheets (MSDSs) are one type of exposure record. The preservation of and access to exposure records is necessary to improve detection, treatment, and prevention of occupational diseases.

This rule supplements the chemical hazard communication rule by extending access to MSDSs, or their alternative, after employment and after the hazardous chemical is no longer used in the workplace. Your responsibility:

To preserve and provide access to material safety data sheets (MSDSs) or their alternative as exposure records.

You must:

Preserve exposure records for at least 30 years.

WAC 296-800-18005.

WAC 296-800-18010.

WAC 296-800-18015.

Transfer records when ceasing to do business.

WAC 296-800-18020.

Note:

- Access to records, WAC 296-62-052, requires the preservation and access to other exposure records including records such as workplace monitoring data and biological monitoring results and medical records. If you keep these other types of employee exposure records or employee medical records, you must comply with these additional requirements.
- This rule applies to every employer who maintains, makes, contracts for, or has access to MSDSs for chemicals used in their workplace.
- The specific identity of a toxic substance may be withheld from a disclosable record if it is a verifiable trade secret. For trade secret requirements see WAC 296-62-053.

- Within fifteen working days. If the employer cannot meet this requirement, they must inform the requesting party of the reason for the delay and the earliest date the record will be made available.

Note:

- Employee means any current, former or transferred
- A relevant exposure record could be MSDSs or their alternative.

OR

You must:

• Make sure the department has prompt access to any exposure records and related analysis. This must be done without violation of any rights under the Constitution or the Washington Industrial Safety and Health Act that the employer chooses to exercise.

Note:

Nothing in this rule is meant to prevent employees and collective bargaining agents from getting access to informa-

You must:

- Make sure that whenever an employee or designated representative requests an initial copy of an exposure record, related analysis or new information added to the record:
- A copy of the record is provided without cost to the employee or their representative or
- The facilities are made available for copying without cost to the employee or their representative or
- The record is loaned to the employee or their representative for a reasonable time to enable a copy to be made.

Note:

Whenever a record has been previously provided without cost to an employee or designated representative, and they request additional copies, the employer may charge reasonable, nondiscriminatory administrative costs (e.g., search and copying expenses, but no overhead expenses).

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-18020 Transfer records when ceasing to do business. You must:

WAC 296-800-21005 Provide and maintain adequate lighting.

Note:

This section establishes minimal levels of lighting for safety purposes only. Guidelines pertaining to optimal levels of lighting and illumination may be found in Practice for Industrial Lighting, ANSI/IES RP7-1979. (See the resource section of this book on how to contact ANSI.)

You must:

• Provide and maintain adequate lighting for all work activities in your workplace. See the following table.

Outdoor task	5	2.5
Nontask activities for both indoor and outdoor	3	1.5

*Lighting levels must be measured at thirty inches above the floor/working surface $((\Theta F))$ at the task.

You must:

• Have adequate light for employees to see nearby objects that might be potential hazards or to see to operate emergency controls or other equipment, if general lighting is not available.

Note:

- Lighting levels can be measured with a light meter.

WAC 296-800-25005 Provide fixed stairs where required. You must:

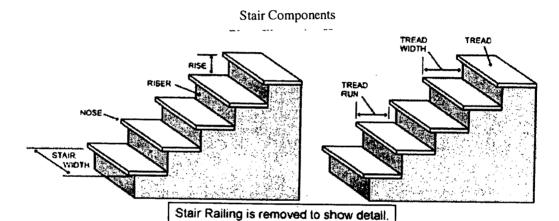

- Install fixed stairs where:
- Employees travel between different levels on a predictable and regular basis.
- Access to platforms is required to give routine attention to equipment under operation.
- Daily movement between elevations is required to gauge, inspect, and maintain equipment where those work assignments may expose employees to acids, caustics, gases, or other harmful substances.
- Carrying tools or equipment by hand is a normal work requirement.
- Not use spiral stairways except as secondary exit routes.

Note:

- · You can use fixed ladders for climbing elevated structures, such as tanks, towers, and overhead traveling cranes, when their use is common practice in your industry.
- · You can use winding stairways on tanks and similar round structures if the structure's diameter is at least five feet.
- · You could use a spiral stairway as an exit route in a restricted area that lacks room for a conventional stairway.

These rules do not apply to cords and cables that are an internal part of factory assembled appliances and equipment, like the windings on motors or wiring inside electrical panels.

Note:

Flexible cords and cables are typically used to connect electrical equipment to a power source. These cords can have an electrical plug to connect to a power source or can be permanently wired into the power source. The terms flexible cords, extension cord, cables and electrical cords all refer to a type of flexible cord.

You must:

- (1) Perform visual inspections.
- On portable cord- and plug-connected equipment and extension cords before use on each work shift. Defects and damage to look for include:
 - Loose parts.
 - Deformed or missing pins.
 - External defects and damage.
 - Damage to the outer covering or insulation.
- Pinched or crushed covering or insulation that might indicate internal damage.

Exemption:

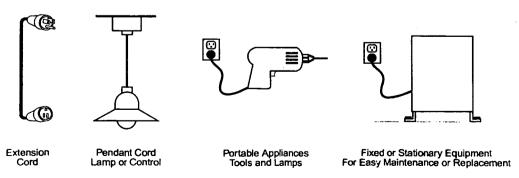

You do not need to visually inspect portable cord- and plug-connected equipment and extension cords that stay connected once in place and are not exposed to damage until they are moved

You must:

- ((And)) Remove from service any defective or damaged cord until repaired and tested.
- Make sure flexible cords and cables are used as described.
 - (2) Use.
 - Use flexible cords only as follows:
 - Wiring of equipment and appliances.
- Data processing cables approved as a part of the data processing system.
 - Pendants.
 - Wiring for fixtures.
- Connecting portable lamps or appliances to an approved outlet with an attachment plug.
- Connecting stationary equipment that is frequently changed with an attachment plug energized from an approved outlet.
 - Preventing noise or vibration transmission.
- Appliances that have been designed to permit removal for maintenance and repair if the appliance is equipped with an attachment plug energized from an approved outlet.
 - Elevator cables.
 - Wiring of cranes and hoists.

Common Acceptable Uses of Flexible Cords

Note: Extension cords (flexible cord sets) may be used on a temporary basis if you follow the rules described in the temporary use section, WAC 296-800-28030(3).

You must:

- Not use flexible cords in the following ways:
- As a substitute for fixed wiring of a structure.
- To run through holes in walls, ceilings, or floors.
- To run through doorways, windows, or similar openings.
 - To attach to building surfaces.
 - To conceal behind building walls, ceilings, or floors.
 - To raise or lower equipment.
- Make sure flexible cords and cables are approved and suitable for:
 - The way they will be used.
 - The location where they will be used.
- Not fasten or hang cords and equipment in any way that could cause damage to the outer jacket or insulation of the cord.
- Make sure insulation on flexible cords and cables is intact.
 - Make sure flexible cords and electrical cords are:
- Connected to devices and fittings so that any pulling force on the cord is prevented from being directly transmitted to joints or terminal screws on the plug.
- Used only in continuous lengths without splice((*)) or tap. • Prohibit your employees from using wet hands to plug or unplug equipment or extension cords if the equipment is energized.

((±))Note:

Hard service flexible cords No. 12 or larger may be repaired or spliced if the insulation, outer sheath properties, and use characteristics of the cord are retained.

You must:

- (3) Provide the following for temporary use.
- Make sure temporary electrical power and lighting installations that operate at 600 volts or less are used only:
- During and for remodeling, maintenance, repair or demolition of buildings and similar activities.
 - Experimental or developmental work.
 - For no more than ninety days for:
 - Christmas decorative lighting.
 - Carnivals.
 - ♦ Other similar purposes.
- Make sure flexible cords and electrical cords used on a temporary basis are protected from accidental damage:

- By avoiding sharp corners and projections
- If they pass through doorways or other pinchpoints.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-28040 Make sure electrical equipment is effectively grounded. You must:

- Make sure the path to ground from circuits, equipment, and enclosures is permanent and continuous.
- Make sure equipment connected by cord and plug is grounded under these conditions:
- Equipment with exposed noncurrent carrying metal parts.
- Cord and plug connected equipment which may become energized.
 - Equipment that operates at over 150 volts to ground.

((Exemption: Except for guarded motors and metal frames of electrically heated appliances, if the appliance frames are permanently and effectively insulated from ground.))

- Equipment in hazardous locations. (WAC 296-24-95613)

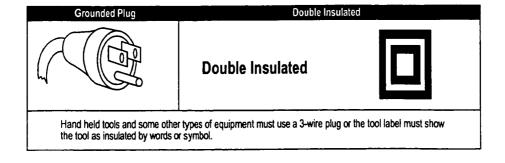

Exemption:

Except for guarded motors and metal frames of electrically heated appliances, if the appliance frames are permanently and effectively insulated from ground.

- Ground the following type of equipment:
- Hand-held motor-operated tools((-))
- Refrigerators((-))
- Freezers((-))
- Air conditioners((-))
- Clothes washers and dryers((-))
- Dishwashers((-))
- Electrical aquarium equipment((-))
- Hedge clippers((-))
- Electric lawn mowers((-))
- Electric snow blowers((-))
- Wet scrubbers((-))
- Tools likely to be used in damp or wet locations((-))
- Appliances used by employees standing on the ground, on metal floors or working inside of metal tanks or boilers((-))
 - Portable hand lamps((-))

Note:

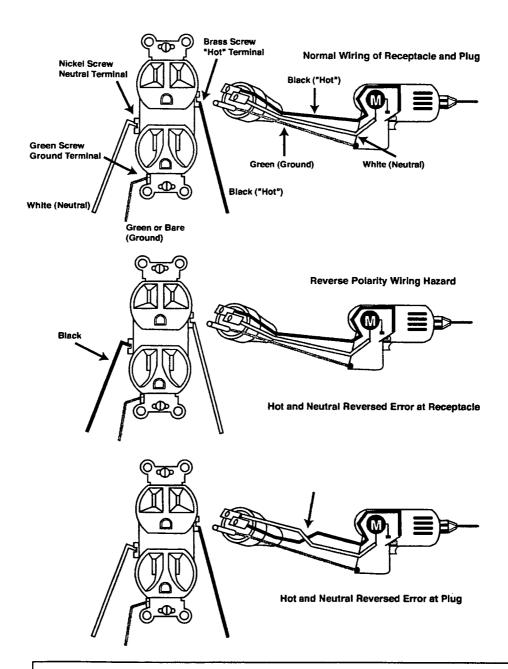

Grounding can be achieved by: Using tools and appliances equipped with an equipment grounding conductor (three-prong plug and grounded electrical system).

Permanent

You must:

- Make sure exposed metal parts of fixed equipment that do not conduct electricity, but may become energized, are grounded if the equipment is in a wet or damp location and is not isolated.
- Make sure ground wires are identified and look different than the other conductors (wires).
- Make sure ground wires are not attached to any terminal or lead to reverse polarity of the electrical outlet or receptacle.
- Make sure grounding terminals or grounding-type devices on receptacles, cords, connectors, or attachments plugs are not used for purposes other than grounding.

Reverse polarity wiring can cause a faulty tool to start as soon as it is plugged in or not stop when the switch is released. This could cause an injury. An extremely dangerous type of reverse polarity wiring switches the hot and ground wires. This causes the body of the tool or appliance to be "hot". Touching the tool and conductive surface can result in serious or even deadly shock.

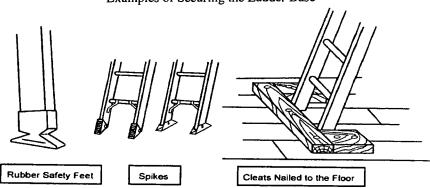

Permanent [80]

WAC 296-800-29015 Use your portable metal ladders safely. You must:

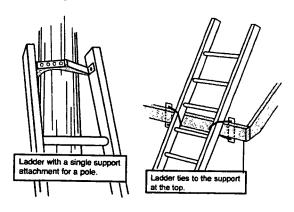

- (1) Use metal ladders only for their intended purpose.
- (2) Make sure the base section of the portable metal ladder has secure footing.

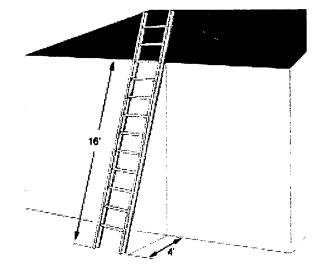

(3) Make sure both rails are supported at the top, unless the ladder has a single support attachment.

Examples of Securing the Ladder at the Top

- (4) Make sure while climbing portable metal ladders, ((you)) your employees:
 - Have both hands free to hold on to the ladder.
 - Face the ladder when you are climbing up or down.
- (5) Not tie or fasten ladder sections together to make longer ladders (unless the ladder manufacturer endorses this type of use, and you have hardware fittings specifically designed for this use).
- (6) Make sure a nonself-supporting portable ladder is set at a safe angle. The proper angle is to place the base a distance from the vertical wall equal to one-fourth the working length of the ladder.

Note:

Safe ladder angle. A simple rule for setting up a ladder at the proper angle is to place the base a distance from the wall, equal to 1/4 the working length of the ladder. ((For example, if your ladder is 16 feet long, set the bottom of the ladder 4 feet away from the wall.)) AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-300 Summary—Portable fire extinguishers. Important:

The following WISHA rule applies to the placement, use, maintenance, and testing of portable fire extinguishers provided for the use of employees. Your local fire ((marshall)) marshal also enforces fire codes which address fire safety that are more comprehensive and may go beyond WISHA rules.

((Note:

The introduction has important information about building, electrical and fire codes that may apply to you in addition to WISHA rules. See "How do the WISHA rules relate to building, fire and electrical codes" in the introduction section of this book.))

Your responsibility:

To provide readily accessible, appropriate portable fire extinguishers for employees in your workplace

You must Provide portable fire extinguishers in your workplace WAC 296-800-30005

Select and distribute portable fire extinguishers in your workplace

WAC 296-800-30010

Make sure that portable fire extinguishers are kept fully charged, in good operating condition, and left in their designated places

WAC 296-800-30015

Inspect and test all portable fire extinguishers

WAC 296-800-30020

Train your employees to use portable fire extinguishers WAC 296-800-30025

Exemptions:

• You are exempt from the requirements of portable fire extinguishers if you have the following:

((You have:))

- A written fire safety policy that requires the immediate and total evacuation of employees from the workplace when there is a fire alarm signal,

AND

 An emergency action plan and a fire prevention plan which meet the requirements of WAC 296-24-567

AND

- Portable fire extinguishers in your workplace that are not accessible for employee use
- If another WISHA rule requires portable fire extinguishers, then you must comply with these requirements.
- Where extinguishers are provided but are not intended for employee use and you have an emergency action plan and a fire prevention plan (which meet the requirements of WAC 296-24-567), then only the requirements of WAC 296-800-30020 apply.

Permanent [82]

Note:

The introduction has important information about building, electrical and fire codes that may apply to you in addition to WISHA rules. See "How do the WISHA rules relate to building, fire and electrical codes" in the introduction section of this book.

WAC 296-800-30010 Select and distribute portable fire extinguishers in your workplace. Exemption:

- This does not apply to the portable fire extinguishers provided for employees to use outside of workplace buildings or structures.
- You are exempt from the distribution requirements of this rule if you have an emergency action plan (that meets requirements of WAC 296-24-567):
- Which designates certain employees to be the only employees authorized to use the available portable fire extinguishers; and
- Requires all other employees in the fire area to immediately evacuate the affected work area upon the sounding of the fire alarm

You must:

- Provide the correct type of portable fire extinguishers and distribute them in your workplace, depending on the type, size, and severity of fire that could occur
- The type of portable fire extinguishers you must have in your workplace depends on the types of fire hazards that exist in your workplace

 - The cylinder or shell threads are damaged
- Corrosion has caused pitting, including corrosion under removable name plate assemblies

- The extinguisher has been burned in a fire
- Calcium chloride extinguishing agents have been used in a stainless steel shell

Note: Specific rules regarding conducting hydrostatic tests are covered in WAC 296-24-59212.

You must:

- To obtain a copy of the Request for Copy of Citation and Notice form, call 360-902-5534, or contact your local labor and industries office (see the resource((s)) section for a complete list of the offices.)
- If you submit this form, you'll receive all citation and notices issued to that employer for the next 12 months.
- When the department approves the request for a copy of a citation and notice, WISHA will indicate the date the application is approved, and the date it expires. Once approved, your application is valid for one year. Once expired, a one-year extension may be requested.
- You can waive the one-year period when you make your initial request.
- If more than one employee representative requests a copy of the same citation and notice, the department may decide which person will receive the copy of the citation and notice.
- The department can deny requests for copies of citation and notices if the person filing the request is not an employee representative.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

- WAC 296-800-35026 Probability rate determination.

- Probability refers to the likelihood of an injury, illness or disease occurring, and is expressed in whole numbers ranging from 1 (lowest) to 6 (highest). Probability does not change severity.
- When determining probability, WISHA considers the number of employees affected and other factors, depending on the situation. Other factors may include:
 - Frequency of employee exposure
- Instances (number of times the same violation occurs in the workplace)
 - How close an employee is to the hazard
 - Weather and other working conditions
 - Employee skill level
 - Employee awareness of the hazard
 - The pace, speed, and nature of the task or work
 - Use of personal protective equipment
 - Amount of exposure (for health violations)
 - Other mitigating or contributing circumstances

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-35030 Base penalty adjustments.

• WISHA may adjust an employee's base penalty amount because of the ((employer's)) good faith effort, size, and compliance history. No adjustments are made to penalty amounts specified by statute

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

WAC 296-800-35040 Reasons for increasing civil penalty amounts.

• WISHA may increase civil penalties by applying a multiplier to an adjusted base penalty. Multipliers may be applied for the following reasons:

Repeat violations:

- A repeat violation occurs when WISHA cites an employer more than once in the last 3 years for a substantially similar hazard.
- The 3-year period is measured from the date of the final order for each previous citation
- The adjusted base penalty will be multiplied by the total number of inspections with violations (including the current inspection with a violation) involving similar hazards
- The maximum penalty cannot exceed $70,000 for each violation

Willful violations:

A willful violation is a voluntary action done either with an intentional disregard of, or plain indifference to, the requirements of the applicable WISHA rule(s):

- For all willful violations, the adjusted base penalty will be multiplied by 10
- All willful violations will receive at least the statutory minimum penalty of $5,000
- The maximum penalty cannot exceed $70,000 for each violation

Egregious violations:

An egregious violation may be issued for exceptionally flagrant cases involving willful violations. In these cases, WISHA will issue a separate penalty for each instance of an employer failing to comply with a particular rule

Failure-to-abate violations:

A failure-to-abate violation occurs when an employer who has been cited for a WISHA violation, fails to correct the violation on time (certifying corrected violations is covered in WAC 296-800-35200 through 296-800-35270)

- The maximum penalty cannot exceed $7,000 for every day the violation is not corrected
- For a general violation with no initial penalty, the minimum failure-to-abate penalty is $1,000, with a possible adjustment for the employer's effort to comply
- For violations with an initial penalty, WISHA, based on the facts at the time of reinspection:
- ♦ Will multiply the adjusted base penalty by 5, but may possibly make adjustments for the employer's effort to comply
- ♦ May multiply the adjusted base penalty by the number of days past the correction date if the employer does not make an effort to comply.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 01-11-038, filed 5/9/01, effective 9/1/01)

- All abatement documents remain posted for at least 3 working days after they are submitted to the department
- All posted abatement documents are not altered, defaced, or covered by other materials weighted average exposure which must not be exceeded at any time over a working day.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 00-23-101, filed 11/21/00, effective 1/1/01)

WAC 296-17-855 Experience modification. The basis of the experience modification shall be a comparison of the actual losses charged to an employer during the experience period with the losses which would be expected for an average employer reporting the same exposures in each classification. The comparison shall contain actuarial refinements designed to mitigate the effects of losses which may be considered catastrophic or of doubtful statistical significance, due consideration being given to the volume of the employer's experience. Except for those employers who qualify for an adjusted experience modification as specified in WAC 296-17-860 or 296-17-865, the experience modification shall be calculated from the formula:

MODIFICATION =
$$\frac{Ap + WAe + (1-W) Ee + B}{E + B}$$

The components Ap, WAe, and (1-W) Ee are values which shall be charged against an employer's experience record. The component, E, shall be the expected value of these charges for an average employer reporting the same exposures in each classification. The meaning and function of each symbol in the formula is specified below.

"Ap" signifies "primary actual losses." For each claim the primary actual loss is defined as that portion of the claim which is considered completely rateable for all employers and which is to enter the experience modification calculation at its full value. For each claim in excess of (($10,936)) $11,764 the primary actual loss shall be determined from the formula:

PRIMARY LOSS =
$$\frac{((27,340)) \ 29,410}{\text{Total loss} + ((16,404)) \ 17,646} \times \text{total loss}$$

Primary actual losses for selected claim values are shown in Table I. For each claim less than (($10,936)) $11,764 the full value of the claim shall be considered a primary loss.

"Ae" signifies "excess actual losses." For each claim the excess actual loss is defined as that portion of the claim which is not considered completely rateable for all employers. The excess actual loss for each claim shall be determined by subtracting the primary loss from the total loss.

"W" signifies "W value." For each employer, the W value determines the portion of the actual excess losses which shall be included in the calculation of his experience modification, due consideration being given to the volume of his experience. This amount is represented by the symbol "WAe" in the experience modification formula. W values are set forth in Table II.

"E" signifies "expected losses." An employer's expected losses shall be determined by multiplying his reported exposure in each classification during the experience period by the classification expected loss rate. Expected loss rates are set forth in Table III.

"Ee" signifies "expected excess losses." Expected losses in each classification shall be multiplied by the classification "D-Ratio" to obtain "expected primary losses." Expected excess losses shall then be calculated by subtracting expected primary losses from expected total losses. Each employer shall have a statistical charge included in the calculation of his experience modification, said charge to be actuarially equivalent to the amount forgiven an average employer because of the exclusion of a portion of his excess actual losses. This charge is represented by "(1-W) Ee" in the experience modification formula. D-Ratios are set forth in Table III.

"B" signifies "B value" or "ballast." In order to limit the effect of a single severe accident on the modification of a small employer, a stabilizing element (B value) shall be added to both actual and expected losses. B values are set forth in Table II.

- (5) The agency will send semiannual notices of the due dates and amounts of deposits required under subsection (4) of this section. The fee for late filings under WAC 490-105-070(2) of this chapter applies to late payments of deposits into the fund for a period cumulating to thirty calendar days. Failure to make a deposit within thirty calendar days is a violation of RCW 28C.10.050 (1)(f).
 - (6) Each semiannual notice will include:
 - (a) The school's aggregated prior deposits into the fund;
- (b) The school's balance of remaining payments, based on the most recent deposit received and adjusted to the current contribution level;
- (c) The cumulated balance existing in the fund at the most recent half-year accounting; and
- (d) A summary showing any disbursals made from the fund to satisfy claims in the period since the last summary was disseminated.
- (7) If disbursements made to settle claims reduce the operating balance below one million dollars and recovery of such funds has not been ensured under the provisions of RCW 28C.10.084 (10)(d), the agency will assess each school a pro rata share of the amount required to restore the deficiency. The assessment will be made within thirty calendar days of the date deficiency is created. Each school's share of - the assessment will be calculated using the percentages established under subsection (2) of this section. If the school's assessment equals or is less than the semiannual amount of deposit established for the school under subsection (4) of this section, the assessment must be paid within thirty calendar days of notice. If the assessment exceeds the amount of the school's semiannual deposit, it may apply to the agency for a schedule of deferred payments. The agency will grant deferrals on application, but in no case will the extension exceed one year beyond the date of the assessment.
- (8) Funds disbursed to settle claims against a currently licensed school will be recovered by the agency under a schedule to be negotiated with the affected school on a case-by-case basis. To secure deferral of payment more than thirty calendar days after demand for recovery is made, the burden to prove manifest hardship rests on the school but in no case will the time extended exceed one year beyond the date of the initial demand notice.
- (9) Claimant, as referenced under RCW 28C.10.084 (10)(a), is further defined to mean an enrolled student in regular attendance or on an authorized leave of absence at the time of closure.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 98-22-033, filed 10/29/98, effective 11/29/98)

- WAC 490-105-170 What actions are prohibited? (1) The term "unfair business practice" under RCW 28C.10.110(11) is further defined to mean those practices described as prohibited under RCW 28C.10.090.
- (2) In addition to the actions described in RCW 28C.10.110 it is an unfair business practice for a private vocational school or its agent to:
- (a) Advertise, offer, sell, or award any educational credential without requiring the consumer to enroll in and successfully complete a prescribed program of study, as outlined in the school's catalog or brochure;
- (b) Sell, discount, or transfer contracts or promissory notes for tuition to third parties without the signed consent of the student or the student's financial sponsors, and a statement notifying all parties that the cancellation and refund policy continues to apply;
- (c) Misrepresent to students the potential amount of federal financial aid available;
 - (d) Employ the term "accredited" in advertising unless:
 - (i) The school holds a current grant of accreditation; and
- (ii) The term "accredited" is accompanied with equal prominence by the full name and/or seal of the agency from whom the school holds a current grant of accreditation.
- (iii) If the accrediting agency is not recognized by the United States Secretary of Education under the provisions of the Higher Education Act (Chapter 34 CFR), as amended, the school must provide the agency with documentation of its grant of accreditation and other related information required by the agency to establish the nature and scope of the accrediting agency. The agency will approve or disapprove its use in advertising after reviewing submitted documentation.
- (3) Schools are prohibited under RCW 28C.10.110(3) from advertising educational programs under the "help wanted" section of publications. Schools may, however, advertise under a help wanted classification for the purposes of:
 - (a) Recruiting for bona fide job openings; or
 - (b) Soliciting job opportunities for available graduates.
- (4) To establish consistency in the implementation of this section, the following definitions will apply:
- (a) "Advertise" means the publishing by a school of information that establishes its identity, location, and nature of its training programs. It may or may not contain an offer of training.
- (b) "Help wanted" section means any classified advertising section in a publication that contains job listings. The particular wording the publication uses to identify such a section is not material.
- (c) "Newspaper" means a printed publication containing news, editorials, advertisements, etc. The definition extends to tabloids such as "nickel-savers" that contain primarily or exclusively advertising. It is not material whether the publication is sold or given away.
- (d) For purposes of this section, it is not considered "advertising" if a school inserts a notice in a "help wanted" section referring the reader to a different classified heading in the same issue of the same publication, as long as:

- (i) An offer of training is being made by the school under an appropriate other section in the same issue of the same publication; and
- (ii) The referral notice contains only the name of the school and not its address, telephone number, or description of program(s); and
- (iii) The overall size and general appearance of what appears as a notice is consistent with its purpose only to refer readers elsewhere.
- (5) Schools are prohibited from making offers of training without including the full name and/or d/b/a under which the school is licensed. Permutations of the name and/or d/b/a such as initials or nicknames can be used only with prior written permission of the agency.
- (6) RCW 28C.10.110(12) makes it an unfair business practice for a school to attempt to recruit students within forty feet of a building that contains a welfare or unemployment office. The term "recruiting" is defined by statute. Other terms employed in the statute are further defined as follows:
- (a) The distance of "forty feet from a building" is measured as a straight line from any doorway affording public access. In instances of buildings with multiple entrances, the distance is measured from any part of the structure.
- (b) When applied to state government, "welfare or unemployment office" means buildings offering public access to provide services to clients of the Washington state employment security department or the department of social and health services.
- (c) When applied to county and municipal agencies, "welfare or unemployment office" means those buildings offering public access for the purpose of providing shelter, food, employment, health, and social services.
- (d) The term "welfare or unemployment office" includes established locations operated by community-based, non-profit organizations for the purpose of providing shelter, food, employment, health, and social services to disadvantaged populations.
- (7) The agency is authorized to deny, revoke, or suspend the license of any school found to have engaged in a "substantial number" of unfair business practices or "significant" unfair business practices. Those two quoted terms are further defined as follows:
- (a) The agency may conclude that a substantial number of unfair business practices has occurred when a pattern of persistent violations exists and there are multiple complaints alleging various unfair business practices.
- (b) The agency may conclude that unfair business practices are significant when it determines that their egregious nature threaten the operation of the school and/or jeopardize the ability of students to secure contracted services. An abrupt school closure which fails to comply with WAC 490-105-210 provisions may also be considered as significant.

WSR 01-23-012 EMERGENCY RULES DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND WILDLIFE

[Order 01-253—Filed November 8, 2001, 3:21 p.m.]

Date of Adoption: November 8, 2001. Purpose: Amend commercial fishing rules.

Citation of Existing Rules Affected by this Order: Repealing WAC 220-52-04600V; and amending WAC 220-52-046.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 77.12.047.

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds that immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.

Reasons for this Finding: The commercial closure in Region 2E is to maintain harvest allocation plans. There is insufficient time to promulgate permanent rules.

WSR 01-23-024 EMERGENCY RULES DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND WILDLIFE

[Order 01-254—Filed November 9, 2001, 3:22 p.m.]

Date of Adoption: November 8, 2001.

Purpose: Amend personal use fishing rules.

Citation of Existing Rules Affected by this Order: Repealing WAC 232-28-61900E; and amending WAC 232-28-619.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 77.12.047.

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds that immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.

Reasons for this Finding: Recent late stock adult coho returns to Washougal Hatchery have been significantly above the preseason forecast. There is insufficient time to promulgate permanent rules.

WSR 01-23-026 EMERGENCY RULES DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND WILDLIFE

[Order 01-256—Filed November 9, 2001, 4:32 p.m.]

Date of Adoption: November 9, 2001.

Purpose: Amend commercial fishing rules.

Citation of Existing Rules Affected by this Order: Repealing WAC 220-47-804; and amending chapter 220-47 WAC.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 77.12.047.

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds that immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.

Reasons for this Finding: In-season catch estimates indicate that the harvestable share of Bellingham Bay chum have been taken. Closure of the fishery is required to prevent over harvest. Run size in Area 8 has been upgraded and there are additional fish available for harvest. Area 8D is being closed to ensure escapement to the hatchery and may reopen when the egg take goal is achieved. Further openings in Areas 10 and 11 are pending allocation negotiations with treaty-tribe comanagers. Area 12C is closed and purse seine hours restricted in Area 12 and 12B as per negotiations with Treaty-Tribe comanagers. There is insufficient time to promulgate permanent rules.

[Order 01-257—Filed November 13, 2001, 4:54 p.m.]

Date of Adoption: November 13, 2001. Purpose: Amend commercial fishing rules.

Citation of Existing Rules Affected by this Order: Repealing WAC 220-32-05700K and 220-32-05700L; and amending WAC 220-32-057.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 77.12.047.

Reasons for this Finding: Opens sturgeon gill net fishery in Bonneville and John Day pools for one week. The set line season in Bonneville and John Day pools remains open. Harvestable numbers of sturgeon are available on the guidelines in the two pools. Consistent with compact action of November 13, 2001. Conforms state rules with tribal rules. WSR 01-23-049 EMERGENCY RULES DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND WILDLIFE

Date of Adoption: November 16, 2001. Purpose: Commercial fishing regulations.

Citation of Existing Rules Affected by this Order: Repealing WAC 220-47-805; and amending chapter 220-47 WAC.

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 77.12.047.

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds that immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.

Reasons for this Finding: In-season catch estimates indicate the harvestable share of Bellingham Bay chum salmon has been taken. Closure of the fishery is required to prevent overharvest. Area 8 has a history of poor performance of inseason update models in the past, and the Skagit River system has not met the odd-year escapement goal for chum salmon since 1987. Under the "best" in-season update (the Blinkhorn model), the total available harvest has been taken, except a small, limited harvest of chum in the upper Skagit River remains to yet be caught. Both the nontreaty and Swinomish tribal fisheries in Area 8 are now closed. Area 8D is being closed to ensure escapement to the hatchery and may reopen when the egg take goal is achieved. Tulalip Hatchery is currently estimated to be approximately 25% of the way there. The run in Area 8A, based on preseason forecast, is 113,000, and that would provide 70,000 harvestable fish. There are sufficient numbers of harvestable remaining to be caught to maintain the schedule contained in permanent regulations. For southern Puget Sound, the nontreaty catch-to-date has been tabulated at 434,753 out of a total allocation share of 452,600. This leaves 17,847 fish that remain to be caught in the nontreaty share, but this is not enough fish to support a general opening for all gears. However, there is enough remaining in the share to support a two day opening for gill nets only. Hood Canal chum run size is estimated by WDFW to number approximately 618,500, and at this level sufficient numbers of harvestable fish remain for further fishing in Areas 12B and 12C. Per agreements, Area 12 will not open during this time period for protection of wild spawning chum salmon. There is insufficient time to promulgate permanent rules.

WSR 01-23-057 EMERGENCY RULES INTERAGENCY COMMITTEE FOR OUTDOOR RECREATION

[Filed November 20, 2001, 9:43 a.m.]

Date of Adoption: November 15, 2001.

Purpose: In relation to projects on the LEAP Capital Document No. 2001-24 list of projects for the Washington wildlife and recreation program, to provide a "waiver of retroactivity" for development costs. Without amendment, the standard rule would prohibit reimbursement for certain expenditures made or costs incurred without prior IAC approval.

Citation of Existing Rules Affected by this Order: Amending WAC 286-13-085(2).

Statutory Authority for Adoption: RCW 79A.15.060(1). Other Authority: RCW 79A.15.070(5).

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds that immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.

Reasons for this Finding: The effective date of a permanent WAC change is several months after the actual suspension of funding for the projects on LEAP Capital Document No. 2001-24; emergency rule adoption is needed to ensure the relief provided can be used immediately by affected government entities, per IAC Resolution 2001-41.

November 19, 2001 Laura E. Johnson Director AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 98-08-014, filed 3/18/98, effective 4/18/98)

WAC 286-13-085 Retroactive and increased costs. See WAC 286-04-010 for definition of terms for the following section.

Under most conditions, eligible expenses may only be reimbursed for activities that occur within the period cited in the project agreement. This is known as the committee's prohibition on retroactivity. To avoid this prohibition, a waiver may be issued.

(1) Retroactive land acquisition costs.

The director may grant a waiver of retroactivity whenever an applicant asserts, in writing, that a condition exists which may jeopardize the project. When evidence warrants, the director may grant the applicant permission to proceed by issuing the written waiver. This waiver of retroactivity will not be construed as an approval of the proposed project. If the project is subsequently approved, however, the costs incurred will be eligible for assistance. If the project is to remain eligible for grant support from federal funds, the director shall not authorize a waiver of retroactivity to the applicant until the federal agency administering the federal funds has issued its own waiver of retroactivity as provided under its rules and regulations.

(2) Retroactive development costs. The only retroactive development costs eligible for reimbursement consideration are preliminary expenses (e.g., engineering costs).

However, solely in respect to WWRP projects on LEAP Capital Document 5, the director is authorized to grant a waiver of retroactivity which establishes eligibility for future reimbursement of all appropriate development costs. Such applicants' retroactivity requests must be in writing, and provide sufficient justification. Reimbursement of expenditures is subject to the provisions of WAC 286-13-070. This authority shall be effective until the execution of a project agreement or June 30, 1997, whichever occurs first.

However solely in respect to WWRP projects on Leap Capital Document 2001-24, the director is authorized to grant a waiver of retroactivity, which establishes eligibility for future reimbursement of all appropriate development costs. Such applicants' retroactivity requests must be in writing, and provide sufficient justification. Reimbursement of expenditures is subject to the provisions of WAC 286-13-070. Waivers granted pursuant to this authority shall be effective until the suspension is lifted, funding authority terminated or November 8, 2002, whichever occurs first.

- (3) Cost increases.
- (a) Cost increases for approved projects may be granted by the committee if financial resources are available.
- (b) Each cost increase request will be considered on its merits.
- (c) If an approved project recommended for federal funding is denied by the appropriate federal agency, the sponsor may request that the committee increase assistance by an equivalent amount; such requests shall be considered on their merits.
- (d) The director may approve a sponsor's acquisition, development, and/or noncapital project cost increase request so long as the total request does not exceed ten percent of the project's approved initial cost. The director's approval of an resign from the matter, or seek court direction as may be necessary to resolve the conflict or impropriety. - (j) Limit duties to those ordered by court. A guardian ad litem shall comply with the court's instructions as set out in the order appointing a guardian ad litem, and shall not provide or require services beyond the scope of the court's instruction unless by motion and on adequate notice to the parties, a guardian ad litem obtains additional instruction, clarification or expansion of the scope of such appointment.

Costs may be imposed for such requests.
- (q) Keep records of time and expenses. A guardian ad litem shall keep accurate records of the time spent, services rendered, and expenses incurred in each case and file an itemized statement and accounting with the court and provide a copy to each party or other entity responsible for payment. PROPOSED GUARDIAN AD LITEM RULE 6: LIMITED APPOINTMENTS

There may be situations where the court wishes to appoint a person in addition to, or instead of, a guardian ad litem to fulfill very limited roles. A person appointed pursuant to this rule is strictly limited to the duties of the role below selected by the court. If the Oorder of Aappointment does not specifically designate a limited appointment as listed below, the person appointed is presumed to be a guardian ad litem, subject to the Guardian ad Litem Rules. The court may make the following limited appointments:

- (a) Mediator. The court may either appoint or refer to a person or agency whose role is to assist the parties in reaching an agreement about any or all contested issues in the case.
- (b) Evaluator. The court may appoint or refer to a person or agency for evaluation and findings regarding a specific issue or issues including but not limited to mental health, substance abuse, issues of abuse or neglect cultural factors, and sexual deviancy.

- (c) Visitation supervisor. The court may appoint or refer to a person or agency to supervise visits and report findings to the court.
- (d) Parent appointed for minor parent. The court may appoint a parent to serve as a guardian ad litem for a minor parent in a parentage action.

- (f)(e) Other. Under exceptional circumstances, upon good cause shown, the court may make other limited appointments as it deems necessary.

PROPOSED GUARDIAN AD LITEM RULE 7: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Each court shall promulgate rules that set out or refer to policies and procedures establishing and governing procedures for the filing, investigating, and adjudicating grievances made by or against guardians ad litem under Titles, 11, 13, and 26 RCW. The rules shall, at a minimum, comply with and address the following:

- (a) Clear and concise. The rules shall be clear, and concise and easily understood by both attorneys and non-attorneys.

THE WASHINGTON STATE REGISTER, published under RCW 34.08.020, is distributed on the first and third Wednesdays of each month. The Register contains the full text of proposed, emergency, and permanently adopted rules of state agencies, executive orders of the governor, notices of public meetings of state agencies, rules of the state supreme court, summaries of attorney general opinions, and juvenile disposition standards that have been filed in the code reviser's office before the closing date for that issue of the Register. A cumulative table of existing sections of the Washington Administrative Code (WAC) affected by a particular agency action guides the user to the proper issue of the Register.

The code reviser's office has established an annual subscription price of $195 for a Register subscription, and single copies cost $8.00. Sales tax of 8.0% applies to all sales other than to state agencies. State law requires payment in advance. To subscribe to the Register, please complete the order form above and forward it to the address indicated, accompanied by your check or money order in the amount of $210.60 ($195 for state agencies) payable to the code reviser's office.
